A Contrast.

"BOSS" TWEED AT BLACKWELL'S ISLAND, AND "BOSS" TWEED'S DAUGHTER'S WEDDING IN TRINITY CHAPEL TWO YEARS AGO—A WOFUL FALL FROM A HIGH ESTATE.

On Saturday last "Boss" Tweed was consigned to his future home in the prison at Blackwell's Island there to reside, if the sentence of the law be carried out, for the term of twelve years. With his head shaven, and his beard taken off, arrayed in the striped uniform, wearing what is known as a "larceny jacket," he sits in his gloomy cell, absorbed in bitter reflections on his withered power and prosperity, and, perhaps, too late repenting the career of crime which has brought upon him this ignoble fate. In striking contrast with this picture is the one which was presented for public reflection by the wedding of Miss Mary A. Tweed, daughter of the "Boss," which occurred two years ago last May. The newspapers of the day described the affair as "The Most Gorgeous Nuptials Ever Witnessed." A brief description of the glories of the grand occasion will not be out of place here. We glean the facts from the report of the New York Sun on the day following the wedding, two columns in length:

The affair came off at Trinity Chapel, in West Twenty-fifth street,

THE MOST FASHIONABLE QUARTER

of the city. The Church was crowded to repletion. The street outside was fairly blocked with carriages, and on each side of the canopy leading from the street to the church door a large crowd had gathered, rendering the sidewalk impassable. The groom was Ambrose Maginnis, presumably a member of the ubiquitous Maginnis family. The description of the bride's apparel is too lengthy to produce here in full. She wore a white colored silk with immense court train. Point aiguille lace decorated it in profusion. On her bosom flashed a brooch of immense diamonds, and long pendants, set with three large soltaire diamonds, sparkled in her ears. After the ceremony, all the invited guests entered their carriages to the music of selections from the Prophete, and were driven up to the residence of the bride's father, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-third street. The whole avenue was thronged with liveried turnouts. A blue and white awning extended from the hall door to the curb, and a wide Brussels carpet covered the pathway beneath it. The house from basement to roof, was one blaze of light. The fountain at the side played merrily in the twilight, and the flowers in the garden diffused a delicate perfume on the night air.

AN IMENSE CROWD

blocked up both sides of the awning, for the purpose of catching a glimpse of the guests passing in, and it was with difficulty that a strong force of policemen could keep them in order. Inside, the coup d' œil was simply gorgeous. From roof to hall-way the interior of the house was one mass of flowers—"all from my own place at Greenwich," said Mr. Tweed to the Sun reporter in accents of honest pride. All the more prominent politicians and their wives were there. A few of the ladies and their dresses are worth mentioning for the names of their husbands are still prominent, some of them as deservedly disgraced rascals: Mrs. M. T. Brennan was there, the wife of the man who, as Sheriff, took the "Boss" over to Blackwell's on Saturday. Also, Mrs. Judge Spencer, in blue silk, with ruched white Suisse overskirt, coral ornaments; Mrs. Dick Connolly, (alias "Slippery Dick,") in white silk, figured with black flowers and trimmed with deep black lace, black lace shawl, and pearl ornaments; Mrs. Henry Smith, (another "Ring" man) in white silk, trimmed with deep black lace, black lace boddice and diamonds; Mrs. Andrew Garvey, (the "Ring" plasterer) in blue silk, and many others. An extended bridal trip to Europe followed the wedding.

SUCH A WEALTH OF BRIDAL GIFTS

was never before seen at a Metropolitan wedding. They represented over a half million dollars in value, and it is pretty safe to say that three-fourths of their purchase money was stolen from the tax-payers of New York. Laces, turquoises, pearls, diamonds, gold, silver, and everything else of value reposed in satin or velvet on every side, vieing with each other in brilliancy and beauty. Looking over the list of givers, we find the following names: Hon. Chas. E. Lowe, a complete set of pearls, valued at $700; Peter B. Sweeney, an enameled bracelet set, with diamonds; Harry Genet, (now about to be tried for "Ring" forgeries), a diamond cross, composed of eleven large diamonds; Superintendent Kelso, magnificent silver ice bowl; Henry Smith, a $700 pair of armlets; Mrs. Dick Connolly, a silver ice dish lined with gold; Sheriff Brennan, a silver center dish and spoons; James Fisk, Jr., a silver ice dish; Mr. and Mrs. L. Ingersoll, a beautiful silver bouquet-holder; Senator Morton, a gold cable chain necklace; Mr. and Mrs. Keyser; (the "Ring plumber, we believe) a gold necklace with diamond cross; Tom Field, an etruscan gold necklace with ear-rings. Mrs. Judge Barnard, a gold necklace, with elegant gold pearls; Thurlow Weed, a silver sugar bowl; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Garvey, (the "Ring" plasterer) silver coffee urn, salver, and goblets; Jay Gould, a set of silver nut pickers; John R. Brady, a bronze statutte of Minerva. We omit the presents of the bride and groom's relatives, which were numerous, magnificent, and costly.

SUCH WAS "BOSS" TWEED

in the height of his power and popularity. At that time it seemed as if his grasp upon the government and treasury of New York was not to be shaken. Now the old man is deserted by almost every former friend. During his stay in the Tombs after sentence, he was visited by hardly any one outside the circle of his relatives. Never was evil fortune better deserved. If Tweed's case suffices as a solemn warning to other politicians of his class, the great cities of the country may hope for better days.

The STAR SPANGLED BANNER for December is promptly on our table, and in spite of the threats, arrests and false charges made against it for its persistent exposure of Rogues, Rascals and Swindlers, it don't stop waving worth a cent. In fact, though its publishers are threatened black-mailed and persecuted, they seem to still flourish. The BANNER overflows as of yore with 40 columns of splendid reading. "The Rogues' Corner" is as cutting as ever; and instead of one it next year gives a pair of charming Chromos, by Prang, and a paper a year, all for one dollar. It begins its twelfth year in January, and everybody (no exceptions), should read it. One dollar a year; send six cents for specimens to "Star Spangled Banner, Hinsdale, N. H.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh Year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, Universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World.
A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not For Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary (or transient) interest created in ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for less than its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publisher of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12x16) and appearance exact facsimiles of the originals. The representation of a worthy example of American's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted in the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very Respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If not better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publisher only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize those pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publisher will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS:

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos Free!

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE, will hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduction or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousand more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of interesting and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle-markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will receive the paper for a year.

We have no travelling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents per month, or $6.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or more, a discount of 20 per cent.
