THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, DEC. 25, 1874.

ANNIVERSARY.—The members of the Order and some invited gueste assembled at the Lodge rooms last Wednesday evening for the purpose of celebrating the twenty-first anniversary of Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F. Owing to the very bad weather, there was not as many out as we would liked to have seen, and we regret that we were not present at the commencement. Regular speeches were made by Brothers McCown and Chas. Kelly, the former we did not hear, but were informed that it was one of that gentleman's happiest efforts; the latter was very interesting and portrayed many of the beauties of Odd-Fellowship. Mrs. M. C. Athey read a poem which we have heard very highly spoken of and which we shall probably publish. One of this lady's former production, in prose, was so highly thought of by our brethren in the East, that it was coppied from the ENTERPRISE, and inserted in a very interesting book, called the "Odd Fellow's Gem." After Mr. Kelly closed his remarks, the Rev. Mr. Selfwood, who had been selected by the givers, presented, in behalf of who, we know not, the Noble Grand, for the Lodge, a beautiful banner, made of white satin, inscribed "I. O. O. F.," the three links, "Oregon Lodge, No. 3." The presentation speech was a beautiful lesson to all Odd Fellows, and the response made by Brother McCown showed that he, at least, felt the importance of the words spoken by one who is not an Odd Fellow, but who embraced in his review of the emblem of the three links the most glorious truths of the Order. We regret that space will not allow us to go further into detail in this matter. After this, the Noble Grand called on volunteer speakers, which call was answered by Bros. Locy, Burns, J. T. Apperson, Randall and Noltner, in short speeches, and also by the Rev. Mr. Starr, who made a very interesting speech.

SERIOUS FALL.—Capt. J. D. Miller, of this city, met with a very painful accident at Albany last Saturday. He was about to step on the deck of the Fanny Patton from the wharf when his foot slipped from under him, causing him to fall on the deck of the boat, a distance of about 10 or 12 feet. As he fell, he struck his head against one of the blocks used to fasten the boat with, knocking him insensible. A physician was called, and he was made as comfortable as possible, but he did not recover his senses for some time after the fall. The Patton came to Salem, and the Captain was transferred to the Alice, and brought down here the same day. He received a severe blow on the head, and his side was very badly hurt, but no bones broken, and we are pleased to state, that at the present writing, he is fast recovering, and will be around in a few days.

EXCELLENT EXCHANGE.—We know there are many of our patrons who desire to give us a Christmas or New Year's present. We are equally as anxious to give them one, and hence propose this excellent exchange from now until the 1st of January. We will receive all back dues from our patrons and gladly give them a receipt for the same. This will be an excellent exchange, and neither will get more than is justly due. Let our patrons give us a call. We want to get as near even with the world as we can by the commencement of the New Year.

GOING INTO BUSINESS.—Prof. Macrum having been admitted to the bar, has made arrangement in connection with Messrs. Johnson & McCown, of this city, to open an office in Portland, where he proposes to commence the practice of law. Mr. Macrum is a gentleman of the highest character, thoroughly educated, strict integrity, and of excellent abilities, and we have reason to expect that he will soon take front rank in his profession. We sincerely regret to have him leave our place, but trust that he may meet with the best of prosperity in his future home.

CHINAMAN HURT.—Last Monday as a Chinaman was working around the wool picker, he was caught in the same and before he could be extricated one of his arms was terribly lacerated and one of his legs broken. A doctor was called, but John did not wish to submit to American treatment, and he was taken to Portland, his limbs bleeding terribly. When he arrived there, Dr. Kinney amputated his arm just below the shoulder, and if the Chinaman gets over it, it will be a wonder.

NICE.—While in Portland last week we were shown some furniture manufactured by the Oregon Furniture Company, which is to be exhibited at the Centennial Exhibition in 1876. The work is made out of Oregon maple and shows the superiority of that wood for furniture. Mr. Dufur is urging the people of our State to prepare articles for the exhibition, and if we are not properly represented, it will not be any fault of his or his co-laborers in this respect.

LECTURE.—Mr. Calvin B. McBonal l delivered the fourth lecture of the course last Monday evening, to a rather better house than there heretofore attended. The subject was "The Massacre of Glencoe." The lecture was well delivered and is full of eloquence, and fully merits the reputation it has received. The next lecture will be delivered by Prof. T. F. Campbell, next Monday evening, who is one of the most pleasing speakers in our State. Subjec, "Tenure of Life."

MUSICAL.—Sherman & Hyde's Musical Reporter, of San Francisco, for November, is an unusually goodly number. It contains a sketch of the life of George T. P. Bromley, Gleanings from Musical History, a large collection of interesting miscellaneous matter, the usual Art Notes, Musical Criticisms and four fine pieces of vocal and instrumental music. It is worth double the subscription price of one year. Subscriptions will be received till January 1st at $1 per year; after that at $1 50.

