day morning via motorcycle for Yakima, where they will visit Mr. Gor—where they rise early in order to stretch the pleasure of each day.

Charles E. Hall has returned from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, where he attended an Adventist camp meeting, and from a visit to his brother's home at Pendleton. Mr. Hall finds Weston to his liking and may decide to again make his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Nelson were here from Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Nelson from Starbuck to spend a quiet Fourth under the parental vine and fig tree.

Adventures with porcupines in town are becoming quite frequent of late. Earl Barnett, one evening last week, followed an unusually large and spiny rodent up the hill and into the school yard, where with the aid of R. L. Reynaud and Ray Gordon the animal was killed. James Ashworth discovered a fat specimen on his door step last Friday evening, and shot it.

A few days ago C. F. Bullfinch found a bristly creature taking an inventory of the front yard, and with the help of an axe put an end to its travels. From 25 to 30 pounds is the average weight reported, which indicates that many a chicken dinner has been enjoyed by the foragers.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Watts moved their household goods to Athena Saturday, and will reside in the neighboring city hereafter. Prior to her departure, the ladies of the United Brethren church presented Mrs.
Watts with a substantial gift in recognition of her valued services as pianist at the church for an extended period of time.

Accompanied by her father and brother, Mrs. C. L. Pinkerton is at Bingham Springs for a week's outing. Mrs. J. E. McDaniel was a guest of Mrs. Pinkerton for a couple of days at that resort.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pedersen were called to Astoria, Oregon, the first of the week to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law of Mr. Pedersen. The deceased, the husband of Mr. Peder-sen's sister, was a locomotive engineer and was killed in a recent train wreck near Tacoma.

Studebaker car for a Fourth of July visit. Sylvan Kennard accompanied them on a trip to Walla Walla.

down from Dayton the first of the week for a holiday visit with relatives.

Lieutenant Bayles Baker and family are here from Deer Lodge, Montana for a visit at the home of his father, Merritt A. Baker. Bayles, who seemingly but a few years ago was one of Weston's lively urchins, has really been absent a long, long time from the old home burg. For a number of years he has been serving as a train dispatcher on the Milwaukee, and he is now stationed at Deer Lodge, where his brother Herbert also resides. He returned not long ago from Siberia, where he served for a time as lieutenant with a corps of engineers. He reports witnessing scenes of frightful destination and squalor among the people of Vladivostok.

please you at Memorial Hall July 17. And your money will please the Haying has begun in some fields in this locality and harvest is rapidly approaching. It is expected that a fortnight will find a number of outfits at work. Wheat continues to promise well, and a bumper yield is on the cards unless hot winds should hit the wheat, which right now is passing through a critical time.

Hyman H. Cohen, market editor of the Oregon Journal—now on his annual trip through the Northwest, predicts for Umatilla county one of the largest crops ever harvested. In the region around Athena and Weston any number of fields look as though they ought to go 50 bushels to the acre, or better.

A truck belonging to the Warren Construction company and loaded with several men and about four and a-half tons of lumber went through the Main street bridge at Weston Saturday. Luckily, the truck did not drop into the creek, but one wheel broke through the bridge decking and a serious accident was narrowly avoided. The lumber was unloaded and the truck hoisted free by means of a derrick, chains and pul-leys. Those who witnessed the accident say that the heavily loaded truck was traveling at a lively rate when it hit the bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Tucker spent the Fourth at Bingham Springs as Gould.

Camp McDougal.

Sunday, July 18, a big picnic for Odd Fellows and Rebekah and their families will be held at Camp Mc-Dougal under auspices of Weston Lodge No. 58, I. O. O. F. This festival under the pines is expected to prove among the most novel and enjoyable social events in local three-link history.

Jacob Narkaus turned off a bunch of fat beeves to the Helix butcher the other day at seven and eight cents.

Frank Skinner, formerly of Weston, has been under the care of an eye specialist of Spokane, near which city he resides. While he is in a serious condition, the danger of losing his eyesight is said to have lessened.
