BREVITIES

Mrs. C. E. Miller of Spokane is visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Miller.

Ralph Larson, grandson of G. DeGraw, lately enlisted as a soldier of Uncle Sam, and is stationed at Panama.

In making his annual remittance to the Leader from Rockland, Idaho, Jack Stamper, a former Westonian, reports winter weather in that section. The ground has been covered with 14 inches of snow, but this has now disappeared. Threshing is still in progress, only about half the crop having been harvested.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lumsden were dinner guests last Sunday at the McBride Bros. home.

Mrs. Ellsworth Woods extended delightful hospitality when she entertained the Saturday Afternoon club last Saturday at her country home, which had been rendered lovely by Halloween decorations. After a brief business session the club listened to a most interesting paper on "Charles Dickens, the Man and Author," by Mrs. Goodwin, which was followed with discussion by Mrs. Rowland. New members accepted by the club are Mrs. Phinney, Mrs. Starmer and Mrs. M. W. Pedersen. Guests other than club members were: Mrs. Lewis Geiss and Mrs. J. F. McNew. After a social hour the ladies retired to the dining room, where a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Lumsden, assisted by the hostess. The club's next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Iley Winn have returned to Meadowbrook farm after a stay of two months on the Winn ranch near Winona. Iley has finished seeding a thousand acres for next year's harvest.

Snow fell Wednesday to a depth of a few inches, and is regarded as a bit inopportune. While seeding has been pretty well finished in the lowlands, upland farmers have had no chance as yet to put in their winter wheat. The work of digging spuds is also interfered with. The mountain grain harvest was completed, however, with the exception of a field on Basket mountain. This was too green to thresh, and binders were at work in it when the snow came. Sunshine followed the snow, much to everyone's satisfaction.

C. W. Avery, local chief of police, has received a supply of automobile license blanks from the office of the secretary of state, and is prepared to distribute them to Weston motorists. The latter are advised to get their applications in as soon as possible. After January 1 no old licenses will be honored, and procrastination in this matter is more than the thief of time.

Trajan Tucker was in town Wednesday from his mountain ranch, looking as pleasant as though the weather gods had been setting out their very best goods this season.

Young milk cows wanted. Jerseys preferred. Inquire at this office.

The Weston Choral society is being organized and will sing for the Thanksgiving union service. Afterward the organization may be made permanent, if sufficient interest is manifested. All singers in the community are invited and urged to take part in the choral singing for Thanksgiving. The first rehearsal takes place next Monday evening at seven-thirty at the Methodist church, and it is earnestly desired that all the singers come. Miss Anna Compton of the Whitman Conservatory of Music will be here at that time to direct the rehearsal.

Two events of especial interest and importance in the annals of Athena-Weston post, American Legion, are scheduled for next week at Weston. First comes the motion picture benefit Wednesday evening, November 10, at Memorial hall, at which the splendid film attractions advertised elsewhere in this paper will be presented. Next day (Thursday) is Armistice day, and will be celebrated by the post with an appropriate program at Memorial hall, beginning at three o'clock in the afternoon, to which the public is invited. Judge Kanzler of Portland, who served as captain overseas, will be the speaker of the occasion. Both the Athena and Weston high schools will contribute to the program, and there will be music by Payant's orchestra. Armistice day will conclude with a dance at Legion hall in the evening.

A very enjoyable and successful social was held Friday evening at Fairview school house on Reed and Hawley mountain for the purpose of raising funds to secure a clock, a drinking fountain, a volley ball and other desired articles. Baskets were sold at auction and brought no less than $106.50, showing that the people of this prosperous mountain district do not hesitate to tap the timid pocket book when the welfare of their school is concerned. Col. Louis Christensen officiated as auctioneer and also paid the largest sum, $7.00, for a basket—a handsome one prepared by Mrs. Ernest Hancy. Decorations were in keeping with the Halloween season and the program, a most meritorious and entertaining one, was under the direction of the teacher, Miss Effie Basford. The Fairview school is growing, and Miss Basford has 25 pupils.

"Duncan's Five" defeated Weston High in a lively basket ball game last evening by a score of 16 to 13.

Some improvement is reported in the condition of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sams, who has been critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Randall have opened a restaurant in the Gould building on Main street.

Rev. W. R. Storms, who has been serving as superintendent of the Atlatia Irrigation district, has turned off the water, locked the gate and come home for the winter. He will conduct services as usual next Sunday at the Baptist church.

Coming for Armistice Day (Athena Press.)

Athena-Weston Post, American Legion is making extensive preparations for the observance of Armistice Day, November 11th, at Memorial Hall, in Weston. A splendid program is being arranged by active committees and the work is well in hand.

The program which will comprise addresses, readings, vocal and instrumental music, will be given in the afternoon, immediately following the foot ball game between the Athena and Umapine high school teams on the Weston gridiron.

Especially interesting is being taken in this first observance of Armistice Day by the post and it is expected a big crowd will be in attendance. That a large number will attend from Athena goes without saying, and Athena talent is represented on the program. Mrs. D. Scott Fisher will sing and the Athena high school chorus is on the program for a couple of numbers. Dr. Smith of this city, will deliver the address of welcome, and Lucinda Dell and Audrey Winship will be at the piano in a duet.

WESTON SCHOOLS

Most of the High school boys are at Pendleton this week, representing Weston at the Older Boys' conference held this year at the "Let'er Buck" center. Rev. M. A. Phinney accompanies the boys, who are being entertained in Pendleton homes.

A straw vote taken in the school last Monday favored Warren G. Harding for president. One student cast a timid vote for Eugene V. Debs, hoping thereby to shorten work in school for more compensation, no doubt.

The basket ball squad was chosen last week for the purpose of leading the Purple and Gold into the fray. The squad of eight numbers as follows: Leonard and Claude Snider, Bullfinch, Rayborn, Lucas, Phinney, Payne and Jones. Phinney is captain and Jones manager.

The monthly ordeals in the shape of examinations were again endured this week. The "casualties" were fortunately few.

The High school has decided to contribute a number to the Armistice day program to be given by the American Legion November 11 in Memorial hall.

All the W. H. S. students report having had a fine vacation during Teachers' Institute.

The regular meeting of Weston Library board was held at the home of Mrs. James H. Price, Monday afternoon. Plans were discussed for filling in and grading the site now occupied by the library building. Members in attendance were: Mesdames S. A. Barnes, C. F. Bullfinch, W. S. Price, J. H. Williams, J. H. Price and H. Goodwin.

Under recent arrangements I am in a position to offer loans up to $5000 at six percent. F. G. Lucas.

J. F. Lumsden spent a couple of days last week in Pendleton.
