Cash for chickens. J. R. Reynolds, Miller Hall was among the old-time Westonites in town during the week. Miller is dividing his time between two ranches. He raises wheat near Waterman station and lives on irrigated land on the Touchet bottoms. "Dog take it" is still his favorite expletive.

Andy Barnett is recovering from his recent illness.

John Gordon, a well-known Westontite of "auld lang syne," was in town Sunday, talking with the old timers. He was returning to his home at Spokane, after helping his son Jess near Athena to "put in the crop."

Payant's orchestra of five pieces will play popular late music at the Hallowe'en ball to be given Saturday evening of this week at Weston by Athena-Weston post of the American Legion. The decorations will be in keeping with the Hallowe'en motif, and moonlight dancing will be a feature. The occasion is confidently expected to be among the most enjoyable of the post's terpsichorean affairs.

S. D. (Jack) Eliot, electrician with the Preston-Shaffer Co., is leaving in a few days with Mrs. Eliot for Arizona. Mrs. Eliot has been suffering from catarrhal trouble, and it is hoped that a dryer climate may prove beneficial. They may return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lumsden were hosts for a dinner and slumber party Monday evening in honor of the Ralph G. Salings, who left Tuesday by auto for San Francisco.

Mrs. C. C. Whiteman and Miss Rosemary Whiteman of Pendleton were guests last Thursday and Friday of Mrs. Lillian Fredericks.

Bright weather brought universal activity this week among the agriculturists. Lowland farmers were busy seeding, and upland farmers betook themselves to digging potatoes and hauling wheat. The only redeeming feature of Wednesday's rain was that it did not last long. Much seeding has been finished in this neighborhood, and some grain is above ground.

A quintet of young Weston hunters returned Sunday from a fortnight's outing in the region of Murphy creek on the Minam river. In the party were Guy Johnson, Roy Johnson, Bud Nolte, John Lucas and Vic Thoeny. A bear and two cubs fell to Thoeny's rifle.

Ernest Haney is hauling grain off his mountain farm with six horses and two wagons to the foot of the Wild Horse grade. At that point the load is met with a big truck and carried into Athena.

Mrs. Edith G. VanDeusen, home demonstration agent of Pendleton, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday conducting a class in dress-form making. Among the ladies assembled to profit by her instructions were: Mesdames J. A. Lumsden, E. L. Woods, J. C. Price, M. W. Pedersen, Albert O'Harra, Newton O'Harra and Frank Snider.

Earl Barnett, substituting as mail carrier on route two, went into the ditch Monday with his Ford car. He was hauled out by Ernest Haney and Bruno Weber, to whom Uncle Sam owes a corresponding debt of gratitude.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendrickson were up Tuesday from their Adams farm for a visit with Weston relatives.

Miss Marjorie Wellman and Miss Esther Smith of Walla Walla are guests of Mrs. E. W. Achilles.

Miss Alice Clark of Helix was a guest last week of Miss Iva McKinney.

Dr. N. P. Bennet is in Portland, where he submitted to a nasal operation and is under treatment. He expects to be back in about a month, better prepared than ever to take care of his dental practice.

Robert N. Stanfield, republican candidate for the United States senate, was in town Tuesday and seemed to enjoy his visit to Weston, where he once attended the Eastern Oregon Normal school. He was accompanied by S. A. Miller of Milton, republican candidate for the legislature.

We shall be compelled to follow the same routine; and while we are about it, is it not a good time to make the merchant happy by handing him a check for that year's bill? You do not realize what a boost it will mean. The season is getting late, he has his obligations to meet and is depending on YOU. So before you vote, or immediately after, give this matter attention.

DON'T BE DECEIVED

Just a day or so ago a friend brought us an invoice from a mail order house amounting to nearly $50.00. We found we could duplicate this order with standard groceries and save this man 6 percent besides his freight. In other words, he could have come to us, had his order filled with standard brands of merchandise, saved the long wait and have seen what he was buying; had his home store back of his transaction and saved a big day's wages. Is it worth while? If saving is your object, then why not trade where you can save. Don't be deceived by a stranger. Let us convince you with real facts backed by hard cash. Why not let us figure with you?
