TOWN AND COUNTY. Cultivator and Plane. - We were shown this week, by Mr. Ferd Wilde, a model, manufactured by himself, of a cultivator and plow, invented by Mr. Nachand, of this county. The machine is a combination of a plow and a cultivator, and may easily be converted into either. It has been used by the inventor for two years | inst., at Louisville, K. Y. with great success. The model, together with specifications, has been forwarded to Washington, and application made for a patent. From the appearance of the machine, we think it will prove of great util-to go to the Senate or resign. ity on prairie land.
