THE OLD FENCE RAIL.

It lies and rots by the roadside, Among the withering weeds: .. The blackberry vines run over it, And the thistles drop their seeds.

Below the Miami murmurs: He flows as he always flowed; Travel the National Road. At times a maiden's glances Gild it with tents of dawn. But the schoolboy snorts with Lis nostrils, Kicks it, and hastens on.

Above it the pioneer's chimney, Lonely and rickety, leans: Beside it the pioneer's garden Is a wildering growth of greens.

It was split by the stalwart settler, One of the ancient race, And the hands of his tow-haired children Litted it into its place.

Years after the gawky lover Sat on it, dangling his beels, While his girl forgot her milking. And the pen, with its hungry squeals. Ab, the rail has its own romances, The scenes and changes of years:

I pause whenever I see it-And drop on it several tears. IN THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF HUELAT & WARREN, Attorneys for Plaintiff. The Baltimore Platform.

Following is the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention at Baltimore on the 9th of July, 1872:

1. We recognize the equality of men before the law and hold that it is the duty of | Corner of Front and Oak streets, Portland, sity last Friday evening at which the fol- the government, in its dealings with the towing officers were elected for the ensure people, to mete out equal and exact justice persuasion, religious or political.

2. We pledge ourselves to maintain the law, the union of these states, emancipation and enfranchisement, and to oppose any reopening of the questions settled by the Thirteenth Fourteenth and Fifteenth amend- | English refined Bar and Bundle Iron

3. We demand the immediate and abso- Screws, Fry-pans, sheet iron, R. G. Iron lute removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the rebellion, which was finally subdued seven years ago, believing that universal amnesty will result in complete pacification in all sections of the country.

4. Local self-government with impartial suffrage will guard the rights of all citizens more securely than any central zed power .--The public welfare demands the supremacy of the civil over the military authority, and freedom of person under the protection of the habous corpus. We demand for the individual the largest liberty consistent with ublic order, for the state self-government, and for the nation to return to the methods of peace and the constitutional limitations

5. The civil service of the government has become a mere instrument of partisantyranny and personal ambition and an object of selfish greed. It is a scandal and reprouch upon free institutions, and breeds a demoralization dangerous to the perpetuity of a republican government.

6. We therefore regard a thorough reform of the civil service as one of the most pressexpanity and fidelity constitute the only valid claims to public employment; that the offices of government cease to be a matter of ar bitrary favoritism and patronage, and that public station will become again the post of honor. To this end it is imperatively required that no president shall be a candidate

7. We demand a system of federal taxation which shall not unnecessarily interfere with the industry of the people, and which shall provide the means necessary to pay the expenses of the government, economically NOTARY PUBLIC, ENTERPRISE OFFICE | the interest on the public debt, and a moderare annual reduction of the principal thereof; and recognizing that there are in our m dethonest but irrec incitable differences of opin ion with regard to the respective systems of protection and tree tends, we result the discassion of the subject to the people in their SALEM CASSIMERES, FLANNELS congressional districts, and the decision of congress thereon, wholly free of executive

> To Stock Drovers. THE ROAD ACROSS THE CASCADE A Mountains, known as the "Old Emigrant Road," is now in splendid order for the accommodation of the public. The bridges on the road have all been thoroughly repaired, and stock drovers will find it no trouble to cross the Mountains by this route. There is plenty of good water and grass on both sides of the Mountains, and the distance across is only 50 miles being the shortest as well as the best road over the Cascade Mountains. Stock droves and emigrants will find t to their advantage to travel over this route.

Toles reasonable.
