OREGON CITY, OREGON, MAY 15th, 1874.

Why Dick Williams Should not be Elected.

We hope no Democrat will forget his duty on election day by voting for Mr. Richard Williams, for the following very important reason—if for no other. Oregon may, and perhaps will, cut a large figure in the election of the next President. Everything points unerringly to the fact that a Radical Republican cannot be again elected to that high office by the free voice of the people. If a firm and true Democrat, who is mindful of the best interests of the people, is not elected by the popular vote, the election may be thrown into the House of Representatives, because more than two candidates will undoubtedly be in the field, and as it will be extremely doubtful if any one gets a majority over all the others, the election is bound to be decided by the House. How important it is then that Oregon should stand on the side of reform, the only true Democracy.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Electons have agreed to report a change in the manner of electing the President and Vice President. The change will allow each State to cast two votes and one vote for each electorial district, to be cast in accordance with the wish of the Electors of said district. Oregon will have three votes—two of them to be cast by our delegation in Congress, consisting of two Senators and one Representative. If La Dow is elected there will be two Democrats to one Republican in the delegation and the two votes will be cast for the election of a Democratic President. Should "Slippery Dick" be successful Oregon will have two Republicans and one Democrat in the councils of the nation and her vote will be thrown for a Radical for the Chief Executive office. This should not be, and we do not believe the people of this State will allow Mr. La Dow to be defeated. We should stand by our colors.

Wise and Sound Opinions

Senator Thurman has written an excellent letter to Mr. W. H. Arnold of Cadiz, Ohio, defending his course upon the currency question. "I am not," says the Senator, "an inflationist of irredeemable and depreciated paper currency. Had I been seeking temporary popularity or unmerited praise, and been willing to sacrifice my integrity and self-respect for such a purpose, I should have joined the inflationists. I value as much as any man ought to do the good opinion of my fellow-men, but I will not seek it by ways that my conscience and judgment condemn. The inflation that is about to take place may stimulate speculation for a time, and produce an apparent but counterfeit prosperity; but unless history is false, the ultimate result will be widespread ruin and bankruptcy." These are wise and sound opinions, and the frankness and courage with which Senator Thurman utters them and acts upon them should raise him still higher in the admiration of all whose esteem has any value.

ENGLISH HOUSEKEEPING.—A great amount of labor goes in an English house to the duty and disagreeable task of preparing the fires, which squander so rapidly our remaining stock of coal. In an American house, where saving of labor has become a pressing necessity the trouble is minimized by a simple arrangement. A single furnace is lighted, and the rooms are warmed by hot air, which can be admitted or excluded at pleasure. In England we cling to the belief that our own plan, which means exposure to any number of cold drafts playing about our backs as we toast our toes, and allows us to pass through all climates between our kitchens and our garrets, is healthier and more comfortable. However that may be, it is clearly more laborious. A similar principle might be carried out in almost every department of domestic life.—Cornhill Magazine.

A student in one of the New York colleges was charged by the Faculty with having a barrel of ale deposted in his room, contrary, of course, to rule. He received a summons to appear before the president who said:

"Sir, I am informed that you have a barrel of ale in your room."

"Yes, sir"

"What explanation can you make?"

"Why, the fact is, sir, my physician advised me to try a little ale each day as a tonic, and not wishing to stop at various places where this beverage is retailed, I determined to have a barrel taken to my room."

"Indeed! And have you derived any benefit from it?"

Ah! yes, sir. When the barrel was first taken to my room, a few weeks since, I could scarcely lift it. Now I can carry it with the greatest ease."

This is what the State Rights Democrat says of the prospect in Benton County: "The news from over the river is indeed cheering. We understand that the 'Independent' spirit in Benton is gradually giving away since their State Convention, and that the Democracy are returning to their allegiance. The county ticket nominated by the Democratic Convention on the 18th, is considered a very strong one and has materially assisted in strengthening our party in old Benton."

