BREVITIES

Cash for chickens. J. R. Reynolds, Miss Aileen Bade was the guest Sunday of Miss Erma McIntyre.

E. S. Taylor is visiting for a season with his daughter, Mrs. R. Morrison. Mrs. J. A. Lumsden motored to Pendleton last Thursday to attend a meeting of the Inspiration club held at the home of Mrs. Joseph N. Scott. Mrs. John Carleton Brooks of Pendleton visited a few hours Friday with local acquaintances. Mrs. Brooks spent some time in Weston last spring as the guest of her sister, Miss Edna Hollenbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Price motored to Pendleton Wednesday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Mark Henderson and daughter, Miss Dorothy Tweedy, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Avery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harl Williams spent the week-end in Walla Walla visiting with their son and daughter, students at Whitman college.

Mrs. A. J. McIntyre and daughter, Miss Erma, were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Dr. Best was called from Pendleton Wednesday to consult with Dr. McKinney with regard to the case of Mrs. Sarah McDougal, whose serious illness continues.

Riley Simpson, well known throughout this section, died suddenly from heart trouble a few days ago at his home in Pendleton. Mr. Simpson was a merchant of Helix in early years.

Mrs. Charles J. Hall left Tuesday for Seattle in response to a telegram announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Isley.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, Miss Frank Harris Davis and Miss Isaacson motored to Pendleton Tuesday evening to attend a theater party and await election returns.

Harold Harder was entertained Sunday by Afton and Stephen McIntyre at the McIntyre farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wurzer spent the week at the J. C. Walter home near Athena.

Now's the best time to plant Ever-bearing Strawberries. One hundred plants, $2.00. C. W. DeGraw.

Weston's city election was held at the same time as the general election, all votes being cast at City hall, the polling place of precinct 16. There being but one ticket in the field, the vote was light, about 45 in number. The primary ticket headed by Nelson H. Jones for mayor went through with very little scratching. Mayor-elect Jones was in Walla Walla election night to get the general retell him that the women voters had successfully conspired to put over a dark horse ticket at the last moment, fell through for the reason that none of the wise joshers had the price of a telephone message.

According to the records of Merritt A. Baker, government weather observer, the total precipitation in this section for the ten months ending October 31 was 22.23 inches. The average annual precipitation is 23.47 inches, but 1920 has two months yet to go on to make up the difference of 1.24 inches. The total rainfall for the exceedingly moist month of October just terminated was 2.46 inches. This is about an inch more than October showed last year.

Stevens Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held a meeting of more than usual interest Wednesday evening, when the third rank was conferred upon the following seven candidates: Nelson H. Jones, Claude Davis, Rulon Smith, William Hass, Darwin Hall, Lyle Webb and Fred DuPuis. Visitors were present from Athena and Pendleton, the latter delegation being headed by Mr. Morris, district deputy grand chancellor. Following a most interesting ceremony, lunch was served after the midnight hour.

Ken English, formerly well known and respected Weston citizen who left here about 15 years ago and of late had been living in Seattle, has been suddenly called by death. He was buried in Auburn, Wash., and a brother, Dick English, left Monday for that place to attend the funeral. Mr. English was 52 years old, and is survived by a second wife and two children.

W. L. Smock was in town Monday from Reed and Hawley mountain, and reports a big spud crop up there this year. Some little damage from the recent frosts was found in cases where the potatoes were near the top. This will not materially reduce the yield, which is going around 100 sacks to the acre. The crop on the Smock farm is estimated at 2000 sacks.

Gail M. Williams, Whitman college student and the youngest collegian in the Northwest, continues to be the subject of complimentary articles in the Portland and Seattle papers. In these stories Gail is usually mentioned as a Portland boy, much to his regret. He is a Weston boy and a product of the Weston High school, and as such is proud to be known.

T. L. McBride has been nursing a sore jaw of late, just at a time when his presence is badly needed in the fields at McBride Bros. ranch. He had the abscess lanced by Dr. McKinney, and is looking forward to a period of more comfortable nights and more industrious days.

Super Special—50c-25c

The picture is based on Monte M. Katterjohn's popular novel of American life, a thoroughly and intensely modern story dealing with both country and city. No finer or truer to life picture has ever appeared on the screen—it is intensely absorbing and timely with a beautiful love story running through it.

The entire proceeds of the show go to ATHENA-WESTON POST, AMERICAN LEGION.

Included with the big picture is a SPECIAL SPORTING EXTRA personally contributed by Manager Barnes. The peerless Babe Ruth is photographed in action with the New York Yanks and Cleveland Indians. The Slow Motion Camera shows in clear analysis the swing that made him famous.