LETTER LIST.—The following is a list of the Letters remaining in the Post-office at Oregon City, Dec. 25, 1874:

Bloodsworth, J.; Dicky, Mrs. Martha Ann; Hoyt, John; Naus, H. 2; Payne, Mrs. Sarah E.; May Millie, 2; Rogers, G. W. 2; Sprogue, Mrs. Statira; Suard, John; Stockhouse, J. P.; Walker, A. J.; Wodsworth, Edwin.

If called for, please say when "advertised.' J. M. BACON, P. M.

MASONIC ELECTION.—At the regular session of Multnomah Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., held at their hall last Saturday evening, the following officers were elected for the the ensuing Masonic year: C. W. Ganong, W. M.; J. M. Welsh, S. W.; C. M. Kester, J. W. W. H. Fouts, Secretary; N. W. Randall, Treasurer; J. W. Shattuck, Tyler.

WILL OPEN.—Dr. J. Welch, of this city, who has a reputation as a dentist second to none in this State, has rented an office in the Odd Fellows Temple, Portland, which he will fit up in first-class style and open an office in that city abont the first week in January. The Doctor needs no recommendation at our hands, and will undoubtedly receive a full share of patronage.

ROAD SUPERVISORS.—Under the new law passed by the last Legislature, Road Supervisors are required to make their returns at the January term of the County Court, in place of the February term, as heretofore. Those interested will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The children of the Episcopal Sunday School will have a tree at the Church this (Thursday) evening. There will be an address dilivered by the Rector, singing by the children and other interesting exercises. The friends and parents of the children are expected to put on presents for them this year, as there is no general fund for that purpose raised. The public are cordially invited to attend.

CHRISTMAS BALL.—A grand ball is to take place to-morrow evening (Friday) at Pope's Hall. Every arrangement is being made to make this the ball of the season. The Aurora String Band will furnish the music, and the ladies of the city are to arrange the supper, which will unquestionably be one of the best ever served in this town. A fine time may be expected by all who shall attend.

ADMITTED.—Last week, Prof. I. A. Macrum and Mr. E. L. Eastham, of this city, were admitted to the bar, passing a very creditable examination. They are both men of good abilities, and good, reliable characters, and we have no doubt but what they will prove an honor to the profession they have selected.

IN BLOOM.—Mr. Howlett informs us that strawberry vines were in bloom on the hills in Eagle Creek precinct on the 15th of this month. We have had no winter so far, and trees seem to be ready to bloom out on the first warm day. Oregon is truly the finest climate on the continent.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—There will be services held at the Episcopal Church this (Friday) morning, at 10½ o'clock. The Christmas services at this Church are unusually interesting, and hyms sung on such occasions are truly beautiful. It is expected that the Church will be crowded.

THOROUGHLY TESTED.—The parties who thought they had discovered a silver ledge, after having given the matter a thorough test, have ascertained that the rock contains no silver, or anything of value.

WANTS TO SEE THEM.—Sheriff Apperson wants the tax-payers to call a little more frequent. The time for paying the State tax is near at hand, and he wants the money to meet it.

CHRISTMAS SOCIABLE.—The scholars attending the Methodist, Congregational and Baptist Sunday Schools, will have a grand sociable at the library rooms and the Court House, this (Thursday) evening.

THE BALL.—There is to be a ball given at Pope's Hall to-night (Thursday), when we suppose all who wish to enjoy themselves will be in attendance.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.—Prof. Moreland gives notice to teachers in this county that he will hold a public examination to-morrow. Those interested will take notice of this fact.

CORRECTION.—In our last issue we announced that "A. J. Apperson" was elected C. P. of Falls Encampment. It should have been "J. T. Apperson."

CALLED.—We had a call from our friend Wm. Moreland, of Needy, last Tuesday. He reports everything lovely in his part of the county.

CLOSE.—Most of our business houses will observe Christmas by closing their establishments to day.

A CHRISTMAS HYMN.

It was the calm and silent night.
Seven hundred years and fifty-three
Had Rome been growing up to might,
And now was queen of land and sea.
No sound was heard of clashing wars,
Peace brooded o'er the hushed domain;
Apollo, Pallas, Jove and Mars
Held undismayed their ancient reign,
In the solemn midnight,
Centuries ago.

'Twas in the calm and silent night.
The Senator of haughty Rome
Impatient urged his chariot's flight,
From lordly revel rolling home;
Triumphal arches gleaming swell
His thoughts with boundless sway;
What recked the Roman what befell
A paltry province far away,
In the solemn midnight,
Centuries ago?

Within that province far away
Went plodding home a weary boor!
A streak of light before him lay,
Fallen through a half-shut stable door
Across his path. He passed, for naught
Told what was going on within;
How keen the stars! his only thought,
The air, how calm and cold and thin,
In the solemn midnight,
Centuries ago!

