A soaking rain yesterday afternoon again stopped harvest operations for a time.

Mrs. Hetty Powers has bought the Dan Sowers residence property on north Broad street.

District Attorney Keator was here the first of the week from Pendleton, getting affidavits in support of the state's claim that the murderers of the late Til Taylor will receive a fair and impartial trial in this county.

The Bell combine threshed 3500 sacks of good wheat from 160 acres of the Bell holdings on the Wild Horse. A field of 130 acres, partly re-seeded, made 2000 sacks.

Glenn Morrison was here Sunday from Cayuse, where he has warehouse work with Rudolph Proebstel, to visit his sister, Miss Eliza Morrison.

Miss Eva O'Harra and Miss Wavel O'Harra were week-end guests at the McBride Bros. farm on Eagle creek.

Mrs. William Driskell and Miss Phyllis Fetter were passengers for Freewater Wednesday. Mrs. Driskell was accompanied home by Misses Florence and LaVonne Fetter, who will spend several days in visiting local friends and relatives.

Miss Helen Rayborn is being welcomed as a new student in the piano class of Mrs. Lilian Fredericks, as is also Henry Craigen.

Mrs. J. M. O'Harra returned Sunday from Camp McDougal.

In a letter from California to the Farmers Bank of Weston John English enclosed $10 for the Taylor Memorial. He wrote: "I want also to help with the Weston potato warehouse. Count me in on anything that will build up the community."

A son of Harlan Logan arrived this week from Kansas to visit his father at the J. P. Lieuellen ranch. Mr. Logan is accompanied by his wife and two little daughters.

Teddy, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker, died recently at their home in Enterprise.

C. F. Van de Water, district freight and passenger agent of the Union Pacific system, was here Tuesday from Walla Walla. He did not omit to call on the town's leading business institution, the Weston Leader.

Brick house for sale, with six lots (one-half block.) Five rooms, with bath, lavatory and toilet. North Water street, on state highway. C. F. Bulfinch.

Jasper O'Harra was up from southern Oregon this week, visiting his brethren of the same pioneer tribe.

Miss Opal Winn and Marvin and Jesse returned last week to their home in Portland, after a pleasant and by no means unprofitable outing in the harvest fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregory have moved into the dwelling on north Broad street which they bought of C. E. Hall. Formerly with Smythe Bros., Mr. Gregory has entered the employ of the Warren Construction Co. He reaches six feet, 5 1/2 inches into the air, and makes our hitherto tallest citizen, Sim Barnes, look like a Tom Thumb.

Scott Banister is reported to have cropped an average of close to 50 bushels per acre from the Pruet place near Weston.

J. E. Jones, Fred Pittman and Joe Wurzer hunted deer Sunday and Monday on the breaks of the Umatilla. "Lots of fun but no game," is their report.

Miss Dorothy Bulfinch left Friday for Yakima, where she will teach during the coming school year.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Watts of Athens were guests Tuesday evening at the J. H. Williams home.

Mrs. D. F. Lavender and daughter, Miss Anna, left Tuesday morning for Portland, where they will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brockman and then proceed to Salem, where Miss Anna will enroll as a freshman at Willamette University. Mrs. Lavender will remain with her daughter during the school year.

Glendore and Clyde DeGraw have been doing some neat concrete work about the family domicile. The layout includes walks, steps and curbing. They report no labor troubles.

Mrs. Claude Davis was called Wednesday to Baker by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Ira Weatherman.

J. A. Lumsden finished threshing yesterday, after a strenuous season that kept him on the jump. The last crop harvested was that of Geo. Otte, which went about 38 bushels. Considerable loss resulted from the rain. A tree which got away from the fallers killed a good work horse belonging to O. S. Sondberg the other day at the Blue Mountain sawmill. The company bought a horse to replace the one lost.

Red Lucas and Lukey Lukenbill have returned from a trip of exploration into Northwest Territory, upon which they are kind enough to pass approval. The boys simply "hiked out" as boys sometimes do, for fear that their harvest money might burn holes in their pockets before they could give it a good spending.

F. J. Van Winkle arrived yesterday from Portland for a visit relatives and friends.

The Ernest Ross family arrived in town Sunday from their reservation ranch and will spend the school year in their cottage on Normal Heights.

Business continues lively in the implement department of Jones & Jones. This week they sold a wagon each to John Maddox and Sims Dickinson, a sidehill plow to Gilbert Ellis and a buggy to Eph Tucker.

The Weston Mercantile Co. has presented the head of its grocery department, Leon Lundell, with a neat baby buggy. Master Robert Gerald Lundell crows his appreciation.

ANNUAL CAKE BAKING CONTEST

$25.00 IN PRIZES $25.00

Saturday, Sept. 18

On Saturday, September 18, we will hold our fourth annual cake baking contest. So popular has this event become that our customers look forward to it with increased interest. This one promises to eclipse all others, and no effort will be spared to make it the biggest event of its kind held in Umatilla county. The tempting prizes offered and the reputation of Weston cake bakers will stimulate lively competition.

We desire that all cakes be in the store before 6 p. m. Friday, in order that the judges may have ample time for their work. The prizes are especially attractive this season and are as follows:

Ladies—

First Prize, Cash.....$7.50
Second Prize, Cash..... 5.00
Third Prize, Cash..... 3.00

Girls, 15 and Under—

First Prize, Cash.....$5.00
Second Prize, Cash..... 3.00
Third Prize, Cash..... 2.00

In addition to above, a beautiful, embroidered, pure linen handkerchief will be presented to each person entering a cake for competition.

Men's Prizes—To the man taking first prize will be given the choice of any hat in the house up to $5.00. Men, look to your laurels! There will be competition.

The Ladies' Club Room of Memorial Hall benefits. Note that the cakes are to be in the store Friday evening at six o'clock. Saturday they will be on display and at 8 p. m. the judges' decision will be announced. In the evening after the picture show the ladies will serve cake and coffee and will also sell cakes—the entire proceeds to be used in the furnishing of the Ladies' Club Room. The committee appointed by the Memorial Hall Association will have charge.

The County Food Demonstrator will have charge of the judging and judges will be appointed from out of the city.

All ladies of Weston and vicinity are requested to enter in this contest. You are to use your pleasure as to the kind of a cake you wish to bake.

Much interest will center in this contest. The prizes are worth while and the proceeds are to be used for a worthy cause.