Dick Williams is only acting as the Attorney of the Custom House Ring. The bargain was made between him and the Ring by which he was to get $2,000 before he would allow them to use his name for Congress. In case of his election, of which there is not the remotest possibility, the money is to be repaid. Slippery Dick is smart enough a lawyer to ask a handsome retainer before undertaking so doubtful a case.

One of the Radical candidates for the Legislature from this county has only been here about two years, and a portion of his family are yet in Iowa. He is a sort of a preacher—Foster is his last name.

What Consistency.

The Custom House Ring claims that they are in favor of the repeal of the odious "fee bill," and also the increase of the Judges' salary. What an infamous pretension this is. Look at the men they have nominated, and it is always better to judge what men have done than what they profess they will do. In Benton county the Radicals have nominated Bush Wilson, the author of the fee bill for Clerk, and James Gingles, the man who belonged to Wilson in the Legislature and introduced the bill, for Sheriff. This ought to be enough to convince any one of the hypocrisy of the Radicals. But let us go to Portland. Sol. Hirsh and Dave Powell, are the Radical or Custom House ring candidates for the Senate. They both were in the last Legislature and they did vote for both these bills, and every other thieving act. John F. Caples is the nominee for the Lower House, and he was a member in the last Legislature and did vote for both of these bills. So much for the members. W. H. Harris is the Radical nominee for County Clerk. This is the individual who paid Sam. Clarke, (the reformer), $40 to shuffle the fee bill on the top, and if was done. J. M. Caywood, the Radical or Custom House candidate for Sheriff. This fellow lobbied for the bill during the entire session, and paid money to secure the passage of the bill. This shows how consistent these Radicals are in their professions for the repeal of these bills. Let the readers judge men by their past acts and not by what their organs profess and promise what they will do.

EARNESTNESS.—One great lion in the way of reformers is that they neglect to first reform themselves. A man must practice what he preaches in order to carry conviction with his teachings, he must live up to his doctrines by acts and words. A man should not put himself forward for a pilot and live the life of a castaway. Earnestness and sincerity are the greatest and most essential elements in all good and great reformers. A man may have the genius of a Milton, the learning of a Johnson, and the eloquence of a Pitt, and yet if he carry not into the hearts of his listeners the conviction that he is sincere in his teachings he might as well talk to the bare walls.

COUNTY JUDGE.—Col. W. L. White, the nominee for County Judge of this county on the Democratic ticket, has been a resident of Oregon over twenty years, is a man of excellent abilities for the position, and is at present the incumbent of that office. He has thus far made a most excellent Judge, and discharged the duties of his office to the entire satisfaction of the people. Let the voters of Clackamas elect him to the position for which he has been placed in nomination.

CAMPBELL, the candidate of the outside Republicans for Governor, in his speech at Roseburg, is said to have read a list of those who have managed to get their fingers into the School Fund. It turned out that nearly every name read was that of a man who has joined the Independent organization, and poor Campbell's list cost him some twenty or thirty votes. If he reads that list when he gets to Salem he will probably lose one of the only two daily papers that now advocate his election.

TOLMAN AT EUGENE.—Tolman denied ever having won a dollar on a horse race. But he failed to explain how he John Phœnixed Eugene about ten years ago, when he beat the "Thompson filly" and didn't leave "nary a single red cent" in town.—Guard.

The same paper also says:

Tolman would make an excellent presiding officer for a Jockey Club meeting, but he would cut a sorry figure as Governor of a State. His bar room slang would be sadly out of place.

The Democratic Representative ticket for this county is composed of men who are all identified with the welfare and interests of our county and State. They are worthy men, all farmers and men of good sound judgment, just such as should represent the county in the Legislature. They will discharge their duty faithfully and honestly. Let every Democrat see to it that they are elected.

