

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Presidential Electors. GEO. R. HELM, of Linn County. N. H. GATES, of Wasco County. L. P. JANE, of Douglas County.

The Baltimore Convention.

Next Tuesday the Democratic National Convention meets at Baltimore. The eyes of the whole world are centered on the result of the action of this body.

Republican Ticket. For President, Ulysses S. Grant. For Vice President, Henry Wilson.

Why can't these men and that party be honest for once, and call themselves by their right names. Honest men are not afraid to be called by their real names.

Who Were Missed. Speaking of the personnel of the Philadelphia Convention, the New York Tribune says: We miss from its counsels nearly all the leaders who made the early career of the party illustrious.

The principal reason presented by Democrats of Oregon why the Baltimore Convention should endorse Greeley is, that "the Southern people are for him."

We CONCUR.—Some of our exchanges are in favor of the West and the South uniting at Baltimore, and retire Mr. Belmont, the present Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to obsequy.

No END TO THEM.—The Radicals of North Carolina are a godless set of knaves, who have bankrupted the State by their robberies and reduced the people to poverty in this world, no easy to prevent them laying up treasure in heaven.

No FLEX.—The Philadelphia North American, a Grant organ, very gravely tells its friends that those "who fancy that the coming campaign is to be one of fun are very greatly mistaken."

Aliases.

A cotemporary calls to mind the fact that the present cognomen of the Radical candidate for Vice President is not his real patronymic, but that the Henry Wilson of to-day is the identical individual that was ycleped Jeremiah Colbath, while he lay in his mother's cradle.

Republican Ticket. For President, Ulysses S. Grant. For Vice President, Henry Wilson.

Now if the real facts of the case were stated, the announcement would read just as follows: Monarchs Ticket. For President, Hiram U. Grant. For Vice President, Jeremiah Colbath.

Speaking of the personnel of the Philadelphia Convention, the New York Tribune says: We miss from its counsels nearly all the leaders who made the early career of the party illustrious.

Forney's paper, the Philadelphia Press, said at the time of the assembling of Grant's Convention, that "a large number of thieves and disreputable characters are arriving in the city to prey upon the strangers who visit the Convention."

Is it probable, remarks the New York Sun, that these thieves from abroad and disreputable characters generally would find anything to object to in the principle laid down in the subjoined authentic epistle written to the Assistant Attorney-General of the United States:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF PENN., HARRISBURG, March, 1867. MY DEAR TYRAN:—Allow me to introduce to you my particular friend, Mr. Geo. O. Evans. He has a claim of some magnitude that he wishes you to help him in. Put him through as you would any other man.

Did any disreputable characters come to Philadelphia from any other place during the sessions of the officeholders Convention who would not also confess that they understand addition, division and silence.

Womanly Weapons.

A San Francisco telegram of the 25th ult., narrates to us how that Mrs. Emily Pitts Stevens, a Woman Suffrage politician of that place, because she had been checked by a Mr. Meeker for disturbing an anti-woman suffrage assemblage, got a pistol and went after the aforesaid Mr. Meeker to shoot him.

The clerics supporting him, were he a candidate, would draw a large vote in several of the doubtful States. But from his devotion to Democratic principles we are convinced that when the Baltimore Convention nominates, he will not be found in the field in opposition to its candidates.

Oregon Abroad.

The West published in San Francisco, says that there is no State in the Union attracting more public attention present than Oregon. The tide of population is running strong in that direction.

Disreputable Characters. Forney's paper, the Philadelphia Press, said at the time of the assembling of Grant's Convention, that "a large number of thieves and disreputable characters are arriving in the city to prey upon the strangers who visit the Convention."

Is it probable, remarks the New York Sun, that these thieves from abroad and disreputable characters generally would find anything to object to in the principle laid down in the subjoined authentic epistle written to the Assistant Attorney-General of the United States:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF PENN., HARRISBURG, March, 1867. MY DEAR TYRAN:—Allow me to introduce to you my particular friend, Mr. Geo. O. Evans. He has a claim of some magnitude that he wishes you to help him in. Put him through as you would any other man.

Did any disreputable characters come to Philadelphia from any other place during the sessions of the officeholders Convention who would not also confess that they understand addition, division and silence.

This W. H. Kemble was chosen on June 5, to represent the officeholders of Pennsylvania in the officeholders National Committee.

Hon. W. S. Groesbeck.

This gentleman, who was nominated as the candidate of the Free Traders, says the Examiner, is a native of New York, aged 46, and is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers in the United States. He has so long resided in Ohio, filling many important positions, that his name has become identified with that of the State.

The clerics supporting him, were he a candidate, would draw a large vote in several of the doubtful States. But from his devotion to Democratic principles we are convinced that when the Baltimore Convention nominates, he will not be found in the field in opposition to its candidates.

