THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, SEPT. 11, 1874.

DROWNED .- The friends and relations of Dr. Lansdale, of this city, will be pained to read the following, which Olympia Courier, from the Skokomish Agency, under date of September 3:
The most intense gloom has been east over our little community by a painfully distressing case of drowning, which occurred last evening about 7 oclock, at this place. Dr. R. H. Landsoclock, at this place. Dr. R. H. Landsoclock, at this place of the bank of the river in front of the bank of the river in front of the house, when the youngest, aged about process. house, when the youngest, aged about house, when the youngest, aged noote six years, in attempting to reach a stick of wood floating on the water, lost his balance and fell in. The brother caught at him but failed to reach him, when the alarm was immediately given and the father, who was in the back part of the house, rushed out just in time to see the body floating off into deep water. He jumped in but falled to reach the drowning child, and when he came up immediately cried for help. that moment no one was near, and it was sev al minutes before any one an expert Indian swimmer dived down where he was last seen but failed to find him. Boats were then brought and he was finally seen, havbrought and ne was many seen, hav-ing drifted into very deep water and among repts, but was taken out with a hook, and all the means used that could be to reanimate the lifeless form, but of no avail. It was too late.

FINE RESIDENCE.—The beautiful residence of Mayor McCown on the bluff, is nearly completed, and he expects to is nearly jumper. It is complete Dr. Thessing property, and have rented in all its various appartments. On the first floor there are four rooms, and a dining room, kitched and bathroom. On the second floor there are five bedrooms. The building is finely arranged and very convenient. The carpenter work which reflects credit on his meskill, was done by Mr. James Milne; the plastering by D. J. Slaver and R. Tredgold, and is pronounced by good judges to be of superior workmanship. The finishing touches of painting are being put on by M. C. Athey and Thomas Miller, and they are doing credit to themselves It is certainly a desira-We congratulate Mayor the completion of his worse. The building is a credit and an ornament.

At the last Council meeting an order was passed instructing the Street Commissioner to build a new walk up the bluff, at the same place the present one is, provided, if the citizens want it, they can have it run to the depot street by paying the difference in the cost, which, we learn, will be about $45. We trust that the citizens interested will raise this sum and have an easier and better grade than the old

New Trial.-Upon the assembling of the Supreme Court at Salem last Monday morning, Mr. Justice McArthur announced the opinion of the court in the Gerrand case. The point | achies and invigorants, in the hope of enupon which the case turned was in listing the confidence of the public in the relation to the admissibility of the testimony of W. S. Barker, the jailor | tate and copy the language in which the prisoner of the defendant. It appears that after the defendant had submitted testimony in relation to his general good character, and rested his case, the court below allowed the above-named witnesses to testify as to specific acts of Gerrand while to record in our market reports from in custody, as rebutting the testimothe judgment of the Circuit court,

Norvell, the financial editor of the Times, as principal editor, and Mr. Westleigh, the original projector of the Times, as business manager.

> GRANT CERTAINLY A CANDIDATE-There is no attempt at concealment on the part of the friends of General Grant, remarks the Louisville Cour ier-Journal, that he has determined to run for a third term if he has any satisfactory assurance of success. It is said now by those who are in a position to know that one of the principal reasons of his secluding himself at Long Branch is that he may preserve more than ever that silence which has hitherto proven so sue cessful a policy with him.

ANOTHER. - This appears to be the season for newspaper men and print ers to get married, especially around Salem. Scarcely had the excitement abated consequent on the marriage of Frank Hodgkins, before we are startled with another announcement the newspaper fraternity went and did likewise. It was done on last Monday at Salem, and Miss Jennie Stover is the young lady that has made John's heart happy. We wish them a pleasant journey down the pathway of life.

MARRIED .- Frank Hodgkins, Esq. local editor of the Oregon Statesman, was married in Salem on Wednesday evening, the 2d inst., to Miss Frankie Danbar. We wish our young friend all the joy imaginable and trust that they may both live to a ripe old age, blessed with numerous little responsibilities which are so essential to make up the household.

WILL RETURN.-It appears from the letter of the New York Tribune London correspondent that Sir Ed ward Thornton will continue to represent the British government at Washington. Since he was accredited in 1868, he has been charged tact, ability and courtesy.

Happy Relief for Young Men from the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life

The Cant of Imposters.

It is so obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the venders of drastic purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomdevitalizing and pernicious potions. It is amusing to note how these imposters imiand of Benjamin Blanton, a fellow- medicinal properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping evacuants to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recom-mended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is time this humbug (not a very successful one it is true, thanks to the mature common sense of the American people) was stigmatized as it deserves. Such mischievious falsehoods should be exposed pro bono publico. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, be it distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It has a spirituous basis, and that basis is the vehicle which diffuses its wonderful sanitary principles through every part of the system. The tonic, alterative and regulating ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not, so to speak, carried to the localities where they are required by the stimulating agent. The cant which protests against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect to the medicinal extracts of the highest utility, is the cant of charlatanism Every intelligent physician so characterizes it, and the sick who are griped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting nostrums of the parties who put it folth, soon find to their sorrow that it is delusion and a snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is, in the truest sense of the words, a whole some, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

What is this great remedy, and what are its effects? These are questious which the great American public has a right to ask, and it also has a right to expect a candid and satisfactory reply. The preparation is a mild and gentle saline cathartic, alterative and tonic, and is most carefully prepared in a snow white powder, contain-ing all the wonderful medical properties of the far-famed Seltzer Springs of Germany.

Of its effects, those who have tested the preparation are the best judges, and they lecture, over their own signatures, that the preparation will promptly relieve indiges-tion, regulate the flow of the bile, cure every species of headache, tranquilize the nervous system, refresh and invigorate the weak, mitigate the pangs of rheuma-tism. neutralize acid in the stomach, cleanse and tone the bowels, assist the failing appetite, cure the heartburn. If you are a sufferer, give this remedy one trial, and it will convince you of the above facts. Sold by all druggists.
