BREVITIES

County Judge Marsh and Commissioners Dunnick and Anderson were up Wednesday, viewing the state highway construction along Water street.

Mrs. Smith Payne has been called from The Dalles to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. E. T. Wicker, who is seriously ill.

Young milk cows wanted, Jersey preferred. Inquire at this office.

For Sale—a Singer sewing machine, $5.00; a wicker baby buggy and a wicker bassinet, $10.00 each. Mrs. N. P. Bennet.

N. H. Nelson, local veteran of the O-W. track department, has returned from a furlough at Hot Lake, where he says he has been getting "boiled out." His little grandson, Master William Phelps, had his tonsils excised at the Phy sanitarium during Mr. Nelson's stay, and the boy's mother, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, will submit to a similar operation. Wallace Nelson of Walla Walla and Mr. Phelps left Sunday for the lake to remain a week or two.

About seven o'clock Monday morning this vicinity was visited by a blinding dust storm. Housewives who had arisen early to hang out family washings were obliged to summon their courage, remove clothes from the line, and repeat a portion of their labors. Ivory enameled woodwork quickly acquired an ebony hue. Vacuum cleaners were hastily employed to remove the grimy coverings from rugs, curtains and upholstery. Inasmuch as the storm followed a period of very wet weather, it was regarded as rather unusual.

Clarence Hand left Tuesday on his journey to England, where his address will be 566 Stratford Road, Old Trafford, Manchester.

For Sale—Electric washer, range, dining chairs, library table, bedstead, couch, boiler, tub, etc. W. C. Emmel, Athena, Oregon.

L. Halseth, recently with the Weston Mercantile Co., has located at Granger, Wash., where he begins "on his own" with the best wishes of Weston friends. Mr. Halseth has bought an interest in the Cash Mercantile Co. at Granger.

Jacob Narkaus has rented a place near Helix for the purpose of wintering his stock, and is moving there with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lieuallen, who recently returned from Seattle, have been visiting in Weston and Walla Walla.

James Kirkpatrick Jr. is here from Nez Perce, Idaho, for a visit with his parents and friends. Jim disposed of his business in Orofino last August, and has since been serving as ranch foreman for a wealthy Nez Perce farmer and banker.

Mrs. Herbert Thompson of Pendleton, county chairman for the sale of Christmas health seals, has appointed Miss Doris Barnes as community chairman for Weston.

Harry McBride is engaged this week in the house moving game by proxy, having hired an experienced mover to do the actual work. Harry bought the Ross farm house from H. A. Street, and is moving it to the Davis place.

J. E. Jones is richer to the extent of a big roll of sausage presented by Mr. and Mrs. Eph Tucker. Jim finds the life of a rural mail carrier to be decidedly worth while, with gifts like this to cheer him on his way.

W. A. McCorkell, who was in town Sunday from Reed and Hawley mountain, says that he has noticed steam issuing from his potato pits and also that the snow had melted from the pit tops. He intends to insert stove pipes and give the suffering "murphies" air. He dug and pitted something over 300 sacks and will leave the remainder of his spud crop in the ground until winter is over.

The red letter day of the year is rapidly approaching and local merchants are exhibiting attractive lines of holiday goods. Window shoppers will find many a tempting hint to Santa in the wares temptingly displayed.

The fireside delights of long winter evenings will be doubly enjoyable this season to the Ernest Ross family, as electric lights have just been installed in their comfortable dwelling on Normal heights.

Mrs. Anice Vaughn of Homestead, Oregon, is a welcome visitor in the city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes.

Electric lights have been installed in Mrs. Susan Tucker's cottage on Normal heights.

The Ladies' Aid society of the U. B. church was entertained on Thursday at the beautiful new home of Mrs. F. D. Watts in Athena. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Henry Waddingham, Mrs. H. N. Greer, Mrs. Frank Greer, Mrs. Jas. Compton, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. L. R. Van Winkle, Mrs. Alex McIntyre, Mrs. Ellsworth Woods, Mrs. Jack Chapin, Mrs. Amy Van Skiver, Mrs. G. W. Staggs, Mrs. James Beamer,

Mrs. W. S. Payne, Mrs. Mark A. Phinney. A four-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Watts, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Rogers.

At a recent meeting the local lodge of Odd Fellows elected the following officers: Fred Dupuis, N. G.; L. R. Van Winkle, V. G.; J. E. Stanfield, Sec.; S. A. Barnes, Treas. Joint installation will be held with the Rebekahs and "Camp" the first meeting in January.

Mrs. Christina Beeler is again at her home in Weston, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Fehr, in Pendleton.

Cash Wood has resigned as secretary of the Umatilla County Y. M. C. A., and has accepted a similar position in Jackson county. He leaves with a commendable record.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beamer and son Roscoe were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mayberry.

The bazaar and chicken dinner sponsored by the Women's Missionary society of the M. E. church, South, last Saturday afternoon and evening, was a social and financial success. About $115 was realized from the undertaking.

What DO The Children Want For Christmas?
WE KNOW
A LIBERTY BELL BANK

MAKE THE LIBERTY BELL BANK YOUR CHRISTMAS BELL

Buy a Barrel of FLOUR

If you could see them admire the banks in our window and hear them talk, you would know too. Why not make the Liberty Bell Bank your Christmas present to the children? They want it and it will be entirely appropriate; and the habit of saving which the bell encourages will be helpful throughout their lives.
