Cash for chickens. J. R. Reynolds.
Frank Snider, R. L. Reynaud and Ernest Ross are spending part of the week on a deer hunt along the head waters of the Umatilla.

An O-W. work train has been stationed for a week on the Weston siding. Repair work and painting are in progress.

Threshing was in progress on Basket mountain Wednesday between rains, from stacked grain on the ranch of Alex Kling. Considerable grain remains unthreshed on Basket mountain. Clarond Rhea has 70 acres in the shock; Alex Schriener one stackyard; Alex Kling two stackyards, and Wm. Warfield 60 acres in the field. The bright orb of day is a welcome object in that neighborhood. Harvesting was completed in the other mountain districts.

Mrs. Sarah McDougal, one of Weston's earliest pioneer women, is seriously ill at the home of her son, S. A. Barnes.

The person or persons having the City of Weston's spirit level and slip scraper are requested to return them at once. C. W. AVERY, Marshal.

A road truck belonging to the Warren Construction company skidded Wednesday on the paved road at the turn in the upper part of town, and although it did not tip over its occupants were thrown out. Two men, one of them a colored road worker, were injured.

Rev. A. J. Starmer is organizing a chorus choir to assist in services at the local M. E. Church.

Elder and Mrs. John Bonewitz entertained at dinner Sunday the E. E. Tucker family and Mrs. Susan Tucker.

Various Hallowe'en festivities are being planned for next week, among them being a box social at the school house on Reed and Hawley mountain, and an evening party for Saturday Afternoon club members and their husbands.

I. H. Van Winkle, the new attorney general of Oregon, is a cousin of Postmaster L. R. Van Winkle of this city. He was assistant attorney general for many years.

At the recent annual meeting of the Weston Stockmen's association, officers were re-elected as follows: J. P. Lieuallen, president; A. R. Shumway, vice president; C. A. Winn, secretary; Ralph Tucker and Clarence March, advisors. The annual round up was fixed for October 27.

A hunting party consisting of Jess and Frank Powlis, Peter B. Haas, Wm. Cable and Otis Adams spent Sunday in the Blues in the vicinity of the Dick English cabin. Deer were scarce and shy and they brought home no venison. One coyote scalp was, in fact, the sole trophy of the hunt.

The city council has confirmed the appointment of Mrs. J. H. Williams as a member of the local library board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Luella Pinkerton.

Miss Ermna McIntyre, who is a student at St. Paul's school, Walla Walla, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McIntyre.

Elmer Tucker has accepted a position with the Smalley Drug company, Walla Walla, and he and Mrs. Tucker will spend the winter season in the Garden City.

Mrs. Minnie Walker, former popular Weston matron, has been elected president of the Helix W. C. T. U. for the coming year.

Shirley Barnett came up from Portland Saturday evening to assist in caring for his brother Andy, who continues in a very serious condition from pneumonia. A trained nurse, Miss Ida Smith, is in attendance from Milton.

Mrs. A. J. Starmer left Monday for a visit with relatives in Santa Cruz, California.

The F. C. Fitzpatrick and Miss Louise Rintoul were dinner guests last Friday evening at the J. W. Porter home in Freewater.

Miss Vida Greer and Miss Jessie Davis, who are attending business college in Walla Walla, spent the week end at their respective homes.

Mrs. Zella McPherrin was over from Athena Tuesday to bask for a few hours in the cheerful atmosphere of the W. H. Gould home circle.

Sunday morning the first frost of the season nipped tender vegetation in local gardens.

Mrs. Artie Beathe has been engaged as assistant at the Davis confectionery.

Corporal Charles S. Bulfinch, elder son of C. F. Bulfinch, a civil war veteran of Weston, has received a bronze medal from the government, bearing this inscription: "Washington, D. C., Sept. 7, 1920.—Corporal Charles S. Bulfinch of the United States Marine Corps being distinguished for Obedience, Sobriety, Industry, Courage, Cleanliness and Proficiency, and having been duly recommended is, in accordance with the U. S. Navy Regulations and by direction of the Major General Commandant, awarded a medal. Enlistment from June 6, 1917, to February 28, 1919." Mr. Bulfinch is now a resident of New York City.

Miss Maxine Culley entertained a number of young friends Wednesday evening in honor of Lois Saling who is leaving soon for California. Games and pastimes dear to the heart of youth filled the hours with delight. At eleven o'clock an appetizing lunch was served by Mrs. S. J. Culley, assisted by the young hostess. A dainty gift was presented to the honor guest as a souvenir of the occasion. Those who shared in the festivities were: Misses Lois Saling, Evelyn Sowers, Orab Webb, Naomi Beamer, Minnie Thoeny, Maxine Culley; Messrs. Grant Key, Wendell Phinney, Ernest Hunter, Lawrence Davis, Harold Magnusen and Joe Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lieuallen who were in town Wednesday attending to business errands, reported a snow-fall of six inches at their mountain ranch.

Athena Matron Honored.

Founders' Day was observed in a delightful manner by members of the Saturday Afternoon club, October 16th at the social room in Memorial hall. A profusion of gay autumn flowers and foliage gave the scene an attractive appearance. A short business session preceded the program, during which time Mrs. Iley Winn was admitted into membership.

Mrs. F. D. Watts, a past president and enthusiastic worker, who has lately removed from the city, was honor guest. A gift of silver pie forks was presented to her as a slight token of the affection and esteem in which she is cherished by club members.

Reminiscences of activities and frolics sponsored by the organization during the past seven years, were given by Mesdames F. D. Watts, E. C. Rogers and C. H. Smith, of Athena; Mrs. W. A. Barnes, Mrs. E. Morrison and Mrs. Alice Price. Mrs. Joseph Wurzer contributed several pleasing piano numbers. Singing in unison of Auld Lang Syne closed the program. During an informal hour of social chat a dainty lunch was served by Mesdames R. Morrison, J. H. Roland, J. H. Williams and H. Goodwin.

In addition to members the following ladies shared in the pleasures of the occasion: Mesdames F. D. Watts, E. C. Rogers, C. H. Smith and R. Proudfoot of Athena; Mrs. W. A. Barnes, Mrs. Mary C. McNeer and Mrs. Frank Snider.

THEY LIKED US

Our Portland visitors have come and gone and we enjoyed them. Weston should feel it a privilege to entertain men of such prominence, and we did. We put our best foot forward, dressed up and really were a splendid-looking mess of citizens; and "Gol Darn It," let us keep on looking that way and make our town the best in the country. Boost all the while---and smile.

BLANKETS

Blankets for the chilly nights. Soft, warm, comfortable, they are. Tempting, of course, and the price $3.50 to $12.00

◇ DON'T BE DECEIVED ◇

Just a day or so ago a friend brought us an invoice from a mail order house amounting to nearly $50.00. We found we could duplicate this order with standard groceries and save this man 6 percent besides his freight. In other words, he could have come to us, had his order filled with standard brands of merchandise, saved the long wait and have seen what he was buying; had his home store back of his transaction and saved a big day's wages. Is it worth while? If saving is your object, then why not trade where you can save. Don't be deceived by a stranger. Let us convince you with real facts backed by hard cash. Why not let us figure with you?