Oregon Abroad.

The West published in San Francisco, says that there is no State in the Union attracting more public attention present than Oregon. The tide of population is running strong in that direction.

Disreputable Characters. Forney's paper, the Philadelphia Press, said at the time of the assembling of Grant's Convention, that "a large number of thieves and disreputable characters are arriving in the city to prey upon the strangers who visit the Convention."

Is it probable, remarks the New York Sun, that these thieves from abroad and disreputable characters generally would find anything to object to in the principle laid down in the subjoined authentic epistle written to the Assistant Attorney-General of the United States:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF PENN., HARRISBURG, March, 1867. MY DEAR TYRAN:—Allow me to introduce to you my particular friend, Mr. Geo. O. Evans. He has a claim of some magnitude that he wishes you to help him in. Put him through as you would any other man.

Did any disreputable characters come to Philadelphia from any other place during the sessions of the officeholders Convention who would not also confess that they understand addition, division and silence.

This W. H. Kemble was chosen on June 5, to represent the officeholders of Pennsylvania in the officeholders National Committee.

Telegraphic Clippings.

Four MAYNOR (Indiana), July 1.—At West Point, Mrs. Dr. A. Walker, who parted from her husband some time since, was murdered by her two sons, aged 12 and 16 years.

KINCINNATI, June 28.—The State Convention has elected the following delegates: Baltimore, Thomas G. Hooback, John B. Aldwin, Robert Ould, Lieut. Gov. John May.

NEW ORLEANS, June 29th.—New York Post, Texas, June 29th, Gen. McKenzie, Lieut. Sam and eight men were murdered by Indians.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—David Buckley and his son-in-law, John Buckley, got into an altercation, when the latter stabbed the former in the left breast, producing death in fifteen minutes.

State Items.

The small-pox of small-pox has re-covered. The Engle-cave at Lincoln, Polk county is checked.

Rev. I. D. Driver delivered the oration yesterday at Portland. Senator Corbett is expected to return to Oregon next month.

The rain has been general, visiting all portions of the State. Representative Slater has arrived at his home in La Grande.

Iron is passing to the front quite rapidly on the West Side railroad. The post-office at Forest Grove has been made a money order office.

The new schedule time on the O. & C. Railroad will go into effect to-day. Gen. John F. Miller has gone to Klamath Lake with $3,000 head of sheep.

Small-pox has made its appearance at Victoria and also at Olympia. The Examiner says that there are one or two new cases of small-pox at Eda.

The Republicans of Oregon have twenty or thirty ministers and seven licensees. A Douglas county man was fined last week fifty dollars for whipping his wife.

Mr. Levi Leland of this county delivered the oration at Dixie, Polk county. The Empire City folks are making an effort to get a telegraph line built to Roseburg.

Private letters from the Rogue river valley speak discouragingly of crop prospects. A. B. Crossman was elected Chief Engineer of the Salem Fire Department last Monday.

The Albany Democrat informs an outside world that that town has an iron foundry. A man named Cornelius Gilroy murdered William Wales, at Portland, last Wednesday.

Geo. W. Butler was sent to the penitentiary for one year by Judge Upton for adultery. Maggie Marshall, for grand larceny, was sent to the penitentiary for one year from Portland.

Geo. H. Durham's majority for District Attorney in the Fourth Judicial District over C. B. Bellinger, is 942. Mr. J. G. Glenn, one of the delegates to the Baltimore Convention has forwarded his proxy to Senator Kelly.

A man named J. W. Warden has been arrested at Portland for an embezzlement of $3,000 at St. Louis last March. A colored man, living on First Street, near the Foundry, Portland, died at the post house last Friday of small-pox.

Joseph A. Hanna, of Corvallis, Benton county, has been appointed Postmaster at that place, vice George Mercer, resigned. The city authorities of Portland give notice that the small-pox has disappeared from that city and that there is no danger of the disease in that place.

W. G. Rowland, convicted of robbery near Saturday, was sentenced at Salem on Saturday to the Penitentiary for one year. A son of Mr. Carey, of Portland, was so badly injured by the explosion of giant powder last Sunday, that he died on the following day.

M. M. Oglesby, of Dallas was severely injured last Tuesday by a horse falling on him. His injuries, though severe, are not likely to prove serious. A newly elected Justice of the Peace in Union county takes jurisdiction of everything. He has already granted his cousin a divorce from a refractory wife.

President Flaley having retired from the Corvallis College, the Board of Trustees, last Tuesday, passed a series of resolutions of compliments and regrets. Rev. Thomas Condon, of Dallas has been invited to deliver the annual address before the Walla Walla Agricultural Society, at its annual Fair in September next.

