Public Speaking.

Hon. Geo. R. Helm, candidate for Presidential Elector, will address the citizens of this comity, at the Court House, on Monday evening, November 4th. Mr. II. State, and we hope the house will be crowded.

The Manufactories of Oregon City

We take the following article relative to our city, from the Commercial Reporter, published at Portland. It says: @

Visiting Oregon City recently we were much interested in inspecting the various manufactories of that thriving town, which that will, in due season, be reduplicated there as our wants and necessities become more varied in our growing commercial relations. Oregon City has a water power going daily to waste which is more than double in extent the combined water ecessity she will in a few years become preeminently the manufacturing Lowell of the Pacific coast, and it needs naught But patient waiting notil our State has acquired a population of one million inablian's, which is not ten years distant, fore the truth of this assertion will be
