ABOUT MYSELF. I have had a bully time during the past Summer. 'the most of it was spent in the neat little "cottage by the sea," presented me by legal notices, Bsq. of 12 lines, 1 w.$ 2 50 | the great-hearted Tom Murphy. My share of the seizure of contraband cigars and liquors at the New York Custom-house kept me very well supplied with those necessities. During the Summer 1 took a trip through the oil regions, thinking that if any person should have the foresight to present me move Colonel Cogswell from the Titusville Post-office and appoint the donor to fill the vacancy. No one took the hint, however, and the Colonel remains in peaceful possession of that valuable office. While he remains in it I am sure of the earnest support of the Herald, the first daily in the oil region. I breakfasted one morning at the Parshall House in Titusville. No one was allowed to eat with me unless he paid two dollars to the committee. This was a very good dodge, as it kept out a large crowd. Negroes were allowed to pay two dollars, but were not admitted to the dining-Attorneys att Banty, room. In a Southern city this would have warranted the interference of the Federal Government, but occurring, as it did, in a city loyal to the core, I thought it was a pretty good joke on the presumptuous colored individual, who thought himself fit to eat with the President of the United States. herewith transmit to you the document having reference to this subject, consisting of copies of the Tituesville Courier and Herald, containing the letters of A.
