THE WEATHER .- We have had most extraordinary weather for the past four or five days. Last Thursday night it began to get quite cold, and continued to get colder until Sunday evening, when it commenced to snow. But lit-tle snow fell till Wednesday night when it fell to the depth of about six inches, and with a good prospect of still more. It has been decidedly disagreeable, We learn by telegraph the storm extended all over the coast, and on Wedneeday four inches of snow fell in Sacramento Valley. The appearances now are that we are going to have winter.
