OREGON CITY, OREGON, JULY 10, 1874.

Rebecca Excursion. The fine steamer Willamette Chief arrived here last Saturday at 10 oclock, with a large number of excursionists from Portland. At this place they were on the ground, probably, a thou-sand persons during the day, and all by excursionists.

FOURTH AT RINGO'S, -The of July was duly celebrated in the Ringo neighborhood. The farmers and their families, to the number of three hundred and upwards, assembled in a beautiful grove about three miles from Mr. Ringo's, and read by Mr. Wright and the latter by Mr. Leuellen, our newly elected county Assesser. Both were read in a very creditable and acceptable manner. After the reading of these documents mers wives know how to prepare. After dinner almost the entire crowd, old and young, indulged in dancing. glorious Fourth. May all the participants see many returns of the day and be able to join in the celebration of it.

tures, on Spiritualism, at the court take. house, in this city city, last Wednesday evening, to a very good audience. We were not present when she commenced speaking, but were satisfied before she closed. She stated in the course of her remarks, that she had visisted many so-called Spiritual manifestations and had detected frauds in all but one in-stance; ridiculed Ministers and church members; and closed by saying her stay in this city would be prolonged or shortened according to the liberatity of the people. We hope they will be lib-eral enough to allow her to depart on the morning train.

G. A. Taylor, commonly known as "Gad" Taylor, formerly Western Union te egraph operator at this place, has gone and got married. He was married at Oakland, on Tuesday evening, to Miss Hall, of that place, and imme-diately started south to Yreka, where he is employed in the telegraph office. We always thought "Gad," by his sneaking looks on certain occasions, contemplated matrimony. We are glad to see our predictions verified. We hope no "crosses" may come in on the "long line" before him, and may he "keep his connections bright" and his "circuit in good working order."

On Wednesday morning as the express train was entering town, and when near the steamboat company's basin, a horse, which a young man was riding, became frightened and unman-He then turned and ran lown the road and into a team, which was also frightened, and being held by an Indian standing in the road in front The Indian was knocked down and ran over by his team and pretty badly injured. PAINFUL ACCIDENT,-James, son of Dr. Barlow, met with a painful accident last Monday. He was over the river at Uncle Sam. Miller's place, and while up on the top of a rail fence, the rail fell with him, throwing him violently to the ground and dislocating his ankle. Dr. Norris was called and set the limb, and he is getting along all right.
