PORTLAND,

Look into your brother's eyes, man, And bid him read your own ; One-half the strife of human life Is born of guile alone! Deceit creates full half our hates, Farmer, Business Man, & Family Circle. And half our love it slays; Look in each other's eyes, men, And meet each others gaze.

TRUST ONE ANOTHER.

Otenom

Pardon your brother's faults, man, And ask that he forgive, Could human sin no pardon win, No mortal soul might live. No need of Heaven were none forgiven. For none would reach its doors, Pardon your brother's faults, man, And bid him pardon yours.

Feel for your brothers's grief, man, No heart is safe from woe, Though lips and eyes full oft deny, The sorrowing weight below. A gentle wife, a pitying smile, May sweetest balm impart. Feel for your brother's grief, man, And you may win a heart.

Stand by your brother's side, man, And bid him clasp your hand, To him be just, and yield the trust That you from him demand. How simply wise, with soul and eyes To trust, and still be true-Do to those, we love, man, What we would have them do.

Not Yet Prepared.

In every State of the Union a set of politicians and newspapers, claiming to be Democratic, prefer to be called Conservative, and constantly prate about the disunion or disorganization of the Democracy as a necessary precedent to Democratic success in the next Presidential election.
