

Furnaces---Pipe and Pipeless

YOU cannot afford to buy a Furnace until you have first investigated

BUCK'S

The Furnace with the Patented Draft Equalizer.

SAVES one firing out of every four. THINK of it! One ton out of every four tons saved by actual day after day tests over a period of years. IF you're going to buy a furnace, buy NOT the one that costs you least the day you buy it. Buy the one that saves you the most as you use it during the years that follow; the one that gives you the most warmth and comfort at least cost in fuel and trouble; the one that will satisfy you—a "BUCK'S."

Write to us for information about the Free Heating Plan. NOW is the time to have your furnace installed. Just say the word and our representative will call on you prepared to solve your heating problems to your entire satisfaction.

BREVITIES

A few Jersey milk customers wanted. Mrs. F. G. Lucas.

Guy Cronk, Athena transfer man, has put a truck in commission and announces that he is prepared to haul anything for anybody to any place at any time.

Miss Cascada Dunn of Brighton, Colorado, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Emma Barnett. Miss Dunn was born at Wasco, Oregon, when the Cascade Locks were opened, and from this auspicious event derived her name. This is the first time she has seen her native state since she was six years old.

Sidney Tucker and family have returned from Holdman, Oregon, and Mr. Tucker has enrolled with the Blue Mountain sawmill force. His family will reside in Weston for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bell and Mrs. Van Slyke visited Walla Walla Sunday, attending the wedding of Miss Meryl Kepler and Mr. Cecil Yates, which was solemnized at the Presbyterian church in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Yates will make their home in New York City.

Miss Hazel Duncan and Miss Dorothy Proebstel, popular graduates of Weston High, have returned from Monmouth, Oregon, where they took the ten-week training course at Oregon Normal. Each may now qualify as a senior in any normal school. Miss Duncan will teach the second and third grades in The Cove school the coming year, and Miss Proebstel will teach near Heppner.

Miss Pauline Rayborn was able to come home from Pendleton Tuesday, having made a quick recovery following an operation for appendicitis. She was only twelve days in hospital.

Leander Kirk, well known pioneer, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Hodgson, after a trip to the Willamette valley. He attended an old settlers' reunion at Brownsville, Oregon, where he was born 73 years ago.

George Carmichael, who has been in failing health for some months, was taken to Portland Wednesday for treatment by Mrs. Carmichael and their son, George B. Carmichael.

J. M. Banister has bought the interest of his son-in-law, Carl McConnell, in the Krebs place between Athena and Adams. Mr. McConnell has purchased the Joe Lewis lease on the Harlow Richmond place, 700 acres, near Helix, with which he gets a farm outfit including 26 head of mules. J. M. Banister has rented the Krebs place to Jess Myrick and D. B. Banister.

Orval B. Walden, a young Weston soldier who saw active service overseas, enlisted this week in the navy. R. W. Lieuallen and family left today for Ione, Oregon, to visit relatives and see that part of Morrow county.

F. G. Lucas was in Spokane Tuesday and saw Tacoma defeat Spokane, three to two, in a fast 14-inning ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vaughan of Pendleton and Mrs. Vaughan's sister, Mrs. Charles Fuqua of Spokane, were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Pedersen.

J. A. Lieuallen returned this week from his sheep shearing trip to Wyoming. He reports good crop prospects in southern Idaho, through which he passed on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Dowd are visiting relatives at Amity, Oregon, upon coming north from Los Angeles—their first stop after their trip to the Hawaiian islands.

Mrs. Christina Beeler has gone to Pendleton for several weeks of sewing, and will make her home while there at the residence of Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis.

Miss Gladys Smith left Portland recently as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. Zophar Tharpe, formerly of Weston, on a trip into British Columbia.

The Ralph Tucker and Tim McBride families have leased a cottage at Bingham Springs and are spending their vacation at the popular resort.

Jesse Hart and family of Walla Walla and the E. E. Tuckers motored to Holdman Wednesday for a brief visit with the Ed Tuckers.

Monday was the hottest day of the season, local thermometers registering 87 degrees.

Miss Thelma Anderson is mingling with Portland throngs this week while witnessing Shrine and Rose Festival gaieties.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Royer are motoring from their home in Illinois with Weston as their destination. They plan to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Metz, parents of Mrs. Royer.

Dr. N. P. Bennet, well known dental practitioner of Weston and Athena, has been sued for divorce by Mrs. Pearl Bennet, who is now at her former home in Portland. The parties were married in June, 1918, and have a little son, Paul, of whom Mrs. Bennet asks the custody. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, a penchant for silk shirts, a thirst for patent medicines and a fondness for other women, according to The Oregonian's story of the case. It is locally reported that the wife's mother had a good deal to do with the separation.

