The Roanoke Times publishes the following bit of rhyme, evidently from the pen of some fellow-mortal who justly ap- rated town or city of this State, in pursupreciates the great sin of cheating the o printer: The man who cheats the printer 'Out of a single cent, Will never reach the heavenly land Where old Elijah went.

> He will not gain admittance there, By devils he'll be driven, And made to loaf his time away Ontside the walls of heaven. Without a man to greet him,

Without a pleasant grin, The happiness that he will reap Will be almighty thin.

He'll have to eat the thistle Of sorrow and regret, He'll have to buck around right smart With cussedness, "You bet!" Oh, who shall lightly say that Fame Is nothing but an empty name, Miller, John B., 93 1st st. Watchmaker & Jeweler, offers to the public a fine as-sortment of Watches, Clocks and Jewelry. grant Road," is now in splendid order for the accommodation of the public. The bridges Moeller & Co. Front near Cst. Dealers in native and foreign Wines, Liquors on the road have all been thoroughly teraired, and stock drovers will find it no trouble to cross the Mountains by this route. There is plenty of good water and grass on both sides of the Mountairs, and the distance across is only 50 miles being the shortest as well as the best road over the Cascade Mourtains. Stock droves and emigrants will fird it to their advantage to travel over this route Toles reasonable. JOSEPH YOUNG, President-
