MY MOTHER'S VOICE.

From Bellow's Falls Intelligencer. My mother's voice! how often creep Its cadence on my lonely hours! Like healing sent on wings of sleep, Or dew to the unconscious flowers. I might forget her melting prayer, While pleasure's pulses madly fly; But in the still, unbroken air, Her gentle tones comes stealing by And years of sin and manhood flee, And leave me at my mother's knee.

The book of nature, and the print Of beauty on the whispering sea, Give still to me some lineament Of which I have been taught to be. My heart is harder, and perhaps Manliness has drank up tears, And there's a mildew in the lapse Of a few miserable years: But nature's book is even yet With all my mother's lessons writ,

I have been out at eventide, Beneath a moonlight sky of spring, When earth was garnished like a bride, And night had on her silver wing, When bursting buds and diamond grass, And waters leaping to the light, And all that make the pulses pass With wilder fleetness, through the

When all was beauty, then have I. With friends on whom my love is Like myrrh on the wings of Araby, Gaz'd up where evening's lamp is

And when the beauteous spirit there Flung over me its gold chain, My mother's voice came on the air Like the light dropping of the rain; And resting on some silver star, The spirit of a bending knee, I've pour'd deep and fervent prayer, That our eternity might be—

To rise is heaven like stars at night, And tread a living path of light. General News.

The following is a veritable petition signed by sixteen maids of the town of Charleston, S. C., and presented to his Excellency Gov. Johnson, of that province, in the 1783; "The humble petition of all the maids whose names are underwritten: "Whereas, We, the humble petitioners, are at present in a very melancholy disposition of mind, considering how all the bachelors are caltivated by widows, and our more youthful charms neglected; in consequence of all this our request is that your Excellency will, for the future, order that no widow presume to marry any young man until the maids are provided for, or to pay each of them a fine for satisfaction filled. for invading our liberties, and likewise a fine to be laid on all such bachelors as shall be married to widows. The great disadvantage it is to us maids is, that the widows, by their forward carriages, do snap up the young men, and to have the vanity to think their merits beyond ours, which is a great imposition on us, who ought to have the preference. This is humbly recommended to your Excellency's consideration, and hope you will permit no further insults. And we poor maids, in duty bound, will ever pray."

SINGULAR WEATHER,-We once heard of a traveler at a hotel who arose from his bed at night to examine the weather, but instead of looking out upon the sky, he thrust his head through the glass window of a eupboard. "Bless me!" he muttered, "this is very singular weather. The night is as dark as pitch and smells of cheese."

These Bitters do not only disinguish themselves by their flavor and aromatic odor abore all others generally used, but are at the same time an excellent tonic and an efficacious stimulant to excite the appetite. They are prepared from the most choice and wholesome herbs and roots, and have given universal satisfaction wherever tried. Thousands of dyspeptics have found relief through their use, and physicians recommend them for the Blood and Liver, and irregularities of the digestive organs. Headache, Biliousness, and Constipation, General Debility and loss of appetite, are all caused by the derangement of the Stomach, Liver and other functionaries of the system. The IXL Bitters have been successfully used and are warranted to alleviate the sufferer in all the above cases. The IXL Bitters are sold only in glass; to sell other than the genuine article out of our bottles is felony, and we will when detected, prosecute such parties to the full extent of the law. Read Physician's Certificate on each Bottle. Every family should have them in the house.