HOW HE TRANSLATED IT.—A colored preacher, in translating to his hearers the sentence, "The harvest is over, the season is ended, and my soul is not saved," put it: "De corn has been cribbed, dere ain't any more work, and de debbil is still foolin' wid dis community."

It is generally conceded that Tolman, the Radical candidate for Governor, is unfit for the place, and that he is the laughing stock of the people wherever he has entered an appearance.

W. W. Moreland, the nominee for County School Superintendent is a practical teacher, well qualified for the position, and is not like his opponent, a pot-house politician.

MORE RUMORS.—The report is revived that Attorney General Williams will succeed Minister Jay at Vienna, and Mr. Bristow of Ky. will take the Law Department.

Gen. John B. Hood, of the late Confederate army, has now been married about five years, and is the father of seven children, by his wife.

HER FIFTH WINTER.—The model woman lives in Des Moines. She is now getting her fifth Winter out of the same bonnet.

Another one of Them.

Dolph, proxy of the Custom House and State Senator from Multnomah, whose speech has been printed, (no doubt with Custom House corruption funds,) and circulated through the State, is a sweet-scented thing to preach corruption. This fellow, an attorney, who ought to have known that the present fee bill is nothing but a robbery, voted for the act, and also for the increase of the salary bill. These Radical bushwhackers are of the kind that befoul their own nests. That fee bill has taken more money out of the tax-payers in this State during the past two years than the entire cost of the State Administration, excepting the penitentiary and the asylum expenses. The Legislature created the expenses, and their cheek to hold the Governor responsible for their acts is certainly refreshing.

CHEEKY.—The Radicals are charging the Democracy with all the infamous legislation passed by the last Legislature. The hypocrisy of this charge is apparant when the reader knows that in the Lower House the Radicals had 15 majority and thus passed all the thieving acts the people complain of.

Democratic Platform.

The following platform of principles was adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Albany last Wednesday:

1. We declare our unfaltering devotion to the Constitution of the United States and to the Union of the States thereby established, and we affirm that the people of the several States have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as free, sovereign and independent States, subject only to the limitation of the Constitution, and that all powers not herein expressly granted to the National Government, are reserved to the States respectively, and we deny the right of the Federal Government, through the treaty power, to permanently domicile Mongolians with in any State without the consent of the Legislature thereof.

2. We affirm that the greatest danger with which we are now threatened, is the corruption and extravagance which exists in high official places, and we do declare as the cardinal principle of our future political action, that retrenchment, economy and reform are imperitively demanded in all the governments of the people, Federal as well as State and Municipal, and we hereby proclaim ourselves the uncompromising foes of the salary-grab law ring politicians and land monopolists, whoever they may be and wherever they may be found, whether they are in or out of office, and we appeal to honest men everywhere, without regard to past party affiliations, to join us in branding as they deserve these corrupt leeches on the body politic and assist us to purge official stations of their unwholesome and baneful presence.

3. The present Federal Administration, by its utter inability to comprehend the dignity or responsibilities of the duties with which it is charged, by its devotion to personal and partisan interests, by its weak and inconsistent management of the National finances, by its unwarrantable interference with the local self-government of the people—by its support of the corrupt governments which it has imposed by its power upon several States of the Union, by its complicity with corrupt practices and scandals in various quarters, and by its appointment of notoriously incompetent men to high official position, has justly brought upon itself the condemnation of the American people.

4. That the persistent interference by Federal officials in local elections, and the use of large sums of money to defeat the voice of the people through the ballot-box, deserves and receives our severest condemnation.

5. That corporations are the creations of law, their franchise and privileges are granted to subserve the public interests, and when these are used, not to subserve the object of their creation, but for purposes of oppression and extortion, we declare it to be the right and duty of the legislature to control such corporations.

6. That we favor speedy return to specie payments, just and equal taxation for support of Federal and State governments, and that we are opposed to all discrimination in the assessments of Federal revenue for the purposes of protection.

