THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, AUGUST 14, 1874.

Daring Burglary.—The store of S. Ackerman was entered last Wednesday night by burglars, and an attempt made to rob the safe. They effected an entrance from the back door, cutting away the brick wall each side of the bar which fastens the iron doors, and the bar not being locked, shoved it up and had no further trouble to enter. They then took an axe and attempted to open the safe, which attempt proved unsuccessful. They broke off the arm which covers the key-hole, knocked off the knobs of the door, but found this would not let them in. They then took the axe and commenced chopping through one of the lower pannels, but failed in getting in. They robbed the money-drawer, which contained a small sum, and took a gold watch and chain, worth about $150, a silver watch and other jewelry, amountiug in value to about $300. Mr. Ackerman misses of clothing only a coat, and the thieves left an old one in exchange for that. It is certainly a very daring piece of business and it behooves our people to be on the look out for these chaps. Mr. Ackerman's loss in damage to the safe and what was stolen will not be much less than $500. It is to be hoped that our authorities may get on the track of these burglars.

A Beet Sugar Company.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in connection with the Oregon Sugar Beet Manufacturing company, the object of which is to carry on and conduct the business of manufacturing sugar from beets, and distill spirits from the refuse spirits of such process. The names of the incorporators are George L. Curry, John A. Bradley, Frederic Hiller, Henry Toomy and L. L. Bullock. The manufactory will be located near Aurora, in Marion county, where the business office will probably be stationed. The capital stock has been placed at $100,000, divided into two thousand shares of $50 each. Mr. Hiller has left for Germany to purchase the necessary machinery.

Missing.—Mr. J. H. Walker, a well known citizen of this place, left Antelope valley in Wasco county, some two weeks ago, and was to be here on the following Saturday. Since he left, nothing has been heard from him. He had with him about $250 and it is feared that he has met with some accident or has been murdered. Mr. Walker was to come by way of the Barlow route. His friends are anxiously waiting for further information concerning him, and trust that he may turn up all right.

Died.—J. V. Goodman dropped dead last Monday at Cuttingsville, in this county, supposed to have been from heart disease. Coroner Straight held an inquest on the body and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from natural causes. He was buried by the Odd Fellows of this place, being a member of the Order. We learn that he has no relatives in this State. He formerly resided in California, and has only been in this county about a year.

We call the attention of soldiers and those interested to the advertisement of the law and collection agency of W. H. Aiken of San Francisco. They will there find reliable information as to additional travel pay Bounty Pensions, Prize Money and Land warrants allowed by the Government. We believe that Mr. Aiken from his official position in the Grand Army has the confidence of soldiers on this coast. Information given by him free of charge.

Court House.—At the last term of the County Court the Commissioners purchased the D[illegible]essing brick building for a Court House. The price paid was $1,800 in county orders, equivalent to $2,00[illegible]. The property is very cheap at this price, and the commissioners regarded it as a matter of economy to purchase it instead of paying $800 for rent, as in the past. Clackamas now has a Court House.

Fruit Packing.—We see it stated that a fruit packing and drying company has been organized at Salem, which proposes to extensively engage in this business. Would it not be a good policy for our Clackamas county fruit raisers to organize a similar company. They would certainly have a splendid opportunity of getting plenty of fruit and that of the very best quality.

Struck Marble.—From the Statesman we learn that Frank Cooper has struck it rich out on Butte creek, near the limestone quarries. He has discovered an immense marble-bed 28 feet thick and of unknown extent, and is about to put up a stone-sawing mill thereon. The marble is of the variegated sort, and is said to be of a fine quality.

Oregon Cherries in San Francisco.—The San Francisco Chronicle of July 30th says that Littlefield, Webb & Co. have a cluster of Royal Ann cherries on exhibition at their store, which is probably the largest ever seen in San Francisco. It is one foot in length and weighs three pounds. It was grown on the ranch of Seth Luelling, in Oregon.

Where Is He?—A Robert Bolton, recently from California, wishes information as to the whereabouts of his brother John Bolton. He formerly worked at his trade (cooper) in Oregon City. Any information respecting him, will if communicated to Mr. J. L. Barlow, Oregon City, be thankfully received by his brother.

Taken to Portland.—The hull of the new light-draught steamer which has been built at Canemah by Mr. Paquet for Mr. Scott, was taken through the locks to Portland last Wednesday for the purpose of receiving her machinery. It is stated that the boat will not draw over eight inches of water when she is finished.

Called.—We were pleased to rteceive a call from our old friend and ever active agent, Mr. S. A. Miles, of St. Helens, last Monday. He looks as young, stout and healthy as could be desired. He is one of the best men in Columbia county or any other place, and it always does us good to see him.

