Our Dormant Energies. Our bodies are not as vigorous nor our minds as clear as they might be. This remark is true of at least two-thirds of civilized society, and of these two-thirds probably one-half is laboring under infirmities of a character likely to shorten the lives of of that amount was paid before all the suff rers. This is a melancholy exhibit the work was done. Said Milwain's and furnishes abundant food for reflection. Can the evil be mitigated? It can. Lack of vitality is the primary cause of most of the physical and mental suffering to which we are subjected, and therefore a vitalizing medical agent is the remedy required.
Is there such a medicine? There is, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will rouse and energize the mind and bedy when the life power of the system is in a comparatively dormant State. The languid, feeble, de-sponding invalid is not aware of the latent energies that underlies his debility. He endow it with new motive power, through the agency of this incomparable invigorant, and he will soon teel like a new man, or rather like a man who has received a new lease of life, and the requisite health to enjoy it. Many business men suffer ed by too close application to business. Hard students are often oppressed with melalcholy from a like cause. Mechanics and working men are affected in the same way as result of overwork. To all who are in this condition, from whatever cause, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will prove a signal blessing. It is a perfect panacea for physical deb lity and mental gloom. It strengthens the body, clears the mind and calms the nervous-system; while as a remedy for indigestion, billiousness, constipation, rheumatism, and intermittent and remittent fevers, it takes precedence of all