During the fire at Canyon City, on the 25th ult., Charles G. Castle, Esq., by over exerting himself in his efforts to arrest the flames, burst a blood vessel and died almost instantly. He was an old resident of Grant county and was almost universally respected for his many good qualities. He was the Treasurer elect of the county, but had not yet entered upon the duties of his office.

On Tuesday, June 25th, the town of Canyon City, was visited by a fire which destroyed four buildings. The fire which was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, had its origin in a stable on Main Street which was entirely destroyed. The flames, with lightning rapidity, spread to the adjoining buildings and in a short time consumed three dwelling houses. The principal losers are C. Castle, — Hall and B. Saltsater.

Referring to the $75,000 appropriated for surveying public lands in this State, the Corvallis Gazette says: "We understand there are extensive tracts of valuable lands still unsurveyed, in the western and south-western portion of this county. It is believed that the acquisition of these lands will be better than the unoccupied lands now in the hands of persons who are anxious to avoid the survey of these lands."

A. H. Webster has presented to the War Department a large claim ($28,000) for damages sustained by him by reason of the occupation of land claimed by him as a pre-emption, as the site for Camp Logan and the appropriation of land, held by him and other improvements to public use. Camp Logan was established S. pt. 16th 1865, by Captain A. E. DeGraham of the 1st Oregon Infantry. At that time the Indians were very hostile to that section of Grant county.

The Capital Question.

The following from the Herald, will indicate that our Railroad King is about to take the Capital to his town on the east side of the river at Portland, and that our loyal friends of Salem will soon have to bid farewell to their future anticipated greatness as the Capital of the State, with her magnificent mansions:

It is well known at least to a few, that the permanent location of the State Capital will cut a prominent figure in the proceedings of the next Legislature. It is also well known to a majority of our citizens that our ambitious neighbor on the other side of the river has taken a chance in the lottery, and has more than one reason to believe that she will draw the prize. What these reasons are the reader can best imagine, for we are not at liberty to disclose, they having been whispered to us under the solemn pledge of secrecy. We say, however, that the ambitious little city, with commendable zeal and enterprise, wonderful in one so young, is straining every nerve and doing all in her power to accomplish the desired end.

It is not, however, that the ambitious little city, with commendable zeal and enterprise, wonderful in one so young, is straining every nerve and doing all in her power to accomplish the desired end. In this undertaking she has been ably assisted by a number of influential gentlemen who reside on this side of the river. A meeting of the friends of the movement, we are informed, was held in this city one evening last week. Among those present were several of our most prominent politicians who expressed themselves as being in favor of the project, and also signified their willingness to use their influence with the Legislature for the success of the movement.

A sum of money was subscribed; but for what purpose we are not informed. One of the gentlemen present said that he was in favor of the movement, but he was in favor of the movement. Another meeting will be held at an early day, when it is expected a definite plan of operations will be agreed upon. Those who have the matter in hand, will endeavor to make a success of their project, and say that the day is not far distant when East Portland will figure on the map "of our country" as the Capital of the young and growing State of Oregon.

SENATOR BAYARD'S OPINION.

Senator Bayard, of Delaware, don't think the Democracy ought to endorse Greeley. He says: "I cannot think that the Democratic masses will barter away their grand and simple party faith to follow an eccentric nomination which defeats every theory of wisdom, propriety and justice which has ever been advanced for the control of our party movements."

A VITAL THURST.—The Louisville Courier-Journal gives the President and his negro-equality blowers a vital thrust, by reminding them of the fact that "when Grant invited the San Domingo Commissioner to dine at the White House, Fred Douglass was the only one excluded."

BETTER REPRESENTATIVES.—Ben Butler thinks that he should have been nominated for Vice President on the ticket with Grant, instead of Wilson. Such a pair, remarks the Detroit Union, would have better represented Radicalism—a receiver and a thief.

AGENTS FOR THE ENTERPRISE.

The following persons are authorized to act as agents for the ENTERPRISE: Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 40 Park Row, New York. Geo. Wetmorell & Co., 607 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Abbott & Co., No. 82 & 84 Nassau street, New York. L. Samuel, San Francisco. Thomas H. Baker, San Francisco. J. P. Fisher, Astoria, Clatsop county. A. Van Dusen, LaFayette, Yamhill county. J. L. Fortson, Dallas, Polk county. W. N. Holmes, Corvallis. J. S. Palmer, Canyon City. W. B. Lasswell, Dallas, Wasco county. N. H. Gates, Pendleton, Umatilla county. S. V. Knox, Eugene City. J. M. Thompson, Clatsop county. C. F. Beale, Beaver Creek. Frank W. Foster, Cascades. Henry McGehee, Lower Molalla. W. H. Strawser, Upper Molalla. W. H. Vaughan, Harding's. Z. C. Horton, Cuttings. D. Wright.