BREVITIES

J. S. Ross was over Monday from the Walla Walla valley, visiting his daughter and son, Mrs. Roy Cannon of Athena and A. M. Ross of Weston.

Mrs. Fred L. McNeff and children have now joined Mr. McNeff at Medford, Oregon, where he is successfully representing the International Correspondence School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kinnear were in town from Milton for Thanksgiving.

Miss Hazel Duncan arrived Wednesday from Cove to spend Thanksgiving at home. She will return Sunday to her work as teacher in the Cove school.

The total precipitation during five days of last week amounted to 1.27 inches, according to the records of Observer Merritt A. Baker. Moisture was more than ample this week, also. Potato digging and hauling proceeds whenever the mood of Jupe Pluve permits.

Mrs. R. A. Miller and daughter of Walla Walla were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis.

William Beaton and J. E. Jones motored to the west end of the county on a goose hunt Sunday and traveled about 120 miles without getting any birds. They report an enjoyable outing, however. Geese were plentiful, but were flying much too high to permit successful shooting. The government lake near Hermiston was covered with thousands of wild fowl, immune from the hunter.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick were entertained at Thanksgiving dinner by Misses Davis and Isaacson at their cottage on Normal heights.

E. M. Smith, cashier of The Farmers Bank of Weston returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.

Lowell (Pody) Duncan left Sunday for Portland to take part during the winter in metropolitan industrial activities. He expects to return to Weston in the spring.

Coal transportation costs a pretty penny now-a-days. P. T. Harbour, local dealer, paid a freight bill the other day of $337.20 on one car of coal from Utah. The car contained 106,900 pounds net, and the bill included something over nine dollars war tax.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Maloney motored up from Pendleton Wednesday evening for a Thanksgiving day visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Culley on Dry creek.

Misses Edna Cargill and Esther Williams came over from Whitman college Friday to spend the week-end and partake of home-made delicacies at the J. H. Williams residence.

Merle Broxson of Walla Walla spent several days in town last week as the guests of his cousins, Claude and Leonard Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Pedersen and Mr. C. O. Pedersen are spending the Thanksgiving season with friends and relatives in Portland and Astoria. A family reunion will be held at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price entertained the W. S. Price family at dinner last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gould were down from the mountain ranch Saturday, renewing acquaintance with local merchants.

Otis and Robert Reynolds were here from Franklin county this week greeting old friends and attending the Reynolds family reunion.

With One Mighty Stroke the Prices Tumble!

Pre-War Prices and Less in One Bound

A general 25 percent cut in all lines excepting groceries, rubber goods, threads, and patterns. All the other lines marked down as a splendid climax to our change of policy sale. We must have the money and are sacrificing our merchandise in order to raise it. For one big full week beginning Monday, Nov. 29, all former prices are eliminated and you buy the goods for less than the cost of manufacture.

It is our prediction that prices next season will not be as low as at this time. Wholesalers are not reducing prices to us in the same proportion, and predict that you can purchase merchandise now at less price than next season. We believe this is true. Lower prices will prevail, yet not so low as quoted at this time. Labor is not working for less, transportation is higher, and while we hope prices in all lines will decline yet we cannot expect the general wholesale drop predicted.

25 Percent Less

on all dress goods, silks, shoes, men's furnishings, domestics, blankets, hats; all lines except groceries, rubber goods, threads and patterns.

WE WILL CLOSE THEM OUT—Priced Regardless of Value

WOMEN'S COATS :: MEN'S and BOYS' CLOTHING
ODD LOTS OF SHOES
SPECIAL LOTS ALL OVER THE HOUSE

Trimmed Hats - - $3.98

Any woman's trimmed hat in the house for $3.98, regardless of former value; price cards are up in the house everywhere indicating the prices. Come in. The good old shopping days have returned and your dollars will reach beyond your expectation.

The Consumer's Profit Sale

PLEASE NOTE:—This is the greatest and most profitable sale from a consumer's standpoint, that has ever been held by any store at any time. And as it is a no-profit sale for us and in many cases we are selling goods for less than we can replace them even on the lower market, we are compelled to make this a cash sale.

From all information we can gather farmers will have to sell wheat at a loss. Wool growers will have to sell at a loss. We are the first to come forward and offer our splendid stock of merchandise at a loss, but we do this loyally as our share in the readjustment of prices in general.

These are genuine price reductions; ask to be shown the mark on each article and see for yourself that you get the full benefit of this sale. We do as we advertise; we cannot do otherwise; our reputation is at stake. WE WILL KEEP OUR WORD WITH OUR TRADE.

Foot Specialist to be Here Saturday

Dr. Sholl's foot specialist will be in the store Saturday the 27th; consult him if you have foot troubles, free of charge. This comes in as good measure and to afford our customers the privilege of consulting this famous foot specialist without expense.
