OREGON CITY, OREGON, JUNE 26, 1874. The Civil Rights Bill.

The Sandersville Herald, Georgia, gives its view of the infamous, socalled civil rights bill which recently passed the U.S. Senate, and which we published in our last issue.

On the 27th inst., at half past seven o'clock in the morning. an ignominious act was consummated by the U. S. Senate which is to bring discord and strife in many places. That infamous measure which was begun by Charles Sumner, the Civ.l Rights Bill, has passed the Senate. We do not believe it will make much difference here in our section, but is sure to bring trouble in some places, and must become a hobby for the demagogues, who are seeking place and notoriety. It yet remains to be seen if this bill shall pass the House of Representatives, and my talso receive the saction of President before it becomes a law. It is an honor to those who had their

the passage of this bill.

It will also be an honor greater than he has ever yet obtained, if the President shall put his veto upon this bill in case it passes the House. But if it shall become a law, it will not effect us here much, only it will perhaps culminate in the death of a few impudent blacks, cause a few cases for the courts, and only hasten the downfall of the American Repub-He. When this law comes to be enforced then we are ready to become an imperialist, and will gladly help to tear down this rotton fabric of a Republic, and to build a new structure upon a new basis, with the division of society into proper grades or classes. It will come to this as sure as the world stands, if this bill shall be forced upon the people, and we may as well express our honest convictions and intentions with regard to it.

As Viewed by Others.

The Walla Walla Statesman, speaking of the result of our election says: The reader who has never lived in LIVERY, FEED, AND SALE a city or State controlled by a corrupt republican ring composed of office holders and political tricksters, can form no adequate idea of the crimes that are committed against self government, or the manner in which the people are robbed. Oregon has made a most fortunate escape, and to the independents is she indebted for her safe deliverance out of danger! For the next four years she is assered an honest administration of he public affairs. The most signal tri mph was the election of the independent county ticket in Multnom h, the Gibraltar of the during the summer season, with good Custom house ring. The day of ring rule in Oregon has passed away, and the corruptionists might as well make up their minds that in the future they must take a back seat, and with their downfall the power of 'coin' in controlling elections will no longer be felt. The election of Judge Shattuck to a seat on the Supreme bench is a source of gratification. His election is an indorsement which is due him for his hearty advocacy of all measures calculated to purify the admin aration of public affairs. The confidence and esteem in which he is held by the better class of citizens is evisibled by his election to this important and exalted position. The independents and democrats have accomplished wonders, and proved by their actions their desire to aid in

PIONEER CEMETERY.—In going through the old cemetery east of the city a few days since we came across the following, which will be read with interest by every one. We copy from Mrs. Jason Lee's tomb stone. Ben ath this sod, the first ever broken in Orogon for the reception of white mother and child lie the remains of Anna Maria Pittman, wife of Rev. Jason Lee, and her infant son. She sailed from New York July 1836, landed in Oregon June 1837, was married July 16th, and died June 26th 1838, aged 25 years, in the full enjoyment of that love which constrained her to leave all for Christ, and heathen souls. So we have left all and followed thee, what shall we have therefore .-

saving the State from corruptionists.

----A STATES RIGHTS SENATOR .- A New Haven telegram, May 20th, speaking of W. W. Eaton, the Democratic Senator, says:

The newly elected Senator was serenaded this evening and he briefly responded: Ie said he should, as always heretofore, fight for the Constitution and State Rights, for honest administration, for the prtection of the land not already stolen by the railroads, and against corruption. He was a hard money man; he would defend the bonor of the State as he would that of his wife. He was suffering from a severe cold and his address was short.

3,000 persons present, and if you all pay half a dollar that will be too much. We have some dollar men, some half do ar men, some quarter dollar men, some six penny me, some three cent men, and there are some so mean they will not give a penny.'

Mr. S. C. Bewley, of Tillamook informs the Atatesman that the full returns of that county give Tolman 99 and Grover 54. The Republican county ticket was alls elected except Clerk and Trasurer. So those two officers, Fern de and Holden, Democrats were elected. Dean, Republican, for Joint Representative, received 20 majority.

After being but about four hours, the jury in the case of the State of Oregon vs Thomas Gerrand, for murder in the first d gree, brought in a verdict Taesday evening, at Salem, of guilty is charged in the in-dictment. In their verdict the jury recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court. Friday at 5 o'clock p. m. i time set for passing sentence.

$5,000,000 ENDOWMENT SCHEME!

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT Library of Kentucky.

JULY 31, 1874. In announcing the Fifth and last of the series of Gift Concerts, given for the ben-efit of the Public Library of Kentucky, the Trustees and Manager refer with pride and pleasure to the four which have already been given: The first, December 16, 1871; the second, December 2, 1872; the third, on July 8, 1873; and the fourth, March 31st, Under their charter, granted by a special act of the Kentucky Legislature, March 16, 1871, the Trustees are authorized to give one more, and only one more Gift Concert. With the money arising from this Fifth and last Concert, the Library, Museum, and other departments are to be enlarged and endowed with a fixed and certain annual income. Such an endowment fund is desired as will secure beyond peradventure, not only the maintenance of this magnificent establishment, but its constant growth.

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT for the purposes mentioned, and which is positively and unequivocally announced as the last which will ever be given under this Charter,, and by the present manage-ment, will come off in the Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Ky., on Friday, July 31, 1874. At this final Concert everything will be upon a scale corresponding with its in-creased importance. The music will be rendered by an orchestra consisting of one hundred performers, selected for their fame in different lands, and the unprecedented sum of

$2,500,000, divided into twenty thousand gifts, will be distributed among the ticket-holders,
