Thieves Break In and Steal

The Liberty Auto Co.'s garage at Weston, conducted by O. A. Adams, was burglarized Sunday night. The front door was forced open and the small office safe dynamited after a hole had been drilled in the door, which was completely wrecked. The safe was moved by the burglars into the ladies' waiting room, evidently with the idea that they could work therein with less danger of detection. Only three cents had been left in the safe, and these the burglars disdained to take, although they got away with about $5.00 in change left in the office cash register. Lyle Webb's Ford car was standing in the front part of the garage and this the thieves evidently tried to steal for the purpose of making a quick get away, as the lock was found to be broken. Foreman Nelson's speeder was found next day to be missing from the O-W station, and it is inferred that the burglars used this as a convenient means of locomotion. No trace has been found of them, according to last reports.

RE-ADJUSTMENT

SALE

Our doors have been thrown open to the greatest bargain event ever held in Weston. Not one article in this great stock packed or stored away or marked up to meet our extremely low prices for this sale.

$15,485.17 Must Be Raised

All goods reduced, marked in plain figures and just as advertised. The time is now, the place you know. Let nothing keep you away. Inspect our stock. The sale is general. The puny prices will tempt you to even borrow money and come for a new, fresh load.

This sale is prompted by the necessity of raising a large sum of money. The conditions for the past four months occasioned by the slump in the price of grain and other commodities, has so retarded business and collections that we have been unable to meet our obligations.

Every Day Unfolds New Bargains

We must raise $15,485.17. We are willing to sacrifice and sacrifice heavily that we may pay our own bills. Many of the items we cannot replace for one-third more than we are asking, but we must have the money and will continue these prices until the above amount is raised.
