W. L. Rayborn went out Tuesday from the big Jones and Jones hardware and implement establishment with a seven-foot McCormick binder. Kentucky drills were sold Thursday to W. P. Cable and Heulat March.

Mrs. Geo. Nesbit and family have returned from an extended visit in southern Idaho. Mr. Nesbit is in La Grande, where he has a position in a hardware store.

L. C. Hopkins was a Monday visitor from the uplands. Mr. Hopkins says his barley was pretty well flattened by the rains, but he expects to be able to save it nearly all by cutting it one the work, but he regards barley as well worth saving.

Mrs. J. Kirkpatrick leaves Sunday for Portland for a month's visit with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Neild.

Mrs. R. E. York and younger son are preparing to leave in a few days for Enterprise, Oregon, where her husband and elder son are located.

Rev. C. A. Rexroad, who brought back from distinguished service overseas the nickname of "the fighting parson," has been sent back to his old charge at Milton by the M. E. Church, South, and Weston people hope to have the privilege again of hearing Mr. Rexroad occasionally. Since leaving the service of Uncle Sam Mr. Rexroad has been dean of John Brown Institute.

Dr. H. C. Curry, eyesight specialist, formerly of Walla Walla and now of Seattle, who makes regular visits to Weston, will make the next professional visit Monday, September 13, for one day only. He will be remembered for his good optical work at reasonable prices. Eyes examined and glasses fitted. (Adv.)

Aunt Sarah McDougal was seized with a serious illness this week at her camp in the mountains. Prompt improvement followed, however, and she will probably remain in the mountains until the season closes.

Mrs. J. M. Banister is under the doctor's care at her home on north Water street.

W. M. Davis cropped 42 sacks of barley to the acre from 45 acres of the Wild Horse land which he sold to Harry McBride. Mr. Davis retained half the crop in the transaction.

Superintendent and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick arrived in Weston Monday evening in readiness for the school opening, and have taken the Proffit residence on Normal heights. They motored up to Weston from Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hugh Pruett, recently of Walla Walla, are enjoying a rural outing on the Pruett place near town, prior to going to Eugene. Mr. Pruett will be assistant professor of physics in the University of Oregon.

In addition to his other activities, J. A. Lumsden has taken on the wood and coal business of Gilbert Ellis, who expects to retire from local commercial circles and engage in farming. Mr. Ellis sold his scales, coal house and lease to Mr. Lumsden, but retained his dray which, however, he expects to dispose of. He has secured a five-year lease on the Ashworth place on Dry creek and expects to take possession October 1.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.
Tillie Nolan, Plaintiff, vs. George Nolan, Defendant.

To George Nolan, Defendant:
In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to the complaint herein filed against you in the above entitled court, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which date is August 13, 1920; and you will take notice that if you fail to so appear, plaintiff, for want of such appearance, will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, namely for decree of divorce between plaintiff and defendant, and for the restoration of the name Tillie Ritner to plaintiff; and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable Gilbert

W. Phelps, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 9th day of August, 1920, directing publication of summons in Weston Leader, a newspaper published in Weston, Umatilla County, Oregon, and of general circulation, once each week for six successive weeks, in which paper said summons now appears, and will appear for said period of six weeks beginning as above noted.

STEPHEN A. LOWELL,
Attorney for Plaintiff,
