Kellogg ever-bearing strawberry plants at $1.50 per hundred. C. W. DeGraw.

Daily wire reports from the Chicago wheat market, received for several months by the Weston Warehouse Co. at the office of Manager Frank Price, will be continued one month longer. They inspire much interesting conversation, which of late has not been especially optimistic.

A Weston family were awakened at an early hour the morning of St. Patrick's Day by the sound of the piano. They do not believe in ghosts and the head of the family is not a Sinn Feiner, but he thinks the tune sounded something like "Wearing of the Green." After puzzling over the mysterious serenade for a time he reluctantly decided to leave his comfortable bed and go into the front room to investigate. He found the household kitten doing a cake walk on the piano keys.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Proebstel, sr., are again at Hot Lake, where Mr. Proebstel is receiving treatment. He is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Staggs "Dodged" to Pendleton Friday and took in the auto show.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beamer and daughter, Naomi, and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gordon of Athena were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Staggs.

J. M. Wroe and family are moving to the Ernest Haney place on Wild Horse mountain. The farm they are vacating on Weston mountain will be occupied soon by the owner, J. O. Hyatt, who is returning with his family from La Crosse, Wash.

Mrs. Smith Payne and children left Tuesday evening on their return home to The Dalles. Mrs. Payne has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. T. Wicker, whose serious illness continues.

P. T. Harbour has been retained as deputy assessor for Weston district, by Assessor R. O. Hawks. Mr. Harbour, who has a large amount of territory to cover, began his work Monday. Do not dodge when you see him coming, for he will get you anyway.

The nine-year-old son of William Fehr has been very ill with peritonitis at the family home in the Pea Ridge district, but is reported by the attending physician, Dr. McKinney, to have shown this week a slight improvement. Mr. Fehr is reported to be ill with appendicitis.

A baby weighing only three and one-half pounds was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. H. T. French at their home in Weston. The child died the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams were pleasantly entertained at dinner Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dearth, the occasion being a celebration of Mr. Dearth's birthday anniversary.

A fire alarm turned in Tuesday morning brought out the local fire department and a good share of the town's population. A blaze was noticed by Harry Beathe on the roof of Mayor Jones' residence, and was apparently started by a spark falling near the base of the flue. It had not gained much headway, and was fortunately extinguished with the aid of a garden hose. The damage was inconsiderable.

A son was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunter at their home on Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin are expected home Saturday or Sunday from Hot Lake sanatorium. Mr. Goodwin was operated upon at the sanatorium for hernia, Monday of last week, and has since been progressing favorably toward recovery.

Jess Staggs has returned from Pullman, where he has been pursuing the study of pharmacy at Washington State College. He is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. E. W. Achilles.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lundell were in Milton Sunday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Lundell's parents. Mrs. Lundell made another trip to Milton yesterday, and attended a social event at the new home of Mrs. Will Harder.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Proebstel are visiting in Weston this week from their homestead near Echo.

G. W. Phelps, civil engineer, and a crew of four men are making a county survey of the proposed new Weston mountain road, leading up Hale creek canyon. It is reported that a very moderate grade, not exceeding five percent, will be available.

Miss Wavel O'Hara and Miss Ruby Price, together with Mr. Lyle Webb, were guests Saturday and Sunday at the McBride Bros. farm on Eagle creek, and report a most delightful time.

A large party of Adams people drove to Weston on an open truck Tuesday to hear Pastor Storms

THANK YOU

WE wish to take this occasion to thank all who responded to the Fire Bell last Tuesday morning, and we are especially indebted to those who took part in extinguishing the Fire. We are grateful to the one who had the forethought to use the Garden Hose, and to the Boys who Heroically pulled the Hose Cart through the Creek.
We Thank You.
