

THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, JAN. 15, 1875.

TAINTED.

BY T. C. HANBACH.

She stood at the door of a stylish church And wistfully looked within.
She, the daughter of want and scorn, She, the child of sin.
She heard the organ's peal on peal Of unknown melody;
And said with a sigh that wrung her soul
"He never died for me."

She saw the worshippers and heard The faint muffled prayer;
The rich oppressor preached to heaven, The wronged to God knows where!
The cushioned pews, the long drawn aisle,
Were very fair to see;
"Until this very hour," cried she,
"I've thought he died for me."

"O, thought how loved of late, but vain!
O, lot, repentant tears!
I nearer stand to a church to-night Than I have stood for years.
A church! Is this God's temple? Say!
And tell me, can it be That he who stands in the pulpit says Christ never died for me?"

"It must be so! I hear him read The words of Christ, the mild; Are they the same my mother read To me when but a child?
Oh! the deductions that he draws!
His story of the prodigal, the rich, the great,
But not, alas! for me."

She turned away from the stylish church,
And never more looked within;
Away from the church she went Down to the haunts of sin.
Then from its doors the night had passed,
And in the light of the sun, They found on the river the beautiful corps.

Of the wronged, unprayed for one.
How Jackson Green Deceived His Poor Old Grandfather.

From the Detroit Free Press.

Jackson Green is fourteen years old, and he lives on Sixth street.
The other day, while reading a dime novel, his grandfather came in with the paper and asked him to read the President's message. It irritated Jackson to break off his story just where the trapper was going to be scalped, so he made up his mind to have revenge on his grandfather.
He took up the paper and started off as follows:

The business of the Patent Office shows a steady increase. Since 1836 over 155,000 patents have been issued.
Olfender Jackson, of the station house, wants it distinctly understood that he is not the Dick confined there a few days since as a lunatic.

"What!" exclaimed the old man,
"is that in the message?"

"Right here, every word of it," replied Jackson. And he continued:
The business of the Agricultural Bureau is rapidly growing and the department grounds are being enlarged, and the highest prize in a Chinese lottery is twenty-nine cents, and the man who draws it has his name in the paper and is looked upon as a heap of a fellow.

"What! what is that?" roared the old man, "I never heard of such a message as that!"

"I can't help it," replied Jackson, "you asked me to read the President's message, and I am reading it." And he went on:

During the year 5,738 applicants for army invalid pensions were allowed at an aggregate annual rate of $39,332, and the pension roll is the best furnishing oil it cleanses, adds a polish and preserves from the ravages of insects.

"For save me! but I never heard of the likes before!" exclaimed the old man, "I've read every President's message since Jackson's time, but I never saw anything like that!"

"Well, I didn't read the message," replied Jackson, and he continued: During the year, 3,200 acres of public domain were certified to railroads, against over six million the preceding year, and you will save money by buying the best clothing presents at the brick block, fine toys of every description at reduced prices.

"Jackson Green, does that message read that way?" asked the old man.
"You don't suppose I'd lie to you, do you?" inquired Jackson, putting on an injured look.

"Well, it seems singular," mused the old man, "I shouldn't wonder if Grant was tired when he wrote that."

Jackson went on:
There are 17,620 survivors of the war of 1812 on the pension roll, at a total annual cost of $1,691,520, and still another lot of those old folks which go like hot cakes on a cold morning.

"Hold on, Jackson—stop right there!" said the old man as he rose up. "You needn't run round with word of that message. If Grant thinks he can insult the American people with impunity he'll find himself mistaken. You may throw the paper in the stove, Jackson, and let this be an awful example to you never to take intoxicating drink."

Jackson tossed the paper away and resumed his dime novel, while the old man leaned back and pondered on the degradation of men in high places.

THE LAST OF THE COURT-BAGGERS.
The election will dispose of the curpet-baggers of this State. They will leave the country. I don't mean to say that anybody will be driven out of Alabama, or that any man who is engaged in any legitimate business here, in town or country, will leave because the Conservatives have carried the State. But there will be no longer any place in this State for the men who came here bankrupt in pursue and in character, and whose only interest in the State during the past six years has been the salaries or the fees they have received in public office. Some of them have saved considerable sums of money, but have very rarely invested it here, and many are already making their preparations to leave the State.

Some of these men who have never been engaged in any business but politics, and never paid a cent of taxes, will carry back thousands of dollars.
Northern men who have come here to plant or to engage in mercantile pursuits will remain and be more prosperous than they have been before.—Atlanta cor. N. Y. Tribune.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE FREE FROM
PURELY BAKED WITHOUT ALCOHOL

STARCH THOUSANDS proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Remedy that ever sustained the sinking system.

No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazil, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive denegrements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essential. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with the Bitters. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offshoots of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Serofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Sore Throat, Gout, Scrofulous Inflammations, Rheumatism, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory or Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Dysentery, Dropsy, Dropsy of the Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Fabrics and Miners, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Goldbeaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take
Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS.
