RBAD THIS NOTICE !

Many of our patrons are indebted to us for subscription and advertising. Some are behind for several years, and for whom we have bought white paper and worked. This we cannot afford to do always. Pay day must come, and do always. Pay day must come, and unless they come forward soon we shall be compelled to close our account with them and give the bills to some person who will see that payment is made. All persons in arrears for subscription who will pay before the middle of next month what they owe, and pay one year in advance, we will charge at the rate of $250 per annum. After that date we shall charge $3 when not strictly paid in advance. We cannot afford to buy paper for those who think pay day never comes. We trust those indebted will pay without further A.
