SANTA CLAUS and TOYLAND

Toyland with its wonderful array of Toys is complete. Santa Claus has already shipped to this store the most delightful assortment ever shown in Walla Walla. This display will delight the youngsters of all ages, and older folks too.

Dear Old Santa Will be Here in Person
From Sat., Dec. 11th, to DEC. 25th.

He will preside over Toyland and will give a Toy free to each good little boy and girl who comes here to visit him. You Children are invited to write to him, addressing your letters in care of The Davis-Kaser Store. Tell him what you want for Christmas and be sure to give your full name and address. He will try to answer every letter.

BREVITIES

Young milk cows wanted, Jerseys preferred. Inquire at this office.

Athena and Weston are among the seven branch libraries in the Umatilla county system to qualify as standard libraries.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greer became the proud young parents of a son and heir Thursday at their home south of town.

The cash drawer in the office of the Liberty Auto Co. was tapped Wednesday evening and about $18 in silver taken. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were absent at supper, and Ray O'Harra was so busy with the buzzing engine of a motorcycle in the garage work shop that he did not hear the thieves.

The month of November just closed was supposed to have been exceeding wet in this section, but the records of Observer Merritt A. Baker show that it was only a bit moist. The month's precipitation was 2.79 inches, as compared to a total in November, 1919, of 3.58 inches. The precipitation for the past 12 months totaled 22.32 inches.

A son was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davidson at their home in this city.

The Standard Theatre will present an especially attractive bill next Sunday, December 5, when the entire net proceeds go to Athena-Weston post, American Legion. This benefit program includes Lieutenant Locklear in "The Great Air Robbery" and Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms." Next Wednesday night, December 8, the Standard will present pictorially the greatest horse race of the age—the victory of Man o' War over Sir Barton on a Canadian track.

For Sale—a Singer sewing machine, $5.00; a wicker baby buggy and a wicker bassinet, $10.00 each. Mrs. N. P. Bennett.

"The Yellow Sheet" is the title of a clever and entertaining story in the current issue of Lone Scout magazine. It is based upon the experience of two boy scouts who got out a country paper for five weeks during the sickness of the editor, and Maynard Jones, Weston High school boy, is the young author. This is the fourth time that 'Nard has broken into the Lone Scout with an absorbing tale.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. York and Roscoe Beamer returned last week from Portland, where they visited Mrs. York's sister, Mrs. Jacob Routhier, and attended the stock show. They went to Seaside, and also had the pleasure of visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchey and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Killgore in Washington county.

Mrs. S. T. Ferguson has returned to her home in Seattle after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller, at their home on Normal heights, and her brother, Leon J. Miller.

William Beaton has returned from a week's stay "over the hill," bringing back a Saxon roadster. He struck a car trade while in Athena.

Recent sales of wheat aggregating 8500 bushels have been made by local growers to Frank Price, manager of the Weston Warehouse Co., on a basis of $1.35 a bushel for No. 1. It is estimated that less than half of the Weston crop remains in the hands of the growers.

Andy Barnett, who drives a Ford over the No. 2 mail route, reports the county road at the head of Pine creek grade to be in a dangerous and almost impassable condition. Flood waters ran down the grade, cutting an awkward channel and exposing huge boulders.

Wednesday J. E. Jones abandoned his summer mail route via the Blue Mountain sawmill, and went direct across to Basket mountain from the Tamarack church. Jim does this every six months, and it is invariably a sign of winter.

George Kinnear and William Singer are moving their beef cattle to Hudson's Bay, where the stock will be fed alfalfa. George will remain there to take care of them. Mr. Singer lately bought a $350 bull for the improvement of his mountain herd. J. P. Lieuallen and Ralph Tucker will feed their stock at the Wurzer place until January. Other local stockmen have rounded up their stock from the mountain range and will feed them on their home ranches.

Mrs. Richard Wright of Big Timber, Montana, niece of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Van Winkle, is visiting at the Van Winkle residence in this city. Mrs. Wright is accompanied by her two children, and traveled a thousand miles by automobile from Big Timber to Weston.

Lafe McBride's bus team became frightened while nearing the depot Monday and tried to run away, all patrons were prepared to pay their overturning and wrecking the bus. bills when our collector calls. We Lafe himself was dragged out of the rig but escaped unhurt, as did also the horses. The mixup terrorized the dray team of George Lindeken, which added to the general excitement by breaking loose from the dray and careering willy nilly over the adjacent landscape. The horses plunged through no less than seven fences while on their mad gallop, but when brought to a stop were found not to have sustained a single scratch.

What DO The Children Want For Christmas?

WE KNOW

A LIBERTY BELL BANK

MAKE THE

CHRISTMAS
BELL

If you could see them admire the banks in our window and hear them talk, you would know too. Why not make the Liberty Bell Bank your Christmas present to the children? They want it and it will be entirely appropriate; and the habit of saving which the bell encourages will be helpful throughout their lives.
