

Auto Trimming

Tops and Curtains made to order. Large assortment of plate glasses --- a glass for every car.

A good stock of Saddles and Heavy Harness always on hand. Also Collars, Pads, Halters, etc. Get our prices before buying.

Whitman's Harness Store

(Phone 122)
Milton, Oregon

Wake Up!

IF YOU'RE GOING TO DRESS UP FOR THE ROUND UP
WHY NOT NOW?

WESTON BATHS, BARBER and TAILOR SHOP

R. L. Reynaud

General Blacksmithing

J. F. SNIDER
Weston, Oreg.

TROY LAUNDRY CO.

Pendleton, Oregon

Leave your bundles on the porch MONDAY and THURSDAY for our House-to-House Service

"We Wash Everything
But the Baby."

Dr. S. L. KENNARD

Veterinary Surgeon

Phone -- Main 253

WESTON CASH MARKET

FRESH MEATS OF ALL KINDS

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID

FOR LIVESTOCK,
HIDES, PELTS, &c.

HASS & SAUER

BREVITIES

Cash for chickens. J. R. Reynolds. Miss Ermna McIntyre left Monday for Walla Walla to enter St. Paul's School for Girls. Eldon McIntyre has become a student at Hill's Academy in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Waddingham returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Staggs and Frank Waddingham at Enterprise.

J. P. Lieuallen was lucky enough to get his foothill wheat crop threshed by a combine just before the rains descended so copiously. However, the sacks were left in the field, and he had to keep busy turning them over. His crop was a good one, averaging around 45 bushels.

Ferguson Bros. have partly finished harvesting at the home place on Weston mountain. Their wheat so far threshed yielded about 30 bushels per acre and their barley 35 bushels. Spring plowing in part of the field reduced the yield of barley. The boys have better than 15 acres in spuds that promise a splendid crop.

Miss Lola Gaskell, member of last year's graduating class of the Whitman Conservatory of Music, arrived Wednesday from La Grande to visit Miss Winnie York at the J. N. York farm. The young ladies are attending the Walla Walla Fair and Frontier Days.

Lost--Rear seat of Ford, on Washington street. Dr. N. P. Bennet.

The state highway road crew is now at work on Water street, Weston. The few gaps in the hard surface between Weston and Athena are being closed by the hot stuff men in readiness for Round Up travel.

After an extended visit here, Mrs. J. W. Jones left Wednesday for Helena, Montana, where Mr. Jones is located. She will attend the Montana state fair at Helena.

L. I. O'Harra is back with the Weston Mercantile Co. and will devote his time to accounts and the company's outside interests. "Pete" will also give special attention to marketing "spuds," beans and other farm products.

Mrs. Lillian McMorris of Portland, Mrs. Abbie Mays and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hartman motored up from Pendleton Wednesday evening and were callers at the L. S. Wood residence.

Gilbert Ellis is moving the first of the month to his farm home at the Ashworth place on Dry creek, where he will milk about five cows, raise spuds, fruit and garden truck and otherwise bestir himself. The Ellis hopefuls will attend the Dry creek school, which is conveniently near.

Master Louis Hebert is around again and just about as chirpy as ever, but is careful to sidestep all automobiles.

James Killgore is seriously ill and was brought in this week from the Culley ranch for treatment.

Ted Walden had an ankle straightened out this week by Dr. McKinney and is learning the value of crutches. While he was speeding a broncho on the foothill grade east of town he parted suddenly from his mount and tried vainly to put a dent in Mother Earth.

The Walter Webbs are remodeling their residence on Water street.

Harvesting was resumed yesterday on Reed and Hawley mountain, and the Herndon-Smock outfit is now working at the Van Winkle place. The wheat is said to be going close to forty bushels.

Mrs. M. W. Van Winkle left this morning for Portland to visit her daughter, Mrs. Sarah C. Ray. She was accompanied by her son, F. J. Van Winkle, who has been visiting here. He intends changing his residence from Portland to San Francisco, where he will follow his profession of civil engineer.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick and Miss Frank Harris Davis motored Saturday to High Ridge and gleaned a gratifying harvest of huckleberries.

The W. H. Goulds arrived home Saturday from a two months' sojourn at Camp McDougal.

Mrs. Harry Scholl of Pendleton is convalescing from a recent operation, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud on Normal Heights.

Vergil W. Neild, formerly of Weston, was a member of the September, 1920, graduating class of the Pacific Chiropractic College at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and son Gail spent Friday in Walla Walla arranging for the young man's college work at Whitman the coming year. They were greatly delighted to hear Governor Cox in one of his 15-minute speeches at the Garden City.

