Sr. Louis, June 25th. My Dear Sir :- I regret to say that it will be impossible for me to attend the Convention of Liberals of Illinois to-morrow. I arrived here last nigh from the East, and find an accumulation of business which demands my immediate attention, besides I desire to address my constituents here before taking part in the campaign elsewhere. You have my earnest wishes in your endeavors to rally for united action all the elements in opposition to that system of policy which is now controlling the Government and the people of this Republic, and which has not inappropriately been called Grantism. It is time that the people of the North and South be once more bound together by inspiring consciousness of. common nationality, common rights, common duties; and to this end it is necessary that the traditional barriers be broken down and that the policy of force by which the embers of civil strife are assiduonsly fanned, and bitter feelings re-election producing an amendof the past are kept alive for partiment of conduct in respect to his firm him in the ways and practices our Republican system cannot long which have excited so much just endure.
