TOWN AND COUNTY.

DROWNED - The sad news of the drown ing of Arthur D. Charman, eldest son of ex-Mayor Charman, spread a gloom over our city last Monday afternoon. He had left his father's store about three o'clock with the intention of going in swimming. and went up where the E. N. Cooke is The hovs who were with him thought nothing of his strange conduct until he let go of it and his body went immediately out of sight. They then came up town and gave the alarm, when Mr. Geo. Harding ran down in all possible haste, undressed himself, dived down where he associates and his loss has deprived them of a friend and agreeable comparion .-Church on Wednesday, the sermon being preached by Rev. E. Gerry, assisted by Dr Atkinson of Portrend; the singing was under the charge of Rev. Mr. Sellwood. The stores and all business houses were closed, and the Fire Department turned out in full force as well as our citizens generally. It was one of the largest funerals that has ever taken place in this city. The community deeply sympathize with the afflicted family in their sad bereavement in the loss of so promising | House this evening. and hopeful a son. His prospects for a cat of twi bright future were suddenly of the uncertainty but another illustration cannot be beat in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is, come and see and examine for yourselves, for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for eash, or on such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.