Burglars.—Some one entered the residence of Mr. Schram last Tuesday night, but hearing a noise they got out without getting anything. The residence of Mr. Howell, of Canemah, was entered a short time ago and the thieves got a few dollars in money. Our citizens should be on the look out.

Thanks.—We are under many obligations to Messrs. Walling & Son, of Oswego, for a box of plums, left at our office last Thursday. They were of the peach variety and the largest as well as the richest flavored we have seen this year.

Election.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that Mayor McCown has ordered an election for Chief Engineer to be held on the 22d inst.

Returned.—John Miller and family returned from Salmon river last Friday. Their complexion is somewhat darker than when they left.

Campmeeting.—About one half the town folks went to the Canby Campmeeting last Sunday.

County Court.—The following are the proceedings of the County Court for the August term:

Estate of H. Campbell, deceased. Now comes S. L. Campbell, administrator of said estate, and files his annual report. It is ordered that the 7th of September be set for final settlement, and for hearing objections thereto.

Estate and guardianship of minor heirs of John Dickey. Annual report of guardian of heirs of John Dickey filed. Report examined and approved.

Estate of Alonzo Wells, deceased. Inventory and appraisors' report filed, examined and approved.

Estate of W. C. Dement, deceased. Semi-annual report filed, examined and approved.

Estate of E. Lecoy, deceased. Administrator exonerated and discharged estate being settled.

Commissioners' Court.—Robert Zoller allowed $50 00 for injury to wagon on county bridge in Road District No. 43.

Taxes on the lands of Mr. E. Willoughby and A. G. Cunningham were refunded.

In the matter of the petition of Horace Baker and others for the location of a county road, road ordered surveyed.

New County Safe.—The County Commissioners, recognizing the importance of preserving the county records from fire, at their term in July, ordered from the Hall Safe and Lock Co. a large fire-proof safe. The safe arrived here yesterday and was placed in the room under this office. It is an excellent piece of work throughout, being the finest finish we have seen. It is 68 inches high; 52 wide and 32 deep, and has the Hall combination lock, without key or key-hole and weighs 5,000 pounds. The cost of the safe is $900. We think this is money well invested. These safes are meeting with great success in this State, Mr. Stilshire having sold over one hundred. They had 21 in the late Chicago fire and every one preserved their contents in good condition.

Fell off the Bridge.—Gen. A. L. Lovejoy fell off the railroad bridge this (Thursday) morning, just after the morning train passed, injuring him so severely that he was carried to his residence insensible, and received a gash in his head about two inches long. We have not been able to get full particulars of the sad accident, and trust that the General may soon be about again.

Hard Trip.—We learn that Mrs. Meldrum, on her way to Salmon river met with a painful accident, being thrown off the horse, and painfully injuring her shoulder, the party having arrived at their destination allright with this exception.

Returned.—Mr. W. H. Highfield returned from his trip to San Francisco on the steamer which arrived at Portland yesterday, and is again ready for business.

A False Husband and Wife.

We take the following account of a first-class sensation from the Oregonian of last Tuesday. The wife of Smith has her father residing in this county, about two miles south of this place. We are also informed that said Smith and his affinity, were in the vicinity of this town last Tuesday morning:

