FRIDAY, : : : : JUNE 21, 1872. TOWN AND COUNTY.

SMALL Pox.—This disease exists in Port- last night. land and other places in the State, and too much caution cannot be exercised in keeping it from our midst. We learn that a man was arrested who was badly broken out with it in the streets of Portland last Wednesday. Such conduct is unpardonable. We call the attention of one of the boat hands. Probably not our readers to the following provisions of | miss. an ordinance of this city relating to this

Sec. 3d. That whenever any person shall know that he has within his family or shall know that there exists within the place in which he resides, the small-pox or cholera, such person shall immediately cause to be raised over the premises where such disease exists, a yellow flag eighteen by twenty four inches, and shall then forthwith give notice of the facts of person or persons who shall violate this section shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and costs of suit. Sec. 3d. That whenever any physician or any one practicing medicine, shall attend upon any person within the corporate limits of Oregon City. Oregon, who is infected with the small pox, or cholera, such physician or other person shall give | York. notice thereof to the Board of Health within 24 hours; and any person who shall violate the foregoing section shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Baptist Association has been in session in This body occupies the northern portion | Corvallis ..... of the Willamette Valley, and one of five such in the State. It is composed of delegates from 12 churches, and a number of visitors, ministers and others are present from other associations in the State, making some 50 in all. The statistics show that 16 have been baptized during the year and a number much larger received by letter. But removels and expected that the session will close before Saturday morning. There will be a Sanday School meeting this evening when a for a med cine that will equal it in the cure ered by active workers in the cause. It stages of consumption. is expected that some of the preachers present will remain over Sunday and preach in the Baptist Church on Saturday evening, and Sanday morning and even-evening, at which time a general committee of arrangements was appointed. This committee met and appointed a sab committee on Finance. There was to be a meeting on Wednesday evening to hear the report of this Finance Committee, but the meeting failed to be held, and interrupted what action there will be taken in the order of the last Council showed that up to the 6th day of May they had issued until they went out of office, on the 11th of May, they issued script to the amount terest on the city debt, were $918.30 above the receipts. Including the interest, and the city was in debt on the 11th of May, 1872, at least $1,400 more than it was one year previous.

DISCHARGED. - Mr. H. Straight, one of Clackamas county's oldest citizens, was discharged by order of Ben Holladay from the position of Watchman on the bridge for having had the andacity of being a man and not a slave. The position has been given to J. M. Moore, the man who is as pliant as mud, and always ready to serve his masters. Mr. Straight gave Mr. Holladay the right of way through his farm, without a cent's consideration, and now he gets his reward because he would not be the slave to the would be desnot of Oregon. All true men will honor Mr. S., while they cannot but condemn the spirit which actuates 2 ASCEND IN THE ELEVATOR, 429 Mr. H.

TAKE NOTICE .- We most respectfully request our patrons who are indebted to There are many who have not paid us for a number of years, others are behind for one and two years. We need the money, and while the sums due us from each individual are small, in the aggregate they amount to a large sum to us, and as we desire to use the money to improve the appearance of our paper, it is equally beneficial to the patrons to pay up without delay.