Victor Thoeny has joined the force of workmen at the Blue Mountain sawmill.

Mrs. Bertha Sowers and daughter Evelyn came in from the Barrett ranch Saturday and spent Sunday at the William Driskell home. They have opened their cottage on north Water street and will spend the summer season in town.

Ralph Cannon lost a valuable horse Monday evening, during the electric storm which prevailed in this part of the county. The horse with twelve others was eating at a feed rack in the barnyard, when lightning struck it and killed it instantly.

Weston Singer Praised

Mrs. Saling met with a most enthusiastic reception as the soloist of the recent O. A. C. commencement at Corvallis. The Gazette-Times contained the following:

"Mrs. Lela Gordon Saling of Weston, Oregon, a pupil of Taglieri of Portland, gave great pleasure in three appearances on the program. She proved to be a soprano with a voice of lovely quality, unusual range, a great deal of dramatic power, combined with a lyric and lifting capacity that enabled her to present most effectively those numbers in which the run and the trill were predominant. In 'Villanelle' she sang of the swallow and it was not difficult to conjure up flocks of these feathered beauties skimming, dipping, soaring through the auditorium. As a matter of fact, two robins did flit about the room throughout the program and as Mrs. Saling sang her 'Villanelle' and 'The Wind's in the South,' one of these perched upon the flagpole near and paid the homage of listening intently, with its little head perked this way and that as though to catch the melody of its rival. In 'Suicido' from La Gioconda, and 'Rachem,' the fullness and richness of the singer's lower tones might have convinced the unknowing that she was a contralto; and to one at least she was that, for in the darkness that cruel night had cast years ago this one—the speaker of the day—concluded that two different people were on the program. Mrs. Saling is happy in her articulation, assumes no poses, sings with a delightful interpretation and musicianly understanding, and probably can and will go far in the continuation of her work with New York masters.

"Mrs. Ella Connell Jesse, accompanist, was a gem of purest ray serene, an artist who contributed much—as splendid accompanists ever do—to the success of the artist of the occasion. Mrs. Jesse is a Portlander, with a reputation all her own—a concert artist as well as an accompanist."

Lavender-Brockman

A simple wedding service took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the D. F. Lavender residence, Miss Ethel Josephine Lavender becoming the bride of Fred O. Brockman of Portland, Oregon.

Rev. A. J. Starmer was the officiating clergyman and employed the double ring ceremony. The wedding march was played by Miss Ruby Price. The bride was most attractive in a midnight blue tulle, with which a chic white hat was worn, and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Anna Lavender, in a dainty white gown, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Frank Lavender, brother of the bride. Following the service, a buffet luncheon inviting both to eye and taste was served.

Many handsome gifts were received by the young couple, among them a chest of silver presented by the Price relatives of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brockman left on the evening train for Portland, where they will reside.

No wedding this season has created greater interest, not only because of the prominence of the bride's family, but because the genuine popularity of the young woman herself made the marriage an important event in the social history of Weston.

Guests other than relatives included: Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Starmer, Miss Eliza Morrison, Miss Merle Best of Pendleton, L. I. O'Harra and Lyle Webb.

Professor Lyman Dead

Professor W. D. Lyman, for 30 years head of the history department at Whitman college and well known to Umatilla county people, dropped dead at his home in Walla Walla Monday afternoon, valvular heart disease being the cause. After 30 years of service in the history department, Dr. Lyman retired last week to become professor emeritus of the department. He joined the college faculty in 1889 and was at the institution from then on, with the exception of one year spent in Spokane.

GUY CRONK, Athena, Or.

THE life, the value, the beauty of your home, depend on the care you give it. Weather-beaten and warped siding, cracks and open joints are forerunners of decay. Many property owners neglect to look for such signs, judging their houses and buildings by general appearances only.

It is good business to make regular inspection of your property, and to use paint of good quality, which is the surest preventive of decay.

Through the varying conditions of weather in all their extremes, FULLER Paint has proved both its preserving and beautifying qualities—a Pacific Coast Product for Pacific Coast requirements.

71 years of paint manufacturing experience are back of every brushful of FULLER Paint.

TO SAVE IS THRIFT

Thrift is the saving of time, energy, resources, wages or profits. It means a home of your own, contentment, education and comfort for your children, a book to read, a day now and then for recreation, a bulwark against the day of need, and independence that lengthens and sweetens life. GET ONE OF OUR LIBERTY BELL BANKS.

ONE DOLLAR is sufficient, earning four percent interest. In this way you can begin systematic saving at home which will, in the end, prove of untold value to you.
