

Auto Trimming

Tops and Curtains made to order. Large assortment of plate glasses --- a glass for every car.

A good stock of Saddles and Heavy Harness always on hand. Also Collars, Pads, Halters, etc. Get our prices before buying.

Whitman's Harness Store

(Phone 122)
Milton, Oregon

ONE-THIRD OFF
on all

RAINCOATS

PURCHASED WITH A SUIT OF CLOTHES--- for a short time only

WESTON BATHS, BARBER and TAILOR SHOP

R. L. Reynaud

General Blacksmithing

J. F. SNIDER
Weston, Oreg.

TROY LAUNDRY CO.

Pendleton, Oregon
Leave your bundles on the porch MONDAY and THURSDAY for our House-to-House Service "We Wash Everything But the Baby."

Dr. S. L. KENNARD

Veterinary Surgeon
Phone -- Main 253

WESTON CASH MARKET

FRESH MEATS OF ALL KINDS
HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID
FOR LIVESTOCK, HIDES, PELTS, &c.
HASS & SAUER

BREVITIES

Cash for chickens. J. R. Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price spent several days last week with relatives in Walla Walla.

Wanted—To trade 38 Colts revolver for 25-20 Winchester. Jack Elliot. Invitations have been issued for a joint piano recital to be given by Misses Pauline Rayborn and Dorothy Tweedy at the home of Mrs. Lillian Fredericks Sunday afternoon, October 3.

For Sale—One Singer sewing machine, one refrigerator. Call at dormitory. Mrs. R. G. Saling.

Local taxpayers should not overlook the fact that the last half of the 1919 tax is due on or before October 5th. Payment may be made at The Farmers Bank of Weston.

Under recent arrangements I am in a position to offer loans up to $5000 at six percent. F. G. Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tucker motored to Walla Walla Friday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Miss Lorraine Halseth left Monday morning for Browning, Montana, where she will be employed the coming year as assistant cashier of the First National bank in that city.

The season for hunting China pheasants opens next Sunday and will continue open until Sunday of the following week. In some localities the birds are quite plentiful.

Miss Eliza Morrison is the happy possessor of a fine new Brunswick phonograph purchased this week from Mrs. R. G. Saling, local agent for the popular machine.

For Sale—1113 acres best wheat land; joins town of Condon. Stock and machinery. Price, $45.00 an acre. M. Fitzmaurice, Condon, Or.

It is announced by the clerk, Mrs. John Beamer, that the annual business meeting of the Baptist Church will be held Saturday evening, October 2. All church officers and the Sunday school superintendent will be elected.

All knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to settle their accounts on or before October 10, when I am placing the accounts in the hands of a lawyer. R. G. Saling.

Mrs. E. M. Warren was visiting in Weston Sunday from Pendleton.

F. L. Barnett, farmer and stockman of Wasco county, visited relatives in Weston while attending the Round Up. Earl Barnett accompanied him home to bring back a driving mare which the visiting uncle presented to Andy Barnett to help make a team on his rural route.

Homer L. Hedrick was a visitor in Weston Monday from Pendleton. He is now selling life insurance and automobiles and looks quite debonair and prosperous.

Mrs. James Kirkpatrick returned Sunday from a visit with her son and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Vergil Neild, at Portland. She was also up to Oregon City to call on Mr. and Mrs. E. O. DeMoss.

Mrs. Zella McPherrin of Athens was a guest Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould.

Wanted—Teams to haul lumber from the Blue Mountain Sawmill to Freewater. Phone No. 161F3, mill, or No. 1131, Milton. Bardell Lumber & Box Co.

John D. Parks is back in the old burg again after an absence of eleven years, and old-time friends accorded him joyous welcome. John has been in the sheep business near Likely, California, but recently disposed of his interests there. He is now hunting a new location, and may go as far away as Florida to take a look around.

Dr. Vergil Neild, who was recently graduated from the chiropractic college at Portland, has entered the office of a leading practitioner in that city and is also taking post graduate work in a night school. He intends the study of surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Blomgren were visitors Sunday at the home of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blomgren, near Walla Walla. The E. L. Blomgrens are building a $7000 farm bungalow.

E. A. Simpson, who recently sustained the amputation of a foot at Pendleton, is reported to be getting along nicely. Edgar has always been of a quiet, retiring disposition, but may do a little kicking when he gets a wooden foot.

W. H. Booher, representative Weston farmer, is among the twelve jurymen who are trying the alleged murderers of T. D. Taylor.

Sim J. Culley plans to complete harvest operations this week and will then proceed to the Kilgore farm to seed winter wheat.

J. H. McGibbon and family have returned from a visit with relatives in Tacoma.

The initial meeting of the Saturday Afternoon Club for the season of 1920-21 is scheduled for October 2 at the social room in Memorial Hall. Mesdames J. C. Price and J. H. Williams will act as hostesses. Mrs. enroll as a student at O. A. C.

Notice to Subscribers

If this notice is marked it signifies that your subscription expires Oct. 1, 1920. We would most gratefully appreciate your prompt renewal.

Subscription rates—by the year, $2.00; six months, $1.00; three months, 50 cents.

The Leader is invariably discontinued at expiration.

Edith Van Deusen of Pendleton, home demonstration agent, plans to be in attendance and arrange for a class in the making of dress forms. Considerable interest is being manifested by club members in the resumption of fall and winter activities.

Mrs. Lillian McMorris of Portland, Mrs. Abbie Mays and Mrs. Alice Hartman of Pendleton and Mrs. Mary O. Nelson were dinner guests Wednesday of Mrs. L. S. Wood.

Miss Ruby Hall leaves Monday for Tacoma to visit an uncle residing there, and will attend normal school after the holidays.

