FOR VERMONT .- Rev. E. Gerry and family leave this city to day for their old home a Vermont. Mr. Gerry has been the pustor of the Congregational Church in this city for the past four years, and will be missed by a large circle of church-going cople. He will cary with him the hest vishes of entire community; he has rendered us valuable service in times past as a "sub." and we unite with his many blends in wishing him a pleasant journey back to the 'Green Mountain' State.

Narrow Escare - Last Monday as Jas Fuller and wife were crossing the railroad by the Congregational Church, the train came down through the cut striking the buggy and nearly throwing them out. The train was not observed until they were the track, as the cut hid it from view. Mr. F. sustailed some slight injuries and errible scare. Why cannot the train whistle when passing such places? It is in Salem.

THOMASCHARMAN cannot be beat in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as very store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is, come and see and examine for yourselves, for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or on such terms as agreed upon.
