

New Dress

The next issue of the ENTERPRISE will appear in an entire new dress, on a clear type and much improved in appearance.

Disgraceful Practices

We scarcely can take up an eastern paper from the States where U. S. Senators have been elected by the Radicals within the last year, but what we find the most barefaced corruption charged against the successful candidates.

Gone to Washington

On the steamer which left Portland last Saturday, Hon. J. H. Mitchell, Senator elect, took his departure for Washington.

To Our Advertisers

We propose during the coming week to put the ENTERPRISE in a "new dress," and would request our advertising patrons to change their advertisements if they desire to do so, as it is just as easy for us to set up an entire new advertisement as to reset the old ones.

ALMANAC

We have received the Benton County Almanac published by W. B. Carter, Esq., of the Gazette. It is neatly printed, and contains much valuable reading matter.

Last Tuesday J. P. Jones was elected U. S. Senator for Nevada.

The Credit Mobiler—Corruption of Radical Congressmen

The New York Herald, in speaking of the infamous swindle by means of the Credit Mobiler, says that this sink of jobbery must be searched until those who have guiltily fattened in it are held up to the scorn of the world.

The Bulletin publishes a letter from an Oregon City correspondent, recalling an incident that occurred during the session of the late Legislature, in which some of the Radical State papers favored the ousting of the Republican members from Clackamas county.

Yes, and one of its most infamous acts was the refusal of that Legislature to even hear the testimony in the contested case from this county, and its retaining in their seats three Radicals who had no legal right to their seats.

The New York World is just now engaged in demonstrating that General Grant is a minority President—that is, that he holds his office by virtue of less than half the votes of the people.

The Oregonian, speaking of the appointments made by Governor Grover, says: Gov. Grover has appointed a Board of Commissioners to proceed with the capital building in accordance with the law passed at the last Legislature.

Grant carried thirty-one States with three hundred electoral votes. The opposition carried six States with sixty six votes. Grant's popular majority was 739,137.

Telegraphic News

Chicago, Jan. 28.—A Washington special says that the Ames' testimony yesterday before the Credit Mobiler Committee, excites intense indignation among the gentlemen implicated in it.

The Evening Journal's Washington special says that the Ames' testimony yesterday before the Credit Mobiler Committee, excites intense indignation among the gentlemen implicated in it.

Another fight with the Modocs.—The following telegram has been received at Department Headquarters from General Wheaton, forwarded from Jacksonville on the 27th:

I have the honor to report a decided success on the 23d inst. The Modocs came out of the lava bed in force and attacked an escort of twenty-two men, who with two wagons, were in the camp at Land's ranch to Bernard's camp, at Jesse Applegate, Clear Lake.

The Credit Mobiler.—The New York Herald of a recent date says that the Credit Mobiler Investigating Committee met with suspicious slowness since its doors were thrown open to the public.

The Game Law.—The following section of the game law passed by the last Legislature goes into effect to-morrow:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to take, kill, injure or destroy, or to attempt to take, kill, injure or destroy, or to have in possession, or offer for sale any deer during the months of February, March, April, May and June during each year under a penalty of twenty dollars for the first offense, and double that sum for each succeeding offense to be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided.

Good Advice.—The Richmond (Va.) Express tells the farmers of that State that the best way to get out of their present financial difficulties, and secure their own and the State's prosperity, is for them to "come to a fixed determination to buy no moreinery for their daughters on credit, to make their sons support themselves in hire and ordinary labors, to sell all their land that they cannot redemptive and get out of debt as soon as possible."

Virginia politicians say that to Mosby, the guerrilla, President Grant tendered the office of United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of that State. Mosby, sensitive and delicate, but his motives might be misinterpreted. How that must have amused Grant!
