While the Republicans may claim that the leaflet contains, par excellence, of reforms that are being the last friends to the State and the Nation, the result of being the last friends to the State and the Nation, we are glad to say that it is filled with sense and reason.

Beneath the line of the Senate is a statement of the proceedings in the Senate of the State of Oregon, which contains the following:

Statement of the Senate of the State of Oregon.

The Senate of the State of Oregon, on Monday, October 2, 1854, was called to order by the President, who read the roll of members present and absent.

The Sergeant at Arms then entered and reported that he had been instructed to take the roll of members present and absent.

The Secretary then reported that he had received the following communications:

1. A communication from the Governor of the State of Oregon, dated September 27, 1854, enclosing a copy of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the Constitution to be in force.

2. A communication from the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, dated October 1, 1854, enclosing a copy of the first session of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the first session of the Legislature to be in session.

3. A communication from the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Oregon, dated October 2, 1854, enclosing a copy of the rules of the House of Representatives, and a proclamation of the Speaker, dated the same day, declaring the rules of the House to be in force.

The Secretary then reported that he had received the following communications:

1. A communication from the Governor of the State of Oregon, dated September 27, 1854, enclosing a copy of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the Constitution to be in force.

2. A communication from the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, dated October 1, 1854, enclosing a copy of the first session of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the first session of the Legislature to be in session.

3. A communication from the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Oregon, dated October 2, 1854, enclosing a copy of the rules of the House of Representatives, and a proclamation of the Speaker, dated the same day, declaring the rules of the House to be in force.

The Secretary then reported that he had received the following communications:

1. A communication from the Governor of the State of Oregon, dated September 27, 1854, enclosing a copy of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the Constitution to be in force.

2. A communication from the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, dated October 1, 1854, enclosing a copy of the first session of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the first session of the Legislature to be in session.

3. A communication from the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Oregon, dated October 2, 1854, enclosing a copy of the rules of the House of Representatives, and a proclamation of the Speaker, dated the same day, declaring the rules of the House to be in force.

The Secretary then reported that he had received the following communications:

1. A communication from the Governor of the State of Oregon, dated September 27, 1854, enclosing a copy of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and a proclamation of the Governor, dated the same day, declaring the Constitution to be in force.