Summer fallow areas are unusually weedy for this season of the year. The heavy rains of September have caused a rapid growth of wild plants which in some sections are as thick as sod, according to reports.

Mrs. James E. McDaniel has returned from a visit with relatives in Bellingham, Wash., and is enjoying the beautiful autumn landscape surrounding Fir Lodge, her mountain home.

Craig Driakell was over from Walla Walla the first of the week for a visit with relatives.

House and two lots for sale. E. T. Wicker.

We are doing business strictly on a cash or thirty-day basis. Miller & Booher (Weston Garage.)

Owing to the absence from town of Rev. Mark A. Phinney, the United Brethren congregation joined with that of the M. E. Church, South, for services last Sunday. An interesting missionary program was presented Sunday evening by Epworth League members.

H. V. Compton came down from the mountain ranch Saturday to spend the week-end with his family, who are occupying the Lane cottage on Normal Heights.

Miss Frank Harris Davis, desiring to keep in touch with local events, gives evidence of fine judgment by adding her name to the Leader's subscription list.

The Hey Winns motored down from Winona Saturday to look after some matters of business, returning to the Washington ranch Sunday for a longer sojourn.

Manager Barnes of Memorial Hall has just closed a contract with the Universal for "The Moonriders," a great serial picture featuring the celebrated cowboy star, Art Acord. The picture includes fifteen episodes, and beginning October 30 one episode will be presented every Saturday night at Memorial Hall. No increase will be made in admittance charges because of the serial.

Miss Esther Williams has enrolled as a student at Whitman College.

Mrs. Richard Morrison is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. E. O. DeMoss, now residing in Oregon City, in which greetings are extended to local friends. Mrs. DeMoss says: "While we are doing well in a business way, we miss our Weston friends."

Charles May, one of Weston mountain's well known farmers, finished harvesting his own crop the first of the week. Although spring-sown, his barley on the lower place made 16 sacks to the acre. His wheat, fall sown, averaged 35 bushels.

Mrs. Mary O. Nelson is in the city from the Walla Walla valley for the purpose of improving her residence properties on Water street. Mrs. Nelson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Harbour.

Maynard Jones is achieving distinction in the literary field. Last week's issue of the Lone Scout Magazine, published in Chicago, contained a clever original story from his pen entitled, "A Position Worth While."

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Funk of Walla Walla were week-end guests of the R. G. Salings, having spent Saturday at the Round Up.

George Blomgren left Saturday for Corvallis to resume his studies at O. A. C., where he is taking the agricultural course.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown of Vancouver attended the Pendleton Round Up and visited with relatives in this city. Dr. Brown returned Monday to the prosperous Washington city to resume his practice. Mrs. Brown remained for a longer stay with her mother, Mrs. Ella O'Harra.

J. E. Marsh, leading business man of Rockland, Idaho, and former Westonian, spent Sunday here after attending the Round Up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Padberg motored up from their Morrow county farm this week to visit relatives and put their son Archie in the Weston 1920-21 is scheduled for October 2 at schools.

Wyatt Starmer left Thursday morning for Corvallis, where he will act as hostesses. Mrs. enroll as a student at O. A. C.

Notice to Creditors

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.

In the Matter of the Estate of Enos J. Crips, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all persons whom it may concern that Georgie Crips has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Enos J. Crips, deceased, and has qualified as such. All persons having claims against said estate are required to present them with proper vouchers to the said administratrix at the law offices of Peterson, Bishop & Clark in the Smith-Crawford building, at Pendleton, Oregon, within six months of the date of the first publication of this notice, which is Friday the 17th day of September, A. D. 1920.

GEORGIE CRIPS, Administratrix.

PETERSON, BISHOP & CLARK, Attorneys for Administratrix.

* BUTTER WRAPS *

Furnished and Printed at the Leader office

One hundred..... 1 50
Each additional hundred..... 0 75

TERMS CASH ONLY

Low Prices Are Here

Women's Coats

Rich, beautiful plushes of quality. The season's choicest selections, fur or fabric trimmed. Big, comfy collars. Short or long, and all at practically wholesale prices. Our plan is to sell these garments at a very small margin of profit; and since they are bought at the lowest prices it means a saving of from $10.00 to $30.00 a garment to you. These are on display now.

Coats and Suits

Carried over from last season and, to close out, priced at one-fourth the present value. Rare bargains, indeed. Misses' and children's as well as women's coats, serviceable, warm and comfortable, at a genuine closing out price, from $5.00 to $15.00.

Aprons and House Dresses

We have gone through the stock and selected about 100 of these splendid aprons, house dresses, etc., and will close them out. Values up to $2.75. Your choice, $1.75.

MILLINERY

Beautiful fall creations at just a little above wholesale. One of the big coat houses is shipping us for our customers the choicest millinery we have ever shown and asks us to display it. We are doing this and selling for less than you expect. We take this method for the accommodation of our trade, and not with a view to profit. You will appreciate making your selection from this charming array of fall styles. A pretty hat for as low as $7.50. Others at $10.00, $12.00, $16.50.

Skirts

These are to close out. About 80 garments in silks, serges, plaids and wool novelties, and all for just one-half the former price.

Shoes

We anticipated the decline in shoes and have already marked our higher-priced shoes down from $1.00 to $2.00 per pair. We were always lower than the city by a good margin.

To close out, 200 pairs of children's shoes, all the odds and ends of our stock, $1.59, $1.98 and $2.98. Rare bargain values.

Women's shoes, 180 pairs, values up to $9.00, for $4.69 until sold.

LADIES' GEORGETTE WAISTS

We carry the famous Ball Waist.

To close out, about 50 waists selected from the stock, at one-half the original price. WE MEAN TO CLOSE THESE OUT.

Weston Mercantile Co.