THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, JENE 19th, 1874.

"Pass Him Round."-A well known gentleman, writing from Glad Tidings, Clackamas county, under date of the 14th inst., to the Oregonian, gives information concerning a miserable, low villian, who resides in the southwest corner of that county, and who is now roaming at large. This fellow sup-ports the name of John Cox. A few days ago Cox was detected in the very his health. Accordingly one dark night he "sloped," taking away a val-uble saddle belonging to a neighbor. No clue as yet has been obtained of his whereabouts. Cox left behind a sick. young wife who is greatly distressed at the shameful and inexcusable conconduct of her husband. Some creditors are also much grieved at the sudden disappearance of the absconding Cox. That others may know what kind of a man he is, our correspondent desires us to " pass him around."

FOURTH OF JULY .- The Turners of Oregon City, at a meeting held at their hall on Tuesday evening, June 16, appointed a committee for the purpose of taking preliminary measures toward the celebration of the 4th of July. Their desire is to organize a pienic ex-Their desire is to organize a pienic excursion in the immediate vicinity of Oregon City, at which the usual facilities will be offered for enjoying the occasion in the way of speeches, music, dancing, etc. The committee is not, at present, empowered to take any posi-tive steps toward the fulfillment of this programme, but will simply inves-tigate the matter and report to the society at a special meeting to be called on Friday evening, any subsequent action that may be taken will be duly reported through the local press. Dr. S. Parker, Henry Hedges, Wm. E. Pratt, faco, Clark and George Harding are the committee appointed by the society.

Seeing is Believing.

If in this liberal age there are persons to be found who are so blinded by prejudice as not to believe that a medicated stimulant is an item of immense importance in the catalogue of human remedies, we should like them to witness the wonderful effects which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are now producing all over the country in cases of intermittent fever, rheumatism, bilious disorders, dyspepsia, nervous complaints, constitutional debility, mental depression and premature decay. To be sure these effects are nothing new. The great vegetable invigorant and its cures have been before the people for more than twenty-five years, and in every year of the twenty-five its popuing the Governor to pardon Mark larity has increased and its sale has be- NEW OFFERS!
