TAKE NOTICE!

The Primary for Oregon City Precinct will be held at the Court House, at 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Let Democrats be on hand.

THE TURN VEREIN CONCERT.-The Concert, Exhibition and Ball given by the Oregon City Turn Vereins last Tuesday evening, was a complete success in every respect. The overtures by Prof. Bray's band were most excellently executed, and showed that the participants were thorough musicians. The singing by the Portland Turn Verein Services Saturday evening 7% o'clock; Sabbath morning at 10% and evening 7. Rev. Win. Roberts, P. E., will be tres-In consequence of Mrs. Sellwood's sickness, Miss Abraham, of Portland, sang a solo, which was well rendered and showed that the young lady possesses pupils showed that they had made marked progress since the organization of the Society, and reflected great credit on Mr. Schuman, their leader. The "Minute Gun At Sea," was most excellently sung by Messrs, Sellwood and Yates. The piano solo, by Miss Abraham, was well played for one so young, and when she acquires more confidence in herself, will make a good player. The club swinging, by Mr. A. | matter C. Miller, was a rare treat, and showed a proficiency in the use of them that we have never seen equalled. The tenor solo by A. O. Yates, was well sung, and showed the singer to be possessed of a good voice, well trained, but his articulation needs to be improved. The solo by Messes. France and Miller on the zither and guilar, was one of the principle features of the evening, and was so pleasing to the audience that they were called out a second time. The pi-ano duet, by Miss Abraham and Master Meyer was well executed. The excreises on the double trapeze, by Marx and Brenkley, were splendid, and equal to anything of the kind we have ever witnessed before. In fact, the whole entertainment was excellent. The ball afterwards was largely attended, there being over fifty couples present. The music was splendid, and daneing was kept un until five o'clock in the morning. The supper given by Louis Sul was a bounteous display of good things, and reflected credit on him. The concert, exhibition and ball of the Oregon City Turn Vereins was the affair redects credit on its managers. It will long be remembered by be long before they may have the the same kind.

A PINTER'S MONUMENT,-We saw yesterday the monument A. J. Monroe. of John Fleming who died about one year ago at Oregon City, and who was the pioneer printer of the Pacine Coast.
The in enument is to be erected by subscriptions mainly from the printers of O again, and, though nothing grand, will be a next and appropriate memo-ral of their fellow craftenian. It is to consist of a granibe base, the stone taken from the Ozegon Chy quarry, one and a half feel in height, soongointed by a murile base and soire, of California murble, four and a half feet in height. Taxtmonument will be plain, bearing merely the ordinary inscription, with the printer's emblem-the composing stick. Salesman.

New Moste, Another selection of mande is just at hand from the publisher, Grac, of San Francisco. We not ce that Mr. Gray has opened a branch house at Partland, Oregon, for the sale of State ways Parison and Burdett Organs, in confinction with a large stock mu ked marchandise. The following are am ing the new music we have received, and they all possess merits "Ave Maria, to Miss alo for mezzo soprane quartette for female voices; "The Skin T's Wife." song and chorus; "Pourly Dev Deops;" "Invitation a la Polka," C. Evens; "Where have the dear Chil-dran Gner," "libel," Stainer; "Even-ing Walk;" "Horious things are ing Walk:" "liforious things are Spoken." Mr. P. J. Benitz, is agent for Mr. Gray's establishment at Portland.

Oswgo IRON WORKS, -A large force of man are still employed on the above works, says the Oregonian. There are about 170 mon engaged in burning coal and digging ere. Some weeks ago, Mr. Batisford telegraphed East for several "tuvers," which are expected to arrive re on the next steamer. These "tay ers" are in his cusably necessary, and the smelting process cannot be commenced until they arrive. A very large quantity of each has been borned, and considerable are day out. Unless some unexpected event should transpire to delay the work, it is expected to commence smelting ore within the next ten

THANKS .- The printers of Sidem responded very liberally for the Fleming monument fund, subscribing $2100. We shall publish a list of all the subscribers of the time the stone is erected and place them between the base and monument. There is yet a chance for other printers to contribute. The amount thus subscribed is about $65.09 We have agreed to pay $85.00 for the monument and other incidental expenses, such as fixing the lot, etc., will have to be paid. We hope the printers in this State especially, will feel guiltcient interest in this matter to give a The monu neat is now being prepared by Mr. A. J. Monroe, of S. J. T.
