City Seminary.

The City Seminary was formally losed for the summer vacation on yes- tised. terday. For two weeks, the teachers briginal compositions. Several of the declamations were well rendered and ould bear honerable mention. The compositions were carefully prepared and showed a good degree of culture both though and manner. In style and diction this essay would have done credit to any literary institution in the State, It certainly reflects credit on the school of which she is a graduate. At the close of her thesis, Miss Ross gave a short valedietory. It was couched in choice language and touch agly rendered. The school year just closed has been one of the best in its whole history, The corps of teachers has been able and adequate, and, laboring only for the advancement of the students and the best interests of the school, the results are quite noticeable. changes are being made in the corps of teachers. The principal, Prof. I. A. Macram, has regigned his position for me more akin to that which he intends to follow in the future, Prof. W. W. Mooreland will open a law office. Miss Such Athey, one of the present teachers; goes with her father's resolutions of respect and esteem were unanimously pussed at the last meet-ing of the City Council, on the withdrawal of the ablive named teachers;

Sellwood delivered a very interesting address, so we are informed, and Mr Johnson also made a few appropriate remarks to the scholars. The school has been well-attended during the past term, and the parcons are well pleased with the progress the pupils have made. We are not advised when the next term will commence.

Excussion.-We see it announced in the Portland papers that the Daughters of Rebecca, of Portland, propose to celebrate the Fourth with a grand basket pienie and excursion, coming up to this place on the fine steamer Willamette Chief and going up to the grove above the locks. Good music is to accompany the excursionists. The ladies will no doubt make the afthir a grand success, and a fine time will be had. We would suggest that the Rebecca Locke of this place join them on the grounds.

Money Wanter .- Those persons who know them selves indebted to this othice, either for subscription, advertising, or job work, are requested to e 1 and settle. We dislike to dun our patrons, but some appear to be under the impression that we do not need any money, and hence never think of settling up. We want our accounts closed up, and trust that those to whom this notice applies, will settle without further being dunned.

Good Enough for Oregon.

There seems to be no further doubt as to the success of the Democratic party at the late election in Oregon, although the result has been for some days in doubt, and the combinations of the opposition were known to have been of the most formidable character.

It was stated some time ago that a can get the money by calling at this the Democrats and Republicans in order to defeat the Independents; and it was even said that the Republicans were content to have Governor Grover retain his office, provided larly known as "Slipery Dick" Williams, could be assured of an election. but in the general success of the Democratic ticket, governor, con- mend it to every sportsman who can cation that any such coalition was ever entered into. In this contest there were four tickets in the field; the Democratic, headed by Lafayette F. Grover for governor; the Republicans, J. C. Tolman for governor; Independent, T. F. Campbell, governor, and the temperance ticket, made up in part from the others, with Tolman in the lead. Besides these elements of opposition, isfaction. We doubt the wisdom of our ooo, for supplies and transportation all intended to impair the strength of the Democracy, was the railroad interest, that was exerted more powerfully than in certain other localities, to defeat the Democratic candidates; but the old party clung man-

Four years ago, Mr Grover was elected governor by a majority of 631. In 1872, Grant's majority was 4089. In 1873, Mr. Nesmith was elected to congress by 2071. What the majorities now are we are not advised. It is enough to know that they are on the right side.