7. That the free navigation and improvement of the Columbia river, the construction of a breakwater at Port Orford, the improvement of the Coquille and Willamette rivers, and the construction of the Portland, Dalles & Salt Lake Railroad, are improvements demanded by the commercial interests of this State, and that the Federal Government ought by all proper means to assist those measures; that we are in favor of the bill now before Congress, generally Knows as the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad bill, and we also favor the early completion of the Oregon and California Railroad to the southern boundary of the State.

8. That we disapprove all measures in the interests of capitalists and monopolies against labor, believing that distinctions, if distinctions be made, should be in favor of the laboring class who constitute the mass of our citizens, the producers of the wealth and prosperity of our country. We therefore approve of the declared principles, and sympathize with the avowed object of the organization known as the Patrons of Husbandry, and with those of all other orders having for their object retrenchment and reform in public affairs, and the social advancement of the people; that we are opposed to a monopoly in the publication and sale of books used in the common schools of this State, and we are in favor of amending the existing laws in relation to such, so as to take away from the publishers of the Pacific Coast series of readers and spellers the special privileges in relation thereto which they now enjoy.

9. That we are in favor of free trade and direct taxation.

10. That the act relating to the fees of sheriffs and clerks ought to be so amended either by making such offices salaried, or by reducing the fees now attached to the same, as shall make the compensation received by such officers a fair remuneration and nothing more for the services required of them. That the Constitution be so amended that all printing for the State after the expiration of the term of the State Printer in office, when such amendment is passed, shall be provided for by letting the same to the lowest responsible bidder. That we are in favor of the repeal of the Litigant Act.

11. That the only legitimate object of government is the protection of its citizens in their lives, liberty and property, and the pursuit of happiness; that to accomplish this end direct means only should be resorted to; that the good resulting from a departure from this rule is temporary, the evil lasting. We are, therefore, opposed to the State engaging in the purchase, leasing or speculating in property of any kind, except such only as is necessary for conducting the ordinary functions of the Government.

12. That we favor the immediate construction of a good and serviceable wagon road along the south bank of the Columbia river, from the mouth of Sandy river to the Dalles.

13. That the compensation of all officers should be only such as will be a just remuneration for their services.

14. That we are in favor of Congressional aid for the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, and for continuing the Oregon Central Railroad from St. Joseph to Junction City.

COLEMAN'S

No better evidence of the efficiency of Dr. J. S. Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus can be desired, than the following summary of cases, treated with this remedy alone, by that eminent physician, Dr. David Wooster, in the U. S. Marine Hospital, San Francisco, reported in the August No. (1872) Pacific Med. Jour.

	No. Cases Treated	Cured	Improved.
Remittent Fever	5	5	...
Chills and Fever	19	19	...
Typhoid Fever	9	9	...
Inflamation of Kidneys	4	3	1
Diuretis	10	7	3
Incontinence of Urine	3	3	...
Stricture	6	4	2
Inflamation of Bladder	27	25	2
Blennorrhagia	13	10	3
Disease of the Heart	7	...	7
Dysentery	4	3	1
Chronic Diarrhoea	13	9	4
Gonorrhœa	15	15	...
Dropsy	6	3	3

EUCALYPTUS

Completely corroborative of the summary of Dr. Wooster, are the reports of the experiments with Eucalyptus by Dr. Lorrimer, of Berlin, Prussia, and Dr. Keeler, Chief Physician of the Austrian Railway Co., published in the American Medical Journal, July, 1872.

It will be found very efficacious in obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Hacking Cough, Chronic Sore Throat, Leucorrhea, etc., and in nausea during pregnancy.

Dr. Coleman's Double Extract of Eucalyptus is a special preparation for the treatment of Fever and Augue, and is Warranted to Cure every case treated according to directions, without the injurious results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies for that disease. Also pure Fluid Extract of Eucalyptus, in one pound bottles, for physicians' use. Beware of imitations and take none but Coleman's.