Jess and Frank Powsils killed two fine bucks Saturday in the vicinity of the Dick English cabin. They left town by auto at 7 o'clock in the morning, arrived on the scene of action at 10:10 a. m. and had brought down both deer by 11:15 a. m. Jess really shot the bucks, Frank's important part of the program being to drive them out of the cabin. The aid of Marvin and Charley Price had to be enlisted from Camp McDougal in order to get the heavy deer out of a ravine.

The local library board has purchased the following books, which have been placed on the shelves for circulation: Old Fashioned Girl (Alcott), Eight Cousins (Alcott), Miss Billy's Decision (Porter).

Taxi service, any place, any time. Phone 233. Don E. Bennett, Weston.

The Weston Baptist Sunday school met Sunday, September 12, at the home of T. A. Brace to celebrate the 65th birthday anniversary of Pastor W. R. Storms. A bountiful repast was served and the afternoon spent most enjoyably. The discovery of a gift of $10 under his plate contributed to the worthy pastor's pleasure.

Mrs. Anna Wroe Mills has returned to her home in Iowa after an extended visit in the uplands with her son, J. M. Wroe, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Narkaus have invested in a Ford for their occasional trips to town from the mountain farm.

Camp McDougal, erstwhile the most populous resort in the Blues, is now deserted. The last occupants were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Price and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, who came out Saturday.

Sheriff Jinks Taylor was here the first of the week from Pendleton fraternizing with the local populace.

The pool tournament at The Pastime will open Wednesday evening of next week with the following entrants: Don Bennett, F. G. DuPuis, J. A. Powsils, Joe Read, Carl Brandt, F. I. Smith, Joe Payant, F. E. Einarson, Bud Hall, Leon Lundell and Claude Davis. C. W. Avery will officiate as referee. Entrants are requested to meet next Tuesday evening at The Pastime to be divided into opposing teams.

Miss Arvilla Beamer has enrolled as a student in St. Vincent's Academy at Walla Walla.

Miss Lillian Jennings, who for the past year has been attending Whitman College and visiting her cousin, J. N. York, leaves next week on her return home to Galax, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dowd moved down from Washtucna this week and established themselves in their new home on Locust street in Walla Walla.

Miss Dorothy Bowers arrived this week from her home on Weston mountain to attend the local high school. Miss Bowers will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ross and after school hours will assist on the telephone switchboard.

The local congregation of United Brethren will elect a lay delegate Sunday to the annual conference, to be held September 23 at Elberton, Wash. Bishop Washinger will preside at the conference.

Miss Wavel O'Harra and Miss Jessie Davis visited Wednesday in Walla Walla.

W. R. "Jinks" Taylor

Democratic Candidate

—FOR—

SHERIFF

Subject to the decision of the voters of Umatilla County, November 2, 1920.

(Paid Adv.)

WESTON GARAGE

Dodge Cars

AND DODGE EXTRAS
Gasoline Oils
Accessories

CARS OF ALL MAKES OVERHAULED AND REPAIRED

Work Guaranteed

MILLER & BOOHER

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.

Tillie Nolan, Plaintiff, vs. George Nolan, Defendant.

To George Nolan, Defendant:

You are hereby required to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to the complaint herein filed against you in the above entitled court, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which date is August 18, 1920; and you will take notice that if you fail to so appear, plaintiff, for want of such appearance, will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, namely for decree of divorce between plaintiff and defendant, and for the restoration of the name Tillie Ritner to plaintiff; and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable Gilbert

W. Phelps, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 9th day of August, 1920, directing publication of summons in Weston Leader, a newspaper published in Weston, Umatilla County, Oregon, and of general circulation, once each week for six successive weeks, in which paper said summons now appears, and will appear for said period of six weeks beginning as above noted.

STEPHEN A. LOWELL,
Attorney for Plaintiff,
Pendleton, Oregon.

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Telephone 275

DR. N. P. BENNETT

WESTON - - - OREGON

LUNCHES

ICE CREAM
CIGARS
CANDIES
Baker's Goods

Phone your dray orders,
93, or call at store.

Davis & Ellis

ANNUAL CAKE BAKING CONTEST

Saturday, Sept. 18

$25.00 IN PRIZES $25.00

Cakes will judged Saturday, September 18, and prizes awarded at three o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Prize cakes will be auctioned during picture show Saturday evening. Ladies will serve cake and coffee after the show.

Proceeds will go toward furnishing the Ladies' Club Room of Memorial Hall.

Weston Mercantile Co.