THE PIPELESS FURNACE proves that greater and even distribution of heat is secured by circulation rather than by radiation.

Hard to believe but it is true. IT gets there by more motion.

"CRAZY TIMES."

The bankers we have always with us to serve as financial guides and mentors; which is well, else we the Great American People might jazz and joyride ourselves along the piffing primrose path until suddenly whirled to the demeriton bow wows. The average admonition from a bankers' publication is about as cheerful and humorous as a funeral sermon; but we clip from The Confidential Banker a little prose poem entitled "Crazy Times" that hits the nail on the head in a satiric yet pertinent manner:

"Strike and the world strikes with you, work and you work alone; our souls are ablaze with a Bolshevik craze, the wildest that ever was known. Groan and there'll be a chorus, smile and you make no hit; for we've grown long hair and we preach despair and show you a daily fit. Spend and the gang will cheer you, save and you have no friend; for we throw our bucks to birds and ducks and borrow from all who'll lend. Knock and you'll be a winner, boost and you'll be a frost; for the one sane way of pre-war day is now from the program lost.

"Strike and the world strikes with you; work and you work alone; for we'd rather yell and raise blue hell than strive for an honest bone. Rant and you are a leader, toil and you are a nut; 'twas a bitter day when we pulled away from the old time work-day runt. Wait and there'll be a blowup, watch and you'll see a slump, and the fads and crimes of these crazy times will go to the nation's dump."

It may comfort the average individual taxpayer to know that he isn't getting all the worst of it. Here's what the Southern Pacific says in big type on the back page of a recent bulletin: "The railroads need more money to pay more taxes. In 1911 for every dollar paid its stockholders in dividends one-third of a dollar was paid in taxes by the Southern Pacific. In 1919 for every dollar paid its stockholders in dividends seventy-three cents was paid in taxes. Tax bill in 1911, $5,461,568; in 1919, $12,842,270."

"What is to Become of Old Town Ditch?" asks Brother Cheney in Enterprise Record-Chief. Foolish question from such a usually wise editor. Use it for planting the non-subscriber to the town paper and the merchant who doesn't advertise, and bury 'em deep.

Comfortable houses for rent are not easily found in Weston at present. For the first time in several years every dwelling on Normal Heights is occupied, a condition that contributes to the prosperous appearance of the town.

A motion picture battle near Los Angeles resulted in 160 accidents. We're a refined and civilized people, but the only place wherein that picture could fail to draw would be in a home for the blind.

With Cox whirlwinding the West and Harding spellbinding from his front porch, poor 'Gene Debs has to make his campaign speeches to an undemonstrative audience out of the corner of his mouth.

Funny that Irvin S. Cobb should be exploring Oregon lava beds for the small "sun bear" when any number of Oregon homes would feel honored at his investigation of a little brewin'.

The Vallejo, Cal., man who says he can take the crow from the rooster would better not extract the cackle from the hen these parlous times. It means an egg.

Senator Chamberlain's enemies within his own party in Oregon cannot be very numerous, since it is a queer democrat indeed that doesn't like a winner.

In the present phase of the frequent mix-ups between Sol the Shiner and Drippy Jupe, Sol is a pronounced if temporary favorite.

Let us permit the republicans to rejoice over the Maine election. The Dutch would be entitled to similarly exult over winning in Holland.

Speaking of opposites, they're going to be square down at the Round Up.

for everybody. We find them in the woods and along the road; in rocky pastures and green meadows. With their gay dresses and bright faces they give one of the most charming effects of the autumnal season.

"Will Harding meet Cox?" asks Brooklyn Eagle. He ought to if he's a live enough citizen to want to see the next president.

Senator Penrose is said to be afraid that the republicans may lose the senate. We trust his pessimism is well grounded.

With a cereal crop of something like four hundred million bushels, Kansas really ought to go democratic.

Isn't it about time for W. J. B. to exhume his disconsolate heart from a lonely grave?

Cox is getting action and leaving reaction to the Old Guard nominee.

About everything else having gone up, raisins are likewise a-raisin'.

Shipment of Sugar Arrives.

A carload shipment of sugar, valued at $10,000, has arrived for distribution among the merchants of Umatilla county. The sugar goes to the various towns of the county and will be sold by 46 different firms.
