

"HERE COMES THE BRIDE"
JUNE IS HERE WITH ITS ROSES AND BRIDES

After the wedding comes the Home; and Home building is a business of pleasure and importance.

This Store has been busy for months past gathering the Furnishings of Quality, Worth and Beauty that make Home the dearest place on Earth.

We believe in mixing a certain amount of sentiment with our business; for, in Home-making, the sentimental aspect should not, can not be overlooked.

There are no more practical, pleasing and lasting gifts than articles of Home furnishing. Those who wish to make wedding gifts should bear this fact in mind.

We offer freely of our services in helping our patrons create pretty, substantial and comfortable Homes.

Our success is measured only in the completeness of satisfaction given. Let's talk it over. Call at the store or write for information.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heath of Athena were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Metz. The Heaths are moving soon to Portland to reside.

Mrs. E. M. Smith received word Tuesday night from the F. C. Fitzpatrick's stating that their party had arrived in Seattle and expected to reach Portland a few days later. Part of the journey had been made through considerable snow and ice.

The local Eastern Star chapter is invited to be the guest next Wednesday of the Milton chapter, and a number of Weston people are planning to motor over for the event.

With much regret, Weston friends have said good bye to the J. W. Porters, who moved Tuesday to their new home at Freewater. They were fortunate in securing an attractive and home-like residence in that growing burg.

Complimenting Miss Anice Barnes, a popular bride-elect, Crescent chapter, the local Eastern Star organization, sponsored a miscellaneous shower last Friday in Masonic hall. After the regular work of the evening, a suit case was brought in and presented to the honoree with the request that she open same and examine its contents. Many dainty and useful articles were contained therein and were admired by all present. Appetizing refreshments were served to complete the enjoyable affair. Mrs. F. B. Boyd of Athena was an out-of-town guest in attendance.

A flattering account of the recital recently given in Portland by Mrs. Lela G. Saling of this city appears in a recent issue of The Musical Leader, published in Chicago. The article comments upon the deep impression made by Mrs. Saling, not only by reason of her lovely voice but by her charming personality.

Auction Sale—Saturday, June 12, 3 p. m., at Saling building. Some dressers, commodes, kitchen cabinets, chairs, bedsteads, springs and mattresses going for what you will give. Dr. Watts.

Rufus Snider and family motored over from Heppner the first of the week for a couple of days' visit with the Frank Snider household.

Two beautiful monuments of gray granite have recently been erected in the Weston cemetery to mark the resting place of the late Grant Steen and Louis Harder.

Claude Price has been quite ill the past week at his farm home north of town.

In a message to local friends Mrs. Margaret Rabb stated that she was leaving Philadelphia this week and would proceed to Des Moines, Iowa, for an extended visit with relatives.

L. L. Snider of Nampa, Idaho, spent Thursday in the city visiting with his brother, Frank Snider. An interval of 14 years had elapsed since their last meeting.

Little Miss Leta Koons of Seattle, Washington, is the guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. Leon Lundell.

Mrs. Letha King was called to Pendleton Thursday by a message announcing the serious illness of an aunt.

The following new books have been purchased by the local library board and placed on the shelf for circulation: Splendid Outcast, by Geo. Gibbs; Man of the Forest, by Grey; Red and Black, by Richmond; Sir Harry, by Marshall; Tess of the Storm Country, by White.

Vern Camblin is seriously ill with appendicitis at his home in the upper end of town.

Mrs. M. J. Marsh came up from Pendleton for Decoration day. She accompanied Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis and J. H. Sturgis, who motored on to Walla Walla.

The legal phases connected with the bonding loan of $5000 to Weston from Carstens & Earles of Portland have been completed, and the money is now available for local waterworks improvements. These will consist chiefly in the laying of new mains. The bonds run ten years and bear six percent. They were sold at a slight discount, because of the great plethora at present of gilt-edged securities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Killgore, Mrs. James Ritchey and Miss Maggie Ritchey are here from Washington county for the reunion.

Through much volunteer work on the part of loyal and active citizen well wishers, the front of Memorial hall was completed and painted in time for the reunion. It presents a decidedly attractive and imposing appearance.

No side bidding. I want to be rid of all the furniture, bedding, etc., I put up to sale on Saturday, June 12, 3 p. m., at Saling building. Dr. Watts.

William Beaton is helping at the local barber shop during the picnic rush, having left his College Place shop in the hands of an assistant.

Following an accident while farming on Dry creek Ranzy York was attacked with a very serious illness which affected him mentally. He is now much improved, however. Mr. York was knocked down in the field and trampled upon by eight head of horses.

You'll get some furniture at your own price Saturday, June 12, 3 p. m., at Saling building. Dr. Watts.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Powers and J. R. Reynolds in the lower part of town was burned to the ground Saturday morning with most of its contents. The fire started from a defective flue in an upstairs bedroom and made such rapid progress that the building was doomed by the time a volunteer department arrived with a hose cart. The house had been for years the home of the Powers family. It occupied a large garden tract, and will probably be re-erected by a cottage. The family are now living in a tent. Their loss is estimated at $2000, and is partially covered by $800 insurance.

Emil Blevins, a member of the 1908 class of the old Weston Normal, was here during the week from Cove, Oregon. Mr. Blevins represents the Idaho Life.

Mrs. J. E. Jones and Mrs. Vernon O'Harra have returned from their stay on Weston mountain.

E. O. DeMoss and family are now domiciled at 1306 Main street, Oregon City, where Mr. DeMoss has a partnership interest in a leading undertaking establishment.

Wednesday evening the infant daughter, Georgia, of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Ellis was painfully burned about the face and chest by spilling upon herself a cup of coffee.

Mrs. R. L. Wilson of La Crosse is a hospital patient at Walla Walla, where the first of the week she sustained an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Horne of Pilot Rock are reunion guests of their daughter, Mrs. G. G. Ellis.

Our mountain friend, Frank English, gets three years of Weston Leader for only one sack of potatoes—and we're not sure at that that Frank has much the best of the bargain.

Joe Clodius still employs his time in fishing at San Diego. Recent trophies of his skill were a lobster and a crab.

James Kirkpatrick Jr. is now the owner of 100 acres of land three miles from Orofino, Idaho, which he acquired on a trade for his ice cream and lunch counter business.

BY ALL FARM IMPLEMENT FACTORIES

TO THE PEOPLE :

Every farm implement and wagon factory in the United States has materially advanced the prices on all farm implements and wagons. The advance became effective on May 1st.

We have a large and complete stock of implements and wagons. We were considerably below the market price before the advance came, and we will not take advantage of the advance, as long as this stock lasts. A considerable saving will be made if you buy your implements from US, and NOW, as we are booking many orders for mowers, rakes and binders, and when the present stock is exhausted we will then be obliged to raise the price.

ACT AT ONCE AND SAVE MONEY

LUMBER DOWN

There has been a slight decline in the price of lumber. You will get the advantage of the reduction by trading with us.

TO
THRIFT

Thrift is the saving of time, energy, resources, wages or profits. It means a home of your own, contentment, education and comfort for your children, a book to read, a day now and then for recreation, a bulwark against the day of need, and independence that lengthens and sweetens life. GET ONE OF OUR LIBERTY BELL BANKS.

ONE DOLLAR is sufficient, earning four percent interest. In this way you can begin systematic saving at home which will, in the end, prove of untold value to you.
