

RELIABILITY

The most valuable asset possessed by a business institution is a reputation for constant reliability.

Friends can easily be made but can only be kept by retaining their complete confidence.

We strive to make friends by unflinching courtesy and real sincerity in serving them—to keep their confidence by square dealing.

Our desire always is that our goods and our name represent in every sense

Notice of Final Account. In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County. In the Matter of the Estate of Malcolm McDonald, deceased. Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern that Will M. Peterson, Administrator with the Will Annexed of the estate of Malcolm McDonald, deceased, has filed his Final Account; that the Court, by order duly made and entered, has appointed Tuesday, the 8th day of June, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon as the time, and the County Courthouse at Pendleton as the place, where all objections and exceptions to the said Final Account will be heard and a settlement thereof made. Persons interested in this matter will be governed accordingly. Dated this 6th day of May, 1920. WILL M. PETERSON, Administrator with the Will Annexed of the Estate of Malcolm McDonald, deceased.

BREVITIES

All bills of the Weston garage are due the first of each month. J. F. Snider.

Horses going higher. Better see that team we're offering. Watts & Rogers.

Some inquiries about that bargain in a black work team, 5 and 7 years old. Watts & Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. York and sons motored to Waitsburg Saturday for a visit, remaining over Sunday.

Theodore Howard, a Pendleton architect, 65 years old and for 48 years a resident of that city, is dead.

The W. L. Rayborn family moved last Friday to the ranch, where they will spend the summer months.

"Tex" Rankin, birdman, flew from Pendleton to Walla Walla in 35 minutes in a Curtis machine Tuesday.

A son was born Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGuire at the L. P. Gilliland farm on Pine creek.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles May is reported to be critically ill at their home on the mountain.

Mrs. J. E. Stanfield went to Pendleton Monday, accompanying Mrs. Rebecca Culley, who has been visiting her here.

Miss Bertha Hildebrand is here from Colorado for a few weeks' visit at the home of her father, Frank Hildebrand.

Edward Tucker and Sidney Tucker, Holdman farmers, together with their respective families, were visiting here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith motored Sunday to Dayton, Waitsburg and High Bridge for an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rogers and Genevieve and Dudley Rogers came over from Athena Wednesday evening to attend the Weston High school commencement.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Narkaus is under the doctor's care with a severe attack of bronchitis at the Selmer Thompson place on the mountain.

Mrs. John Carleton Brooks, who was the guest last week of her sister, Miss Edna Hollenbeck, left Sunday morning for Portland, where she will visit her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Bennett have gone to Montana after their Hudson car. They will drive it home so soon as weather conditions admit of crossing the mountains.

The Frank Snider family have returned from Athena and are domiciled in their home on Normal heights. Claud Snider will be a senior and Leonard a freshman in the local high school next year.

Grates will be installed at the Weston brickyard in all the kilns, and coal will be burned hereafter. Manager Harbour has found slabs to have become altogether too scarce and expensive to make a satisfactory fuel.

Dr. W. H. McKinney has added to the equipment of his office a high frequency electric therapeutic outfit, which includes a violet ray attachment. This is the most modern appliance for administering electrical treatment.

Mrs. Mary Ramirez has closed her school at Cayuse with an entertainment and picnic, and has returned to her former home on Weston mountain for the vacation season. She will be joined in a week or two by Mr. Ramirez.

Rev. E. W. Achilles occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning. There will be no service in this church next Sunday morning, as the congregation plans to attend the baccalaureate services at Columbia college in Milton.

Emery Reynolds was here this week for a few days from Starbuck, visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Snider of Tacoma. Emery is an overseas veteran, having served with the marine contingent of the celebrated Second division. He was gassed, wounded and buried in a dugout—and was glad to get back.

Tom Diggins, Basket mountain pioneer, evidently knows that mail carriers must eat in order to keep moving. The other day, while passing along his route, Jim Jones was delighted to find an entire ham hanging from the mail box of the donors, with a card attached inscribed as follows: "To mail carrier, from Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Diggins."

C. M. Schneider, who was here last week to ship a carload of his goods and chattels to his new place near Mica, Wash., has evidently "landed right." Mr. Schneider paid $108 an acre for a 231-acre farm, fully improved and equipped. The land lies 15 miles southeast of Spokane, and is especially well adapted to diversified farming. Mr. Schneider feels well pleased with his new home and surroundings.
