

THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, JULY 31, 1874.

CRUSAIDERS.—A number of the Portland Crusaders visited our city last Tuesday and held a meeting at the Baptist Church on that evening.

COW-BELLS.—We hope the City Council will do something next Monday evening to prevent this intolerable nuisance from disturbing our citizens.

PERSONAL.—We had a call from Mr. A. C. Edmunds, last Friday. Mr. E. is an old Oregonian, who was formerly connected with the press of this State.

EXECUTIONISTS.—Mr. John Miller and family, accompanied by a number of others, left here last Tuesday for recreation on the "sounding sea shore."

LEAVES US.—Mr. James Athey, an old and highly respected citizen of this place since 1843, leaves with his family to-morrow, for Oakland, California.

LETTER LIST.—The following is a list of the Letters remaining in the Post-office at Oregon City, July 30, 1874:

BARLEY.—The steamer E. N. Cooke was taken through the locks last Thursday and put on the waters of the upper Willamette.

REPAIRING.—The Governor Grover is in the locks undergoing repairs, preparatory to the fall trade.

BECHER'S DEUIL.—From New York dispatches of July 22, we copy the following: Rev. Henry Ward Beecher returned to Brooklyn last night from a visit to the city.

RETURNED.—The party of hunters who went up to the headwaters of the C. Okanogan, returned last Saturday looking as though they had been in a fight with the wild beasts.

CHURCH TOWER.—The Vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church are taking steps to erect a tower in front of the church. This is a much needed improvement, and we hope to see it done.

THANKS.—Mrs. Houghton has our thanks for a very beautiful bouquet. There was one stem in it which contained a cluster of sixteen well developed roses, all close together.

DEATH.—The many friends of Hon. J. S. M. Van Cleave, formerly of this county, will be pained at the news of the death of his oldest daughter, Minerva. She died last Tuesday at East Portland.

DEATH.—The remains of the infant child of Capt. E. Baughman were brought up from Portland yesterday, and buried in the cemetery near town.

There is to be an ice-cream festival given at Myer's Hall to-night (Thursday), for the benefit of the public library.

ST. NICHOLAS FOR AUGUST.—Is an excellent hot-weather number. It contains "The Affair of the Sand-piper," a story of the life of a whaler, by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps; "A Whalesman's Ghost," a story of even a poor fellow in a wood; and an amusing way, "How a Little Bird came to see," by two large installments of "The Two," by T. Trowbridge, and by Frank R. Stockton's "Expended," a story of the North and the South, and the adventures of the boy-hero, who receives a good deal of Natural History in a good deal of a story in this number.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY FOR AUGUST.—The paper in Scribner's for August is read is entitled "Recollections of Charles Sumner," and is the first of a long and admirably connected with Mr. Sumner as his private secretary. Another timely article is Kate Field's Mutual Friend, recently sold in our country. William Henry Goodspeed's original theories in relation to Ptolemy's architecture are fully illustrated in the paper.

UNPLEASANTNESS.—The Salem Record says: A basket meeting was held at Wilcox Soda Springs, in Clackamas Township, on Sunday, by the Rev. John the ground and everything passed along well until about three o'clock, when two young men, raked open an alteration drew their revolvers simultaneously, but one of the parties accidentally, the other put his No. 6 Remington's in the air, and the latter fired off, and it stood "together fell," the shooting interfered and the other party separated with one of his blood being shed.

Hughes has received another addition to his stock of goods.

Timely Warning.

We have on our subscription list quite a number of names who are indebted to us from one to five years. This is a longer credit than we can afford, and within a very few days we propose to notify all in arrears for over a year, the state of their account, and if no settlement be made within thirty days after such notice, we shall discontinue the paper. We cannot give credit for an indefinite time, and hereafter, whenever a person is over a year in arrears, we shall give him notice and stop the paper.

A RELICT OF CHEPLUTEPEC.—The Bulletin says that J. D. Biles, Esq., has in his possession a handsome cane, captured by his father-in-law, the late Captain Kelly, at the battle of Cheplutepec. The staff is of ebony, and the head is of ivory, in the form of a closed hand tightly grasping the neck of a serpent between the thumb and fore-finger, the body of which is wrapped around the wrist. Originally the eyes of this serpent were composed of diamonds, but through long years of use they have fallen out, and the empty sockets only remain.

County Court meets next Monday for Probate business and on Wednesday the Commissioners' Court meets for general county business.

REPAIRING.—The Governor Grover is in the locks undergoing repairs, preparatory to the fall trade.

A Brilliant Record of Cure.

An American humorist tells us that it would have been money in his pocket if he had been without a stomach, and then proceeds to figure up the cost of a chronic dyspepsia, to which he is a martyr, and which he says it is impossible to cure. On this point, "Josh Billings," (for he is on this party referred to) is mistaken. Unless his stomach differs from all other dyspeptic stomachs, Hostetter's Bitters will cure him in less than three months.

CONFESIONS OF AN INVALID.

Written by NATHANIEL MARY, Esq., who cured himself after a long and going considerable quackery, and mailed free. Receiving a post-paid directed envelope, by the publisher, DR. JOHN M. DAGNALL, 11 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
