'Can't do anything for you,' was the response. I knew that unless I could have a friendly word spoken in my behalf I should fail, and there was no time to lose. I left the Department very much disheartened, and walking down street, chanced to meet Colonel Johnson of Portland. I told him my troubles. When we parted he said: I will see whatcan be done. St. Nicholas.-St. Nicholas for February opens with a charming little poem by W. C. Bryant, and then, on the very first page, the stories begin with a well-told tale of the middle ages, "Bianca and Beppo," by J. S. Stacy, full of the flavor of youthful chivalry, and illustrated by a most exquisite en-graving by Miss Scannel. Among the other short stories we have "How the Heavens Fell," by Rossiter Johnson, illustrated by H. L. Stephens; "How Jamie Had His Own Way," by Miss Mary N. Prescott; "What St. Valentine Did for Milly," by Sosan Collivge.—all good and each one with a character of ts own. Besides these, there are the three serials, "Fast Friends," by J. T. Trowbridge, illustrated by White; "Nimpo's Troubles," by Olive Thorne, with a drawing by Miss Hallock; and What Might Have Been Expected' by Frank R. Stocton, with an illustraion by W. L. Sheppard, and one by Sol. Eytinge, Two pages for little folks are given this month; and, there is some capital talk from "Jack-in-theknown in that connection to the readers of "Our Young Folks;" and a 11th. A very choice selection of music will be offered to the public. One of pointment, and I shall never forget piece, by W. Brooks, entitled "In Sis. er's Care," is a vigorous, well-drawn picture. This number of Sr. Nicholas, 'Do you know the gentleman's like the last, while it keeps its individnality in every particular, shows a decided disposition to accept freely every advantage offered by its late absorp-tion of "Our Young Folks." Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Sprains, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neural jia, Rheumatism, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., &c' PAIN-KILLER, after a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that its sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the merits. The effect of the Pain-Killer upon the patient when taken internally,in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaint, Cholera, Dysentery, and other afflictions of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical pre-parations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such testimony, as an intallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. The Pain-Killer derives much of its popularity from the simplicity attending its use, which gives it a peculiar value in a family. The various diseases which may be reached by it, and in their incipient stages eradicated, are among those which are peculiarly fatal if suffered to run; but the curative magic of this preparation at once disarms them of their terrors. In all respects it tulfills the conditions of a popular medicine. Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain-Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine, Price-25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

Paints and Olls, Sash and Doors, Chinaware, Queensware, Crockery. Platedware. Jewelry of Various Qualities

And Styles, Clocks and Watches, Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Patent Medicines. Goods, Fancy Notions of Every Rope, Faming Implements of Description All Kinds, Carpets, Mattings, Oil

Cloth, Wall Paper, etc., Of the above list, I can say my stock is the MOST COMPLETE ver offered in this market, and was seleted with especial care for the Oregon City trade.

All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Ra es. No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for I am Determined to Sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.

All I ask is a fair chance and quick payments, believing as I do that Twenty Years Experience in Oregon City enables me to know the re-quirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of THOMAS CHARMAN cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves for I do not wish to make any mistakes My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.