East Portland rejoices in a first-class case of crim. con., the development of which within the past few days has thrown the social tranquillity of that quiet burg into a state of spasmodic excitement. The circumstances of this case are substantially as follows, which we give the reader in brief: About six weeks ago a gentleman residing in Idaho, furnished his wife with $800 for the purpose of enabling her to visit two married sisters who live in this city. The lady, whose name we suppress, arrived here in safety, accompanied by a little daughter. She stopped at the house of a brother-in-law, residing in East Portland, and for a short time everything passed smoothly along. The brother-in-law, who is a well-known member of the turf-sporting fraternity, had in his employ a man named Dan Smith, who personated the role of chief holster. This skillful manipulator of the curry-comb and brush; was not blessed with great personal beauty, the "gift of gab," or the power to stir men's souls, but he captivated the eye of the fair Idahoan. Her strong preference for Smith soon became apparent to her sister and brother-in-law, and finally assumed such a decided character as to lead the family with whom she was stopping to surmise, and subsequently to strongly suspicion, that relations of an improper nature existed between the parties. Smith has a wife and three children, but he seemed unmindful of all else save his new-found affinity. Matters continued to grow worse, until the brother-in-law determined to ascertain the truth or falsity of his suspicions. It did not take long to satisfy himself beyond doubt that a criminal intimacy was being maintained between the suspected parties. But one course was left, and that was to discharge Smith, and forbid the false wife ever to enter his house again. this was done and the doors were closed against the guilty pair. The wife finding herself placed in an extremely awkward predicament, came over to her other sister, who resides in this city. But the story of her guilt preceded her, and she was refused admittance. She returned to East Portland, where she was joined by Smith. They proceeded to a hotel and registered their names as man and wife, and occupied one apartment on Friday night. Early on Saturday morning the landlord, who did not know either party, was informed of the peculiar relations which existed between man and woman. He went to the door of the guilty pair, and, finding it locked, unceremoniously kicked it in, and then bade them to depart instanter, and not to stand on the order of the same. It is needless to add that they improved the suggestion offered by the landlord. Meantime the wife of Smith heard of the doings of her spouse, and forthwith swore out a warrant for his arrest, on the charge of adultery. The warrant was placed in the hands of F. R. Neal, City Marshal, who proceeded to the hotel, but found the bird had flown. Smith and the woman caught wind of the proceedings, hired a buggy and started for Milwaukie. Neal heard of it, and mounting a horse gave chase, but Smith's animal proved too fleet, and the Marshal was forced to give the race up. It is said that the couple are hanging about the country, fully intent upon emigrating to some more congenial region. Full particulars have been telegraphed the husband in Idaho, who, it can well be supposed, will have no occasion to throw away vast quantities of saline moisture after his recalcitrant spouse.

On the Astoria Trade.—The Gov Grover was taken out of the loks last Sunday and put on the Astoria trade. The opposition between Astoria and Portland is quite spirited, and a person can go down and back now for $1.

Rev. Mr. Bailey, President of the McMinnville College, will preach at the Baptist Church in this city next Sunday.

Important.—An important circular letter from Hon. I. R. Moores will be found on the first page of this issue. We call especial attention of our farmers to this letter and trust that Clackamas county may be well represented by contribution for this purpose.

Shooting Affray.—A telegram from Ashland, dated the 11th inst., says that Mr. R. B. Hatton, who arrived to-day from Fort Klamath, brings news of the shooting and killing of Oliver Hurt by William Brown on the 8th inst., in Sprague river valley. Oliver Hurt is the man who killed George Brown, brother of William Brown, last Spring, and was tried and acquitted on the ground that the killing was done in self-defense.

An Unwholesome Season.

The closing days of winter and the early days of spring are very trying to the feeble and sensitive and are apt to affect unpleasantly even the more robust and vigorous. Nothing can be more uncongenial to the nerves or more depressing to the spirits than damp, chilling winds, fogs and cold rains, and of such unwelcome visitors we have a superabundance at this season. Common prudence suggests, therefore, the propriety of fortifying the system against these insidious enemies of health and comfort, and the experience of more than a quarter of a century points to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the all-sufficient sanitary safeguard under such untoward circumstances. As accession of vital strength and energy is what is required to meet and overcome the unhealthy elements now present in the atmosphere. This increase of vital power, so necessary to meet the extraordinary drafts which an inclement season makes upon the system and the constitution, can be readily acquired by taking from two to three doses of Hostetter's Bitters daily during the winter and spring months. The nature of this celebrated restorative is well known to the public. It is composed of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, medicated with the extracts and juices of the most effective tonic, alterative, anti-billious and laxative roots and herbs known to medical science. To the combination of these excellent ingredients, in proportions suitable to the exigencies of enfeebled, languid and diseased systems, the great tonic-alterative owes its efficiency as a preventive and curative. A course of it, commenced now, will prevent all danger of fever and ague, rheumatism, or other ailments arising from cold and damp peculiar to spring months, and also prove a safeguard against the attacks of dyspepsia and liver complaint which so frequently occur at this period of the year.

The Parker Gun.—We take pleasure in calling attention of our Valley friends to the wonderful merits of the double-barreled breech loading shot guns manufactured by Parker Brothers, West Meriden, Conn.

The highest testimonial received from all sections of the country, and the thorough test given it in the field by our friend Capt. Green B. Samuels, warrant us in asserting that it is the best breech-loading shot gun in the world. The simplicity of construction, the ease with which it can be loaded or unloaded, the facility with which the load can be changed from small to large shot—enabling the sportsman, in an instant, to adapt his change to any sized game that may present itself—the ease with which it may be kept clean its availability to a country where nothing but muzzle-loading ammunition can be procured, all combine to recommend it to every sportsman who can appreciate a perfect fowling piece.—"Warren Sentinel;" (Front Royal, Va.)
