The buildings occupied by Messrs Wasserman & Co. and R. Jacob, are similar to the one occupied by Messrs. Goldsmith, & Co., with the exception that they only run partly back to First street. Both these firms have heavy stocks on hand and propose to do an exclusive wholesale business. The buildings and the cupy them are a credit to firms that of SCAPE.-Last Thursday evening a n.an named Wilson, employed about the warehouse, had a narrow escape from drowning. He was passing from one boat to another that were lying in the basin, and as he went to step across his foot slipped and he went to the ottom. The unfortunate man was v able to swim or in the slightest me mer aid himself, and he was nearly gone before assistance could be rendered. The men around the warehouse, as soon as they found him overboard, endered all the assistance in their power, and by hard work suceuing the unfortunate atery grave.

> SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY FOR SEPTEM-BER. -Scribner's for September contains an unusual number of stories. The most striking of all is Bret Harte's amusing sketch of "Wan Lee, the Pagan." Then there are stories, continued or complete, by Jules Verne, Miss Miss Trafton, James T. McKay, Constance Fenimore Woolson, Harriet Prescott Spofford, and Miss Hopkins, author of "Miss Marigold's Thanksgiving." Mrs. Davis describes "The Pepper-Pot Woman." Mr. Burroughs giving. writes charmingly about "Melfow England," Mr. Crosby brightly about
