half of Oregon Lodge No. 3, L. O. O. F., was filled last Saturday evening with | parted. members of the Order and invited guests, to appropriately celebrate the 54th anniversary of the Order. The programme consisted of singing and speaking, and a splendid lunch, which was prepared by the ladies of the Order. The singing, led by Mrs J. W. Mel drum, was most excellent, and the pieces very appropriate. Mr. F. O. McCown delivered a short address, which was very good. He was followed by Grand Master Apperson, who delivered an able address, replete with information relating to the beneficial results which have flown from the organization of the Order in the United States, and showed that while fiftyfour years ago there was but a commencement of the Order, it now num-bers over five thousand Lodges, and amount of money now expended for the relief of its members, foots up to the enormous sum of about one million dollars per annum. In our own State the Order, twenty years ago, had but one Lodge, now they number 42. and their annual receipts are about $15,000. The address was very good and if space would allow us, should like to publish it entire. The supper was splendid, and after the large crowded had atcheartily, they enjoyed themselves in general conversation. The affair was very pleasant, and fully worthy of the event it was intended to

He has taken the precaution to post plainly written notices all around his fence prohibiting the deer from entering his pasture, under the penalty of being taken up as tresspassers, but they do not pay any of the wants to know what he is to do, and whether the county will furnish him the necessary officer to keep these touchesome animals from trespossing to this eity yesterday, and the little folks enjoyed themselves on the bluff.