O strange indifference! Low and high
Drowsed over common joys and cares;
The earth was still, but knew not why,
The world was listening unawares.
How calm a moment may precede
One that shall thrill the world forever!
To that still moment none would heed
Man's doom was linked no more to sever,
In the solemn midnight,
Centuries ago!

It is the calm and solemn night.
A thousand bells ring out and throw
Their joyous peals abroad, and smite
The darkness, charmed and holy now,
The night that erst no shame had worn,
To it a happy name is given;
For in that stable lay new-born,
The peaceful Prince of earth and heaven,
In the solemn midnight,
Centuries ago!

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY FOR DECEMBER.—"Notes on Kentucky and Tennessee," in the December number of Scribner's, form the final regular installment in the Great South Series, by Mr. King. A description of the Mammoth Cave forms a large part of this article, and there are several fresh illustrations of this wonderful place. The other articles illustrated, either by means of pictures or diagrams, are "The Transit of Venus," "The Probabilities of Rivers," "The Silver Age," and "Rambles in Madeira." In fiction we have the continuation of Jules Verne's "Mysterious Island" with illustrations; and of Saxe Holm's curious story, "My Tourmaline;" also "Jeannette," by Miss Woolson, and "In a Trumpet," a Thanksgiving story by Miss Hopkins, author of "One of Miss Widgery's Evenings." Mr. Stedman gives us us another of his essays on "The Victorian Poets," this time grappling with that tough subject, Robert Browning himself. There are poems by Celia Thaxter and others. In "Topics of the Time" Dr. Holland writes about "The Great South Series of Papers," "Christianity and Color," "Investment for Income," Nature and Literature." The Doctor says that Edward King traveled in all twenty-five thousand miles in gathering the materials for his papers. In the department of Etchings there is an amusing account of "The Devil in Literature." Dr. Holland's new novel, "The Story of Sevenoaks," will begin in the January number of Scribner's.

The Astorian says: Our paper mail bag was left on the wharf Friday night, among some sacks of potatoes. Such oversights on the part of the carrier are too common to relish, and implies the need of a visit here from the Postal Agent.

At a meeting of the members of Oswego Grange No. 175, held at Oswego, Dec. 16th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, C. W. Bryant; Overseer, Otto Kruse; Lect., J. M. Libbie; Steward, H. T. Shipley; Assistant Steward, Mack Ramsby, Jr.; Chaplain, Walters Carman; Treas., Mrs. J. Libbie; Sec., A. R. Shipley; Gate Keeper, J. Ranger. Ceres, Mrs. M. A. Dickinson. Pomona, Mrs. S. Ford; Flora, Mrs. C. E. Shipley; Lady Assistant Steward, Miss A. Shipley. A. G. WALLING, Jr.
Secretary.

A Valuable Medical Treatise.

Hostetters United States Almanac for 1875 for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, the professional man; and the calculations are made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive National Calendar.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetters Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

THE APPROACH OF THE PRESIDENTIAL election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully and fearlessly.

The Weekly Sun has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

The Weekly Sun will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, and at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legible printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favor from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are reported in its columns.

The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount, or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which required payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 55 cents a month, or $6 50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

A Representative and Champion of American Art Taste!

Prospectus for 1875—Eighth Year.

THE ALDINE,

THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA,

Issued Monthly.

"A Magnificent Conception, Wonderfully carried out."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariable followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the American people to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, The Aldine is an unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume could not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there is the chromo besides!

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

"Man's Unselfish Friend"

will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Wit Talmage tells that his own New Foundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it! and though so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to The Aldine for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all the Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500, are to be distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of The Aldine. This feature applies only to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.

Its gentle action renders it remarkably efficatious in Dyspepsia and Constipation, giving the organs the assistance needed, and impairing a tone and strength soon dispenses with artificial aid.

Farm to Rent.

THE UNDERSIGNED WILD RENT his farm situated on the Willamette river two miles below Oregon City, and containing 416 acres, for two, three or four years, on liberal terms. The farm has 180 acres under new fence, 20 acres of which is beaver-dam land, nicely seeded down to timothy, and is one of the best meadows of the size in the State. Adjoining this meadow, on the one side, is a field of 14 acres, well set in timothy and clover; and on the other side is 90 of slashing, done over a year ago, and burned over this fall.

It's convenience to market, whether to Portland or Oregon City gives it superior advantages. I will only rent to a person who will live upon and work the farm.

I have also a half section of good land, 40 acres of which is under fence, situated about three miles from Aurora, which I will sell on reasonable terms.

For further particulars apply to the undersigned at his residence in Oregon City.

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons

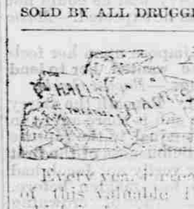
It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.



Every year it grows in popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to its merits. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standards; and it is the only reliable and perfect preparation for restoring Gray or Faded Hair to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. It promotes, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out; it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use, the hair grows faster and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